

First of the Poets.

We this week give a few of the poetical pieces from this or the many in our possession, illustrating the determination of the American Agrarians to get an end to the Landlordism.

APPEAL FOR JUSTICE. Kings and landlords, hear the thunder, As he roars round the world, Round the voice of millions gathering, Round the flag of truth unfurled.

OPENING ODE. Rise, sons of a Young America, Join hands each faithful brother, Combined for ever and for aye Supporting one another;

THE AGRARIAN GATHERING. There is a time when the sun is bright, And the dew is on the grass, And the birds are in the air, And the bees are in the hive;

DOWNFALL OF FEUDALISM. A beacon has been lighted, Bright as the noonday sun, On words of mind bequeathed, On rays of power begun.

TO FEUDAL LORDS. Like the lion, when he rises From his slumber, and his roar Echoes through the mighty forest, From the mountain to the shore;

THE WORKING MAN'S DREAM. When another day's journey old Sol had performed, And returned to his bed in the west, And a working man, weary and worn with hard toil, Had lain himself down for a rest;

THE ANGELS OF BUENA VISTA. [A letter writer from Mexico, states that at the terrible fight of Buena Vista, Mexican women were seen hovering near the field of death, for the purpose of giving aid and succour to the wounded.]

Then he bow'd himself down in the dust at his feet, And with anguish of soul he did cry— 'Since then his nose on the earth to do justice and right
