

Mr. Watson, in proposing as a toast 'The General Convention of the Industrious Classes, may all good men assist it to establish our liberties in peace, and rally round its righteous standard, should Whig and Tory opponents do so, they are not only doing the people a wrong, but they are also doing themselves a wrong. It is not only a wrong to the people, but it is a wrong to the Convention, and it is a wrong to the cause of the poor. It is a wrong to the cause of the poor, because it is a wrong to the cause of the poor, and it is a wrong to the cause of the poor, and it is a wrong to the cause of the poor.

CROWN COURT, THURSDAY, MARCH 21.

TRIAL OF PRISONERS FOR THE DEWBURY POOR LAW RIOTS.

Frederick Bentley, William Brock, Joseph Crowther, Richard Thompson, George Mitchell, and Thomas... were charged with having, on the 20th of August, unlawfully assembled, and made a great noise and disturbance, to the breach of the public peace, and the terror of the Queen's subjects, at the township of Dewbury.

Sergeant Atcherley very briefly opened the case, stating that he was quite sure that no political party would be introduced that day; every man who was brought before the court was to be tried on the facts, and the law was to be applied to the facts as they stood.

Mr. Matthew High said he was sworn in as a special constable, and attended the meeting of the Guardians on the 20th of August. He was sworn in as a special constable, and attended the meeting of the Guardians on the 20th of August.

Mr. Watson followed, but his line of observation was precisely similar to that adopted by the other learned counsel engaged in the case.

The following evidence was called: William Lister, a labourer, I was at Dewbury on the 20th of August. I live on Wabber Hill, Dewbury. I know Thompson; I first saw him at Ebenezer Chapel yard. I saw him about ten minutes before twelve. We went to see the soldiers, and when we had got to the bridge the meeting had separated. I was on the bridge, a mob was coming over a field, which prevented us passing. We were there a quarter of an hour. I was close to Thompson all the time, and other lads were about us. When Walker apprehended Thompson, he had not thrown a stone, as was talking to him. There was much confusion near the place.

Cross-examined: I saw a policeman strike at Thompson, and he hit Walker. I did not make any remark to the policeman when Thompson was taken.

Thomas Heaton—I was with Thompson and other witnesses when the former was apprehended. I had not seen Thompson throw a stone. I did not see any particular person throw a stone.

James Hall—I am a farmer at Whitley, near Dewbury. I was at the meeting on the 20th of August. I saw Walker and other witnesses when the former was apprehended. I had not seen Thompson throw a stone. I did not see any particular person throw a stone.

John Kilburn, farmer, at Whitley, near Dewbury. I saw Walker shortly after he had apprehended Thompson. His face was bruised. He said he had received a blow from a constable's staff.

Mr. Cottingham and Mr. Sergeant Atcherley severally addressed the jury on the evidence that had been given.

Barny Anderson having summed up with great minuteness, the jury retired for three minutes, and then returned a verdict of Guilty, but recommended mercy on account of their youth and inexperience.

The Judge said, "I suspect there are many persons much worse to blame than them."

Opposition to the Poor Law at Tomnodden. Mrs. Crook, Enoch Thomas, John Uley, John Walker, James Fisher, Joseph Taylor, Thos. Green, James Kersey, Jeremiah Swift, John Crook, Joseph Gaultrey, Abraham Crook, Gilson Lord, and James Kersey, were charged with feloniously beginning to demolish the dwelling house of the parish of Tomnodden, on the 16th of November last, and with riotous and tumultuous assembling, and with force and arms, to demolish the dwelling-house of one Samuel Oliver, by breaking windows and window frames, and doing other damage, and with assaulting James Feather, a constable, and with the use of force and arms, to prevent the constable from doing his duty.

After the defendants had been arraigned and pleaded Not Guilty, Mr. Watson was proceeding to address the jury for the prosecution; when Mr. Adolphus rose on the part of the prisoners, offered to give evidence in their own defence, and was allowed to do so.

DESTRUCTION OF WARFIELD VICARAGE AND SCHOOL BY FIRE, AND LOSS OF LIFE.

The school and vicarage of Warfield was on Friday morning, at two o'clock, burnt down to the ground; and what makes the calamity the more distressing is, that those who perished in the flames, the son of the vicar, and a young girl, were the only persons who were killed.

It is remarkable, that he was one of the first to discover the fire; but when Mr. Furlong called the names, he and another, after a moment's misadventure, were missing. At last, young Furlong was seen at a window, when every endeavour to rescue him was made by Mr. Furlong, but he had fallen once from the ladder which was raised against the house, but which was too short to reach the window; he appeared at the window and broke in, and once tried to put out his life, but finally disappeared from the scene.

SMITHFIELD CATTLE MARKET, MARCH 18.

[Whenever the market is open, the prices of cattle are generally high, and the demand is large. The weather is generally good, and the cattle are generally well fed. The market is generally well supplied, and the prices are generally high.]

The state of the trade in our market of today was somewhat opposite to the general opinion expressed by butchers and dealers generally in its commencement. The weather was generally good, and the cattle were generally well fed. The market was generally well supplied, and the prices were generally high.

The fresh arrivals of beasts, consisting of 350 oxen, and 100 calves, were generally well fed, and the prices were generally high. The market was generally well supplied, and the prices were generally high.

LITERARY AND PHILOSOPHICAL SOCIETY.

It is in contemplation to establish a Literary and Philosophical Society in Huddersfield. Several gentlemen of distinguished literary and scientific attainments, met on Tuesday evening last, in the Long-room of the Druid's Hotel, at which a string of rules was unanimously agreed to. It is proposed that the society meet weekly, after they have produced a private paper, which will answer their purpose, and that at each meeting one of its members shall deliver a lecture on some literary and scientific subject. Original essays will also be produced monthly to the theme to be chosen by the council; that essay which obtains the greatest number of votes, to be written in a book kept for this purpose, by the secretary, and to be considered as the property of the society. They will also be a geological and mineralogical cabinet, erected with this institution. Several valuable specimens have already been promised gratuitously.

BISTAL.—Two sermons were preached on Sunday last, in a school-room belonging to a number of Christian friends, in Birstal, near Leeds, when collections were made to aid Mr. Leebens in his approaching struggle with his enemies, amounting to £68 13d.

DEIGHTON.—Sermons were preached on Sunday last, in the New Connexion School-room, by Messrs. Cliffe, of Huddersfield; and Crossland, of Paddock, on behalf of the Stephens Defence Association. Collections were made to the amount of £2 15s.

FARLEY TEAM.—The Radicals of Farley Team, have contributed 11s. 6d. for the Stephens Fund, and 11s. 7d. for the National Rent.

HONLEY.—The Honley Northern Union have contributed £1 18s. 6d. to the Stephens Fund.

NETHER THONG.—The Nether Thong Radicals have contributed £1 2s. 5d. to the Stephens Fund.

LATEST INTELLIGENCE.

London, Thursday Evening. GENERAL CONVENTION.

Mr. Knox, delegate for Sunderland, in the chair. Dr. Vayleton read an address to the Convention from the Churches of Great Britain, and a resolution of confidence in our country.

Dr. MACDONALD then brought forward his motion for leave to read some extracts from the Morning Chronicle of the 20th inst., and to introduce a resolution in relation to a grant of money to the people to arm in inequivalent terms. We shall give their next week.

Mr. WHITTLE moved that the Secretary be instructed to convey to the editor of the Morning Chronicle the thanks of the Convention for the valuable and unanswerable articles in your issue, and to request him to continue to publish them in your issue.

Mr. WHITTLE moved to the addition, which was carried without a division; and a Committee of eight was appointed to carry out the object of the motion. The Chairman having vacated the chair, which was taken by Mr. Rogers, who read a most gratifying letter from his constituents, requesting his presence at home, prior to the great meeting of the Convention on Friday, and his absence for one fortnight was notified to him.

A long discussion was brought on as to whether the Delegates were to be home on Monday, or to have their leave extended. It was ultimately decided, by a vote of 12 to 9, that their time should not be extended; and after some observations from a number of gentlemen, the meeting dissolved. The Chairman read his report for the week received during the week, which amounted to £35.

LOCAL MARKETS.

YESTERDAY'S WAKEFIELD CORN MARKET. We have again a good arrival of Wheat, the greater part of which is Foreign. Prime qualities of Wheat are in request, and fully as dear, but all other sorts are very heavy sale. Oats unaltered. Good heavy Beans in demand, and rather dear. Beans are in tolerable request, and fully as dear.

LEDS MARKETS.—We had on Saturday another very brisk market, both at the Coloured and White Cloth Halls; and on Tuesday, though not to the same amount, the business transacted was to a fair average extent. In fact, it may be said we had two very good markets. SPAN.—London Milled, 57s.; per cwt. only 9s. 6d. per cwt. per 24s. 10d. to 24s. 10d. POTATOES.—American No. 1, 14s. reds, 1s. 4d. to 1s. 6d.; pig potatoes, 1s. 2d. to 1s. 4d. per weight of 48lbs. TALLOW.—The price of this article is 4s. 6d. per stone.

Huddersfield CLOTH MARKET, TUESDAY, MARCH 19.—There were a good many buyers to-day, and a great quantity of Goods cleared at fair prices. Light Fancy Woollens and Westcoatings of a superior quality were in demand, and rather dear. Prices were in general dear at low prices. There was not that activity in the Market which the amount of goods cleared weekly might be supposed to create. Woollen goods maintain their prices, and are more freely purchased.

MANCHESTER CORN MARKET, M
