NATIONAL CHARTER ASSOCIATION.

We had purposed to give in this week's Star, an elaborated article on the whole bearings of the law on political associations, and a safe and certain plan of abiding by the present organization, in defiance of seven Whig lawyers, backed by Whig Ministers. The approaching "Welcome-to-Dan." Demonstration has, however, precluded it, and we must content ourselves with the following short heads of guidance, to which we claim the precise attention of those who desire to be safe.

Let all the people of every locality be of one Association; and as recommended in the admirable

Our friends will bear in mind, that the same trick was attempted to be played by the tottering Whigs in 1837, at the very commencement of the session, when hypocrites met to build monuments to those martyrs who died for the principles which the "Old Mortality" men would commemorate by statues on cold marble, while they have filled their dungeons with those who would have stamped them upon their heart, and would have made them the basis of Universal right. Remember that then, O'Connor, single-handed, and alone, met thirty-seven Whig members of Parliament, and unaided, sate by the workings of a man, after a seven hours' debate, carried an amendment for Universal Suffrage, and thus met the tricksters upon the threshold, and defeated treachery at their very outset. This was to have been the signal for a series of "practical" meetings to keep the Whigs in being properly met, and triumphantly defeated.

THE "WELCOME TO DAN."

Thursday next will be such a day, as Leeds never saw,—nay, such a day, as never before dawned upon England.

Barnsley is ready; Dewsbury is ready; Huddersfield is ready; Halifax is ready; Bradford is ready. Nay, who is there that is not ready to march to Leeds, to give O'CONNOR his day, and Dan his "welcome"!!!

appointments of deputies, that they may duly announce the same.

Now, then, every one to his post ! This is the last warning we can give. Before the Star appears again, the WELCOME will be given—the demonstration will be over. On your existence as a party; on your affection for your wives and your babes; on your own feelings as men and fathers, and women and mothers, we CHARGE you to make BOTH what they should be !!! Again, "every one to his post !"

"One thing mind!—No Riot—no breach of the peace! The Liar said we counselled Riot, because he wished to have one when he found that no other means would save him and his "little flock" from political destruction. Yes! "Riot" would just suit. But he will be disappointed! *No Riot!! "Peace—Law—Order" must be our motto, and

The bare announcement that the Chartists are coming to Leeds to "Welcome DAN," has thrown the menagerie of "birds and beasts" into the most delightful confusion! They suspended selling their tickets, determining to give them only to their own creatures. They whispered to one another "And is it true, think you, that the Chartists will interfere?" Their organ tried the power of "SOFT-SAWDUR," by whining out, "The Chartists have more sense!"—"We cannot believe they will do any such thing."

thing!" Their "snow" is to be guarded by hosts of policemen! to save the geese from being plucked! In fact, consternation has seized upon the whole herd! and they gladly wish to get out of the mess, under cover of a "riot," which they would be sure to charge upon the Charlists. But they shall be disappointed. We can, and will "welcome DAN," without Amongst other lies they have used, to sell their tickets, they have circulated, far and near, that COLLINS had accepted their invitation, and was to be present! THE LIARS! A letter from him now lies on our table, in which he says:—"My answer to them was, that as my principles were different, I declined to attend!" What miserable subterfuge! How are the mighty fallen! Come to Leeds on Thursday, and complete in person, what your expressed intention of coming has so well begun! Come and extinguish the political rushlights! But no Riot! "Peace, Law, and Order."

The different processions are requested to draw up in the Free Market, Vicar's Croft, as they arrive, preparatory to one general procession to the place of meeting. Again we say, "Every one to his post!"

AT ELEVEN O'CLOCK OF THE FORENOON.

Leeds, January 5, 1841.

SUBSCRIPTION for the WIDOW and FAMILY of the late Mr. HENRY PATTISON, who was killed in the recent Accident on the York and North Midland Railway.

TEETOTAL CHARTISM!

THE ADDRESS TO THE WORKING MEN OF GREAT BRITAIN, written by HENRY

HENRY PARTISON was twenty-two years of age: he had been in business in Leeds, as a Printer, for about a year and a half previous to his death, and the property he had accumulated was not sufficient to be so easily sufficient to meet his liabilities. He has left a Widow enclave, and one young Child wholly unprovided for, and his Grandmother, now an infirm, who was wholly dependent on him for subsistence, also survives him.

It is intended to raise a fund, to be placed in the hands of two Trustees, for the benefit of Mrs. Pattison and her family, and it is confidently hoped that this appeal to a benevolent public, on behalf of the Widow and Family who have been so suddenly deprived of their protector and support, will be responded to in the liberal manner which the circumstances of the case require.
