

CALLS ON THE EXECUTIVE TO RESIGN.

LONDON.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE NORTHERN STAR.

SIR.—At a general and crowded meeting of the Executive of the Northern Star on the 12th inst., after the ordinary business of the day had been disposed of, Mr. Humphreys brought forward a resolution...

By a majority of the Executive, the resolution was carried unanimously. We consider the Executive to be a body of men who are not only unworthy of our future confidence, but also unworthy of the office which they have assumed.

I remain, Sir, your obedient servant, ROBERT LATHAM.

Somers Town, Dec. 14, 1842.

SHEFFIELD.

THE EXECUTIVE.—At a meeting on Monday evening last, members of the National Charter Association, Mr. Bates in the chair, the following resolution was unanimously adopted.

PETERBOROUGH.

At the meeting of the Peterborough and Eye Charities, held at the house of Mr. Marston, on Monday evening last, the charges laid against the Executive were read and their reply to the same, when Edwin Scholes moved, and Christmas Scholes seconded...

SUSPICIOUS DEATH FROM POISONING.

On Thursday forenoon, a long enquiry took place at the Court House, before John Blackburn Esq., and a respectable jury, in relation to the death of Mrs. Scholes, who died from poison, at an early hour on Wednesday morning.

On Monday forenoon, a long enquiry took place at the Court House, before John Blackburn Esq., and a respectable jury, in relation to the death of Mrs. Scholes, who died from poison, at an early hour on Wednesday morning.

DEAR H.—What a pity your letter to the N. Star office has landed you over to me to commence sending you 3 papers daily till it fit you have been hard on O'Brien and justly as you prepared to defend McCallan...

TO MR. JOHN CAMPBELL. SIR.—In looking over the columns of the British Standard, I find therein a long and elaborate account of the character of the Rev. Wm. Hill, George Julian Harney, and others, charging them with being traitors to the cause...

TO MR. JOHN CAMPBELL. SIR.—In looking over the columns of the British Standard, I find therein a long and elaborate account of the character of the Rev. Wm. Hill, George Julian Harney, and others, charging them with being traitors to the cause...

TO MR. JOHN CAMPBELL. SIR.—In looking over the columns of the British Standard, I find therein a long and elaborate account of the character of the Rev. Wm. Hill, George Julian Harney, and others, charging them with being traitors to the cause...

TO MR. JOHN CAMPBELL. SIR.—In looking over the columns of the British Standard, I find therein a long and elaborate account of the character of the Rev. Wm. Hill, George Julian Harney, and others, charging them with being traitors to the cause...

TO MR. JOHN CAMPBELL. SIR.—In looking over the columns of the British Standard, I find therein a long and elaborate account of the character of the Rev. Wm. Hill, George Julian Harney, and others, charging them with being traitors to the cause...

TO MR. JOHN CAMPBELL. SIR.—In looking over the columns of the British Standard, I find therein a long and elaborate account of the character of the Rev. Wm. Hill, George Julian Harney, and others, charging them with being traitors to the cause...

TO MR. JOHN CAMPBELL. SIR.—In looking over the columns of the British Standard, I find therein a long and elaborate account of the character of the Rev. Wm. Hill, George Julian Harney, and others, charging them with being traitors to the cause...

TO MR. JOHN CAMPBELL. SIR.—In looking over the columns of the British Standard, I find therein a long and elaborate account of the character of the Rev. Wm. Hill, George Julian Harney, and others, charging them with being traitors to the cause...

TO MR. JOHN CAMPBELL. SIR.—In looking over the columns of the British Standard, I find therein a long and elaborate account of the character of the Rev. Wm. Hill, George Julian Harney, and others, charging them with being traitors to the cause...

TO MR. JOHN CAMPBELL. SIR.—In looking over the columns of the British Standard, I find therein a long and elaborate account of the character of the Rev. Wm. Hill, George Julian Harney, and others, charging them with being traitors to the cause...

TO MR. JOHN CAMPBELL. SIR.—In looking over the columns of the British Standard, I find therein a long and elaborate account of the character of the Rev. Wm. Hill, George Julian Harney, and others, charging them with being traitors to the cause...

DEATH OF LORD HILL.

DR. HILL.—This veteran experient on Saturday morning at his seat, Hardwicke Grange, near Shrewsbury. He was born in 1772, and entered the army at the age of sixteen, and remained in it till the time of his death for the benefit of himself and his posterity.

A MANCHESTER BALL IN THE LAST CENTURY.—The following announcement appears in an old issue of the Manchester Mercury:—A grand ball, on Monday, 17th, 1754.

TWO SPAGNOLS OF NOBILITY appeared in the Courts, on Monday, in the same character of broken and dissipated spendthrifts, Lord Huntingtower and Lord George Loftus.

MISS CHOMPSON, of Smedley, near Manchester, the lady who was so unfortunately married to a young man, by some machinery in a paper mill, which she was the owner, died on Monday last.

ON WEDNESDAY week, Mr. Henry Spinks, an old man of 69, at Mile-end, fell a sacrifice to the disease known as the "stone," which he had contracted in his youth.

HUMBUG.—The following precocious occurrence in the advertising columns of the London Times of Wednesday last:—To the Editor of the Times:—I have the honor to inform you that I have just received a letter from a young man, who writes to me to give to a fellow-Christian, who is very much distressed, but from a beautiful God, whose name is Love.

GLASGOW.—FALL OF A GANTRY.—On Thursday evening, about twenty minutes past seven o'clock, the people residing in York-street, and to a considerable distance around that locality, were startled by an extraordinary crash, produced by the fall of a gantry.

FATAL ACCIDENT ON THE LONDON AND BIRMINGHAM RAILWAY.—A frightful accident happened on Thursday last to the Aylesbury-up train upon the London and Birmingham Railway, by which one passenger was killed, and several others seriously hurt.

RELIEF.—ORDER OF DAVID.—A Lodge of the above Order was opened on Saturday, the 10th inst., at the house of Mr. John Jamieson, the sign of the Railway Tavern.

A WIFE SEEN BY HER HUSBAND.—On Friday night, between six and seven o'clock, John Hunt, who keeps a public-house in Waterbeach, near Cambridge, went into his house with a loaded gun, which he fired at his wife, and instantly escaped.

TO SAVE THE HOLIDAY.—People are just now tantalized with some little speculations about holidays lost and to be won.

MARRIAGES.—On Monday, the 12th inst., at St. Michael's church, Spurrigate, by the Rev. Robert Sutton, Mr. Wm. Joy, tailor, of York, to Elizabeth, eldest daughter of Mr. Francis Barker, of Kipin Lodge, near Catterick.

DEATHS.—On Sunday last, aged 77 years, Mr. John Phillips, of this town, joined. His decease was peace. On Sunday last, aged 82 years, also Nathan Morris, of Ripon.

TO PLAIN JOHN CAMPBELL. SIR.—In the British Standard of last Saturday, Dec. 10th, is a letter with your signature, a postscript at the bottom, containing the following:—

TO PLAIN JOHN CAMPBELL. SIR.—In the British Standard of last Saturday, Dec. 10th, is a letter with your signature, a postscript at the bottom, containing the following:—

TO PLAIN JOHN CAMPBELL. SIR.—In the British Standard of last Saturday, Dec. 10th, is a letter with your signature, a postscript at the bottom, containing the following:—

TO PLAIN JOHN CAMPBELL. SIR.—In the British Standard of last Saturday, Dec. 10th, is a letter with your signature, a postscript at the bottom, containing the following:—

TO PLAIN JOHN CAMPBELL. SIR.—In the British Standard of last Saturday, Dec. 10th, is a letter with your signature, a postscript at the bottom, containing the following:—

TO PLAIN JOHN CAMPBELL. SIR.—In the British Standard of last Saturday, Dec. 10th, is a letter with your signature, a postscript at the bottom, containing the following:—

TO PLAIN JOHN CAMPBELL. SIR.—In the British Standard of last Saturday, Dec. 10th, is a letter with your signature, a postscript at the bottom, containing the following:—

TO PLAIN JOHN CAMPBELL. SIR.—In the British Standard of last Saturday, Dec. 10th, is a letter with your signature, a postscript at the bottom, containing the following:—

TO PLAIN JOHN CAMPBELL. SIR.—In the British Standard of last Saturday, Dec. 10th, is a letter with your signature, a postscript at the bottom, containing the following:—

TO PLAIN JOHN CAMPBELL. SIR.—In the British Standard of last Saturday, Dec. 10th, is a letter with your signature, a postscript at the bottom, containing the following:—

DEATH OF LORD HILL.

DR. HILL.—This veteran experient on Saturday morning at his seat, Hardwicke Grange, near Shrewsbury. He was born in 1772, and entered the army at the age of sixteen, and remained in it till the time of his death for the benefit of himself and his posterity.

A MANCHESTER BALL IN THE LAST CENTURY.—The following announcement appears in an old issue of the Manchester Mercury:—A grand ball, on Monday, 17th, 1754.

TWO SPAGNOLS OF NOBILITY appeared in the Courts, on Monday, in the same character of broken and dissipated spendthrifts, Lord Huntingtower and Lord George Loftus.

MISS CHOMPSON, of Smedley, near Manchester, the lady who was so unfortunately married to a young man, by some machinery in a paper mill, which she was the owner, died on Monday last.

ON WEDNESDAY week, Mr. Henry Spinks, an old man of 69, at Mile-end, fell a sacrifice to the disease known as the "stone," which he had contracted in his youth.

HUMBUG.—The following precocious occurrence in the advertising columns of the London Times of Wednesday last:—To the Editor of the Times:—I have the honor to inform you that I have just received a letter from a young man, who writes to me to give to a fellow-Christian, who is very much distressed, but from a beautiful God, whose name is Love.

GLASGOW.—FALL OF A GANTRY.—On Thursday evening, about twenty minutes past seven o'clock, the people residing in York-street, and to a considerable distance around that locality, were startled by an extraordinary crash, produced by the fall of a gantry.

FATAL ACCIDENT ON THE LONDON AND BIRMINGHAM RAILWAY.—A frightful accident happened on Thursday last to the Aylesbury-up train upon the London and Birmingham Railway, by which one passenger was killed, and several others seriously hurt.

RELIEF.—ORDER OF DAVID.—A Lodge of the above Order was opened on Saturday, the 10th inst., at the house of Mr. John Jamieson, the sign of the Railway Tavern.

A WIFE SEEN BY HER HUSBAND.—On Friday night, between six and seven o'clock, John Hunt, who keeps a public-house in Waterbeach, near Cambridge, went into his house with a loaded gun, which he fired at his wife, and instantly escaped.

TO SAVE THE HOLIDAY.—People are just now tantalized with some little speculations about holidays lost and to be won.

MARRIAGES.—On Monday, the 12th inst., at St. Michael's church, Spurrigate, by the Rev. Robert Sutton, Mr. Wm. Joy, tailor, of York, to Elizabeth, eldest daughter of Mr. Francis Barker, of Kipin Lodge, near Catterick.

DEATHS.—On Sunday last, aged 77 years, Mr. John Phillips, of this town, joined. His decease was peace. On Sunday last, aged 82 years, also Nathan Morris, of Ripon.

TO PLAIN JOHN CAMPBELL. SIR.—In the British Standard of last Saturday, Dec. 10th, is a letter with your signature, a postscript at the bottom, containing the following:—

TO PLAIN JOHN CAMPBELL. SIR.—In the British Standard of last Saturday, Dec. 10th, is a letter with your signature, a postscript at the bottom, containing the following:—

TO PLAIN JOHN CAMPBELL. SIR.—In the British Standard of last Saturday, Dec. 10th, is a letter with your signature, a postscript at the bottom, containing the following:—

TO PLAIN JOHN CAMPBELL. SIR.—In the British Standard of last Saturday, Dec. 10th, is a letter with your signature, a postscript at the bottom, containing the following:—

TO PLAIN JOHN CAMPBELL. SIR.—In the British Standard of last Saturday, Dec. 10th, is a letter with your signature, a postscript at the bottom, containing the following:—

TO PLAIN JOHN CAMPBELL. SIR.—In the British Standard of last Saturday, Dec. 10th, is a letter with your signature, a postscript at the bottom, containing the following:—

TO PLAIN JOHN CAMPBELL. SIR.—In the British Standard of last Saturday, Dec. 10th, is a letter with your signature, a postscript at the bottom, containing the following:—

TO PLAIN JOHN CAMPBELL. SIR.—In the British Standard of last Saturday, Dec. 10th, is a letter with your signature, a postscript at the bottom, containing the following:—

TO PLAIN JOHN CAMPBELL. SIR.—In the British Standard of last Saturday, Dec. 10th, is a letter with your signature, a postscript at the bottom, containing the following:—

TO PLAIN JOHN CAMPBELL. SIR.—In the British Standard of last Saturday, Dec. 10th, is a letter with your signature, a postscript at the bottom, containing the following:—

