MR. PATRICK O'HIGGINS AND THE SLANDERER, O'CONNELL.

The following letter from Mr. O'Higgins, to the Editor of the Dublin Freeman, in reply to the savage growl of the "Liberator," would have been pub-lished in the Star some weeks ago; but we accidentally lost the paper containing it which had been forwarded by an Irish friend.

" TO THE EDITOR OF THE FREEMAN.

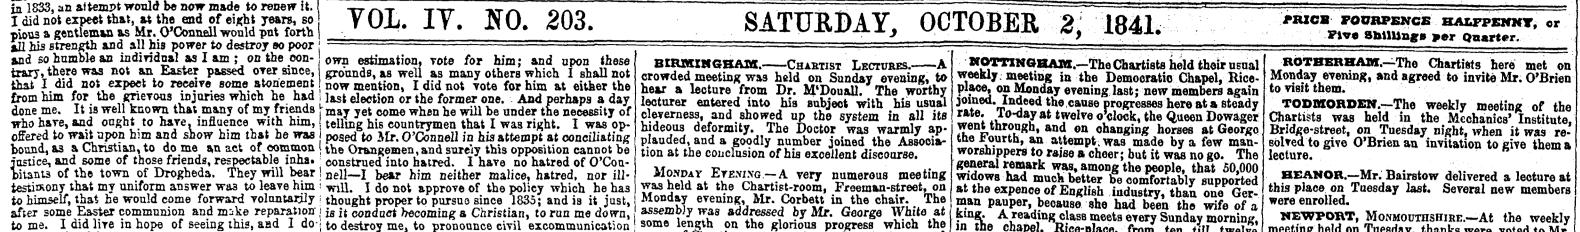

⁵⁵ SIR,—I did not expect, nor did any of my friends expect, that after the persecution which I suffered at the hands of Mr. O'Connell and some of his followers in 1833, an altempt would be now made to renew it. I did not expect that, at the end of eight years, so pious a gentleman as Mr. O'Connell would put forth all his strength and all his power to destroy so poor offered to wait upon him and show him that he was bound, as a Christian, to do me an act of common the Orangemen, and surely this opposition cannot be instice, and some of those friends, respectable inha. construed into hatred. I have no hatred of O'Conbitants of the town of Drogheda. They will bear nell-I bear him neither malice, hatred, nor illtestimony that my uniform answer was to leave him to himself, that he would come forward voluntarily thought proper to pursue since 1835; and is it just, after some Easter communion and make reparation is it conduct becoming a Christian, to run me down, to me. I did live in hope of seeing this, and I do to destroy me, to pronounce civil excommunication not despair of it yet.

O'Connell would come forward again and say of me Mr. O'Connell left me. that which he has said at the meeting of the Loyal him. I shall give his own words, as reported in the Freeman's Journal of this day. " The present person to whom I allude is O'Higso, for though exceedingly wrong as a Christian, he a Christian, or a gentleman. He has therefore a right to hate me, and the only thing I request he the only good article I saw in its columns since Ca-shall do is to try his little talent in abusing me as long as he pleases.' He says 'in addition, that, I Having had a bundle of those handbills in the vilify and traduce him.' "

I hope, Sir, that you with your usual love of

" I shall not now go into the merits or demerits of the proceedings of Mr. O'Connell and all his family against me in January, 1835 ; but I deny that there rity of the committee of the Irish Volunteers were against me. There were upwards of fifty-five members on the committee, twenty-three of whom, and twenty-three only, signed Mr. U'Connell's sentence against me. And who are those twenty-three ?

AND

upon me in the land of my birth, in the "It is almost incredible that, after the lapse of so land of my forefathers, because, and only because, long a period as eight years last January, Mr. I remain upon the same political ground upon which National Repeal Association of Ireland, that 1 hate done. The Canadian declaration of independence, with which this Mr. M'Hugh finds so much fault, was published in the Dubin Evening Post, from "The present person to whom I allude is O'Hig-gins, who is exceedingly angry with me, and I'll do hand-bill, and sold through the streets of Dublin. I him the justice to say that he is quite right in being looked upon it as an excellent document, was glad to see it coming from such an anthentic source upon is perfectly justified as a man, inasmuch as I was at the subject of proclamations as that of the Evening the head of a committee who expelled him for Post. I got the handbill printed, from a desire to similar statement, from which it would be seen that misconduct not very creditable to him as a man, as give to those who could not go to the expence of similar statement, from which it would be seen that buying the Evening Post, the advantage of reading every town in the district were determined to do house, and being in the habit of going out to shoot on Saturdays, I and a gentleman who accompanied instice, will give me an opportunity, through the me, folded up some sandwiches in those placards. columns of the Freeman, to prove to all your impar- Some of the people in Portmarnock seeing us throw Some of the people in Portmarnock seeing us throw sealed their doom, and from thenceforward could expressly to honour that great political teacher. tial readers that I neither hate nor vilify Mr. O'Con- down those papers; took them up and read them, nell, that I never joined the Orangemen or any other them, and asked if we had any more of them.

Some time in the month of December last, and not of 40 members were enrolled during the last week. in April, we (for there were two of us in it) were encountered by a gentleman on horseback at Porimarwas any charge of any nature or kind brought nock, who questioned me in a very peremptory and against me upon that occasion. I deny that a majo- authorative manner as to whether I was the person who was in the habit of distributing inflammatory papers amongst the people, exciting them to sedition, &c. &c.

I answered by saying that I never distributed a soditious paper; that I had a character to sustain, Will Mr. O'Connell inform the public upon what and a little stake in the country, and that 1 would White again addressed them on the tyranny to which grounds two of them became absentees ? Will Mr. not like to forfeit either; to which he replied, that if the working classes were subjected, after which a O'Connell be so good as to state in detail the true I had either I would not have acted the part of an member of the Irish Universal Suffrage Association grounds upon which he pronounced sentence upon incendiary, as I had done. I then asked the gentle-me! It is too bad to run away with a man's man his name, and by what authority he took the character in general terms. I give Mr. O'Connell liberty of assailing me in such terms? He refused Association held their sittings worshippers to raise a cheer; but it was no go. The tion at the conclusion of his excellent discourse.

LEEDS

Porthern Star,

GENERAL ADVERTISER.

NOTTINCHAM-KING GEORGE ON HORSEBACK.

LAMBLEY.-At the village of Lambley, or

BIRSTAL.-The good work in this place goes on bravely. Mr. T. B. Smith, arrived here on Satur-

Mr. William Parker.

Mr. Christopher Bell.

Mr. Jonathan Barber.

Mr. Timothy Thatcher, sub-Secretary.

Mr. John Gibson, Sub-Treasurer.

Mr. John Burbage.

Mr. John Peters.

Mr. William Fletcher. Mr. John Herbert.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1841.

tion at the conclusion of his excellent discourse. MONDAY EVENING — A very numerous meeting was held at the Chartist-room, Freeman-street, on the conclusion of his excellent discourse. Working the people, that 50,000 widows had much better be comfortably supported at the expence of English industry, than one Ger-Monday evening, Mr. Corbett in the chair. The assembly was addressed by Mr. George White at some length on the glorious progress which the cause of Chartism was making in Birmingham, and all over the country. He said that nothing pleased birm was the cause of chartism the said that do and the said that nothing pleased birm was the country. He said that nothing pleased him more than the reports which had been delivered by the delegates from the various places in the A word with the Rev. Mr. M'Hugh, and I have neighbourhood of Birmingham. There could not be a better spirit displayed than took place at the deforthcoming delegate meeting. legate meeting, especially by the statements of the Warwick and Kidderminster delegates. The former had proved that the Chartists of Warwick had the real principles at heart, for, although they held dif-ferent views to the National Charter Association at first, yet when they found that the country were in favour of it, they determined to act with the majority. their duty, and the splendid display which had been witnessed on the previous Monday settled the question in Birmingham, although the pastors of the Monday afternoon, 130 sat down to tea, after which

Christian Chartist Church have done all in their Messrs. Dean Taylor, Harrison, and Sweet adpower to stop it, thereby proving their narrow-dressed the meeting ; a collection was also made for mindedness and want of principle, they had therefore the O'Brien Press Fund, this party being got up not be looked upon as the friends of the working classes. Mr. J. Campbell, secretary to the Execunell, that I never joined the Orangemen or any other them, and asked if we had any more of them. body of men against him; that upon those points he On the following Saturday we brought some more. and distributed them amongst the people.

> MR. MASON'S LECTURE .- Mr. Mason of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, has been busily engaged this week, addressing large audiences at Coventry, Foleshill, Nuneaton, and other places. He is greatly admired in this district for his eloquence and energy.

FREEMAN-STREET .- A meeting was held at the Chartist room, Freeman-street, on Wednesday evening, Mr. Corbett in the chair. Mr. George

THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL of the National Charter 181. 5d., which was gratefully received by the mana- more become so. All arises from the baneful in- Foden from Wakefield Hell. Association held their sittings in the large room of gers and teachers. Mr. S. also delivered two short fluence of class-legislation; he advised them from SUNDAY EVENING LECTURE.-Mr. Beale lectured character in general terms. I give hit. O connect inderty of assaining mo in such terms. I give hit. O connect inderty of assaining mo in such terms. I give hit. O connect inderty of assaining mo in such terms. I give hit. O connect inderty of assaining mo in such terms. I give hit. O connect inderty of assaining mo in such terms. I give hit. O connect inderty of assaining mo in such terms. I give hit. O connect inderty of assaining mo in such terms. I give hit. O connect inderty of assaining mo in such terms. I give hit. O connect inderty of assaining mo in such terms. I give hit. O connect inderty of assaining mo in such terms. I give hit is the variable was fair promise of future excellence. Mr. S. also delivered two snort in the terms inderty of assaining mo in such terms. I give hit is the variable he was cument) which will be published next week. Mr. ticable importance of mutual love and good with, Campbell attended at the Ship Inn, Steelhouse-lane, and expressed himself highly gratified with the where sixty cards of the National Charter Associa-tion were taken, and a society formed. Societies ment of twenty-one members of the National Charter in the taken, and a society formed. Societies ment of twenty-one members of the National Charter tion were taken, and a society formed. Societies ment of twenty-one members of the National Charter tion were taken, and a society formed. Societies ment of twenty-one members of the National Charter tion were taken, and a society formed. Societies ment of twenty-one members of the National Charter tion were taken, and a society formed. Societies ment of twenty-one members of the National Charter the town : so Association, proves that his visit was not in vain. that it will be seen the cause is prospering rapidly COVENTRY .- A tea and dancing party was got in Birmingham, and to know the state of the district. up in honour of Dr. M'Douall, and Mr. Leach, of it requires to be added that on Monday evening it Manchester. Through some circumstance or other If I must go through the history of J. B. O'Brien, they did not come, and great disappointment was the consequence. Mr. R. K. Philp, of Bath, one of the Executive, and Mr. Mason, of Newcastle, lecthis week. FROST, WILLIAMS, AND JONES .-- The General was sorry, very sorry, for having said it, when I Committee of Birmingham, in consequence of the turer for this district, made their appearance about address, and my answer to it, was published in the learned that this respected clergyman's name was soirce in honour of the Executive, held no meeting four o'clock. The large room of the Executive, held no meeting four M'Hugh. There were several witnesses present at on the 21st, but on Tuesday evening last they recomthis conversation, to whom I have often spoken on menced their usual weekly meetings, at the Charter meetings, was tastefully decorated with flowers and papers. Although 1 found a great deal of apart, the subject, and who recollect it well. My reason work in pushing this new trade to a state of profit, the subject, and who recollect it well. My reason yet by skill and judgment in the selection of stock, for talking to them about it was that I had learned and dint of perseverance, was realizing about 2400 that the Rev. Mr. M'Hugh had gone to the Attorney a-year. But when Mr. O'Connell's attack on me a-year. But when Mr. O'Connell's attack on me hope of having me prosecuted for publishing the bone of hav aper alluded to. "I am sorry, not for my own sake, but for my and the high opinion in which it is held by all who "I am sorry, not for my own sake, but for my and the high opinion in which it is held by all who after a few appropriate remarks from the chairman, religion and my country, that any priest could be are noted to be lovers of their species, and all noble- after a few appropriate remarks from the chairman, he introduced Mr. Mason, of Newcastle, who spoke and Galway on the same day. The refusal of the so far as to carry in his mind my trespassing, if mittee, therefore, conscious of this good opinion, upwards banks to discount, the expulsion by Mr. O'Conneil trespassing it can be called, since December last; and proud of the esteem and friendship of all true manner. upwards of an hour in an eloquent and masterly The function of the election of the election of the election of Police Commissioners. The principles, Utility, Right, and Justice. A measure the function of the election of Police Commissioners. The principles, Utility, Right, and Justice. A measure suffrage is household. The qualification required for the information to be carried out so soon as the annual value of the police. The principles were carried out so soon as the annual value of the police. The police is the police to be so. The principles were carried out so soon as the annual value of the police. and having failed in getting the Attorney-General patriots, are desirous of adding to their list of "In conclusion, I beg to state that I have never liams, and Jones to their native land. By order of under the present superintendent have given the countries were now in a prosperous condition, and the gone through the northern districts of the county the Committee, T. H. Shaw and F. Wilkinson, joint-Dablin for the purpose of distributing incendiary secretaries. Address for Committee, at present, the people, acting in the mest severe and rigorous ter become the law of this country. This country was lecture. HEANOR.-Mr. Bairstow delivered a lecture at this place on Tuesday last. Several new members were enrolled.

PRICE FOURPENCE HALFPENNY, or Five Shillings per Quarter.

Bridge-street, on Tuesday night, when it was re-solved to give O'Brien an invitation to give them a

NEWPORT, MONMOUTHSHIRE.-At the weekly meeting held on Tuesday, thanks were voted to Mr. showed that the miserable condition of the working Sharman Crawford for his amendment to the address class was the result of misgovernment, occasioned John Wright were unanimously appointed as deleto the Queen. Some local business was transacted, gates, by the friends meeting at the Democratic Chapel, and Mr. Wm. Parker, and Mr. William Fletcher, from the George on Horseback, to the Content of the George on Horseback, to the Tuesday, to a crowded audieu

LOANHEAD.-Mr. Lowery lectured here on Tuesday, to a crowded audience, on the rights of the people.

HANLEY.—A tea party and ball took place here on Monday, the 27th inst., at the house of Mr. Wm. Hall, George and Dragon Inn, New-street, Hanley, where the most ample accommodation was afforded by the worthy host. The object of this tea party was to commemorate the release of that fearless and talented advocate, J. B. O'Brien, from his dungeon. talented advocate, J. B. O'Brien, from his dungeon. Upwards of 240 sat down to tea. Every bosom glowed with sympathy, and every countenance beamed with joy at the intelligence of the libera-beamed with joy at the intelligence of the liberaglowed with sympathy, and every countenance beamed with joy at the intelligence of the libera-CHURWELL.—Mr. Smith, according to request, paid a visit to this place on Monday last, and preached in a school-room, most kindly granted for the occasion. His text was Acts. 28, xxii, and the chair by the unanimous voice of the assembly the definition of this truly disinterested patriot and man of the people. Mr. G. B. Mart having been called to the chair by the unanimous voice of the assembly done ?

were given :-- "The people, the only legitimate (by order of the Right Hon. Sir James Graham) source of all power."-- Responded to by Mr. Samuel from Northallerton House of Correction to York day, and lectured on the Charter, and the benefits of Robinson, who animadverted strongly on the Go- Castle. This being the case, it was deemed advisable co-operation, in the room over the co-operative vernment for their oppressions practised on the to postpone for the present the memorial for his store, to a most attentive audience. On Sunday, he people, and the unsparing hand of persecution laid release. So soon as the demonstration is over, delivered three practical christian sermons, in the Zion Sunday school room, after which collections were made towards defraying the expence of the school, which is considerably in debt, amounting to Bat definition our leaders. The institutions of the country, ob-people, but to oppress them; and, so long as the school, which is considerably in debt, amounting to people were apathetic, they would still more and Secretary of State for the release or removal of Peter

taries throughout the country. They also drew up gives fair promise of future excellence. Mr. S. cheers.) Song by Mr. Nile Grocett, "Daughter of tally the speaker touched upon Byron, Burns, the form of the National Petition (a very clever do-cument) which will be published next week. Mr. ticable importance of mutual love and good-will, sistent, and talented advocate of the people's rights." Beranger. The pieces recited by the lecturer were Three cheers were here given for this noble patriot. | well selected from the writings of the above, and in Mr. J. Richards responded to this toast with the general elicited warm marks of approbation from the audience. It was announced that Mr. Harney would lecture on Sunday evening next. Gentlemen, but under our circumstances I must ad-MONDAY'S MEETING .- The usual public meeting of dress you as slaves-I am called upon to respond to the Chartist body was held on Monday evening, in the room, Fig-tree Lane. The room was crowded I should take up the whole of your time. I can to excess; Mr. Needham was called to the chair. scarcely express myself with sufficient admiration The principal business transacted was matters connected with the Demonstration, unnecessary, therefor the services this powerful writer has given to the people of this country ; he had endeavoured to fore, to be published. Mr. Green moved-" That the Little Park-street, where the association hold their bibed himself-that of pure, disinterested, demo- one of the victims of Whiggery confined in Northalcratic principles ; he had discovered the condition lerton Hell-hole, for his unbending and unflinching conduct in refusing to petition for his release or removal from the dungeon in which Whig oppressors have immured him." Carried unanimously. Mr. Harney announced the removal of Samuel Holberry from Northallerton Gaol to York Castle. In sponded to by Mr. Moses Simpson, who eulogised the latter place, Mr. Holberry would have greater Mr. O'Connor in a short speech, for the services he facilities of corresponding with his friends. A few rendered to the producing classes of this country by shillings was wanted to allow him the means of corhis able disquisitions on the small farm system, and responding with his family and others. He (Mr. H.) wished the meeting to take the matter up, that the by his original and eloquent speeches. Toast-"The People's Charter, the only foundation to political assistance required might be forthcoming. Mr. and social liberty."-Responded to by Mr. Livesly. Stokes moved, seconded by Mr. Cartledge, "that one penny be charged for admission to the meeting on Monday next, the proceeds to be sent to Mr. Holberry." Agreed to. On the motion of Mr. Fearn, seconded by Mr. Prior, it was resolved, "That in future the doors be opened each Monday evening, at seven o'clock. The chair to be taken at half-past seven. REIGHLEY.—A delegate meeting was held at Mr. Knowles's Temperance Hotel, on Sunday last. Delegates present :- Thomas Knowles, Keighley ; Wm. Tipping, Bingley : Jonathan Bury, Culling-With me since December isst were copies of the People's Charter, and the rules and objects of the BIRMINGHAM. BIRMINGHAM. BIRMINGHAM. BIRMINGHAM. Control party of any other party of an TO THE EDITOR OF THE NORTHERN STAR. SIR.-I again take the liberty of introducing the Star. Sin with basin the worst; the "force" has land, Ireland, Scotland and Wales had done their villages, and establish a local missionary fund to SIR,—I again take the liberty of introducing the case of this poor weman. She has got her youngest child dead in the house after a long and painful illness. The funds in my possession have been long since ex-hausted; I now propose, as her hands will be somewhat relieved by the death of her yougest child, a subscription against some of the speakers. This has to purchase for her a mangle by which she says to purchase for her a mangle by which sh ings in Birmingham, was read from the Star. In the evening Mr. Watkins preached in the same place to a full attendance, and a very attentive congregation. It is hoped by many, that the sermon will be printed in the form of a tract, and used by the City Political Tract Loan Society now forming. On Monday evening following, in the same place, Mr. Clance, the founder snd late sectratary of the Dublin Reneal Would serve and late sectratary of the Dublin Reneal Mr. Watkins preached in the star. In the she could earn herself and children a living; and to been long connected with the establishment, and so that an equal provision may be made amongst the founder snd late sectratary of the Dublin Reneal

The poton Printer St. SHEFFIELD. (From our own Correspondent.)

ECCLESFIELD -Mr. Julian Harney visited this pleasant village on Wednesday, the 22nd instant. Two or three years have passed and gone since a Chartist meeting was held here previously, though a few bright spirits maintained the principles and have been the constant readers of the great organ of the cause ; still, no meetings being held, it was long since gravely asserted by some of the would-be-thought-politicians of the place that "Chartism was dead," and "no mistake" here; judge, then, the surprise and horror of these important personages when on the Tuerday week they heard it announced per bell, that the following evening a lecture on Chartism would be delivered in the village. The evening arrived, the village band volunteered their services in the good old cause, and went with a number of friends some distance on the Sheffield road to meet Mr. Harney, whom they escorted to the place of meeting, summoning on the way by their lively strains all who had "ears to hear," to come, listen, and judge for themselves. No in-door place of meeting could be got, so the wet earth for foot-hold, and the dark sky for covering was, as usual, the resource. On the motion of Mr. Lunn, Mr. Fearn, of Sheffield was appointed to preside over the meeting ; in a few remarks he introduced Mr. Harney. Mr. H. commenced by reviewing the present unsettled and deplorable state of society, by the people having no control over the legislature of the land, the remedy Mr. H. showed to be the enfranchisement of the whole people as provided for in the Charter, and concluded by a forcible illustra-tion and vindication of the principle of Universal Suffrage. A besotted beast who has been a metho-dist preschest attempted to interest. the people. DALKEITH.——A splendid demonstration to O'Connor is being provided for here. The largest room in the town has been engaged for a soirce, and the towns of Musselburgh, Lasswade, Pathead, Gore Bridge, Roslin, Pennywick, &c., will join in the display. HANLEY.—A tea party and ball took place here HANLEY.—A tea party and ball took place here present, who seemed by their deep attention to interest themselves much in the subject-matter of the lecturer's discourse. At the close of the meeting, a number of friends adjourned to a convenient place, and there resolved to join the ranks of the

the occasion. His text was Acts, 28, xxii, and in depicted the condition of the working classes of this the PATRIOT HOLBERRY.—The Victims' Com-the course of his discourse, he shewed the perfect country, which he said was in anawiul state. Mr. M. mittee had prepared a well-reasoned and forcibly accordance of the Charter with the rule of right, as described some desperate cases, which called forth written memorial to the present Secretary of State, attempted to be refuted in any other way than that ward.

and that I ought to hate him, for causing me to be expelled from the Volunteers. This censure of expulsion, mind, bears date the 18th January, 1833. I was at that time extensively engaged in the whole- and lodge information against me; to which I sale Irish woollen trade, and had received an address, replied, that I would be very sorry to hear that the rigned by every respectable shopkeeper in Dublin. recommending me to the shopkeepers of Ireland as a 'a "Paddy M'Hugh" of himself. man of the highest honour and integrity, not only in my dealings, but in all the relations of life. This Morning Register, Freeman's Journal, and other papers. Although I found a great deal of uphill had drawn upon my customers. My own bills, my acceptances, were falling due ; besides this, bad debts to the amount of £500 were announced from Tuam banks to discount, the expulsion by Mr. O'Connell from a public bedy, and bad debts, drove me into such a state of mind that I say now, before God and ta prosecute me, now joins the most powerful man my country, that, after having put a docket of bills amounting to £1381 into my hat, to look out for the first time for private discounts, I found myself at the me, and if I am not hunted down it will be little Royal Exchange before I recollected what brought short of a miracle. me out, or where I was going. I got the bills discounted, paid every body tweniy shillings in the pound, but lost my trade and business.

"Well, on the 10th of November following, which was the day for collecting the O'Connell tribute, I forgot the ill-treatment I received. I conceived that Mr. O'Connell was justly entitled to the tribute from his country, no matter what he did to me, and acting upon this feeling, I aided, as usual, in the collection of it, and published letters in the Morning Register of November, 1833, in favour of it, which hence a letters in the collection of the particular of the p letters called forth the acknowledgments of Mr. P. V. Fitzpatrick, who said that my individual exertions had helped to swell the tribute to an unprecedented amount. Does this look like hatred of O'Connell ! Again, when I had the honour, and a high honour I shall always consider it, of having accompanied the great and good Mr. Cobbett on his tour through the south of Ireland in September and October, 1834, the people were collecting the O'Connell tribute in the south ; and while Mr. Cobbett and I were on a visit at the Rev. Mr. Costello's, the parish priest of Abingdon, the tribute was collected, and the Rev. Mr. Costello will bear testimony to the fact, that I not only collected the tribute at his chapel gate upon the occasion, but was the first to put my gold upon the great pewter dish which was used for the purpose of receiving the money. Does this look like hatred of O'Connell? "Oh! shame, where is thy blush ?' I lost no opportunity of explaining to Mr. Cobbett the grounds upon which I considered Mr. O'Connell entitled, justly entitled, to the tribute from his country; I mentioned to him that in my opinion it excited the envy of the tyrants of Europe-that it was a voluntary tribute for services rendered to a people who had no more effectual mode of testifying their gratitude. Mr. Cobbett, with his usual sense of justice, soon viewed the question in the same light; and when the Times, of the 27th of October, 1834, published an article stating that the tribute was extorted from the committee. which charges were never refuted, nor fallen from my lips had I known he was a priest. He acknowledged then that I had said nothing to of passing a censure upon me for bringing them for- offend him-that he only required me to promise that I would distribute no more papers amongst the " Mind that Mr. O'Connell says that I hate him, people; to which I replied that such a promise would imply that the papers were such as he described them to be, and that I would make no such promise. He then got into a passion, and said that he would go Catholic curate of Baldoyle and Kinsealy had made of the age in his efforts to ruin and destroy me.

"When Mr. O'Connell stood as candidate for the Smithfield, in the chair. I mentioned the cause of his | be inserted in the Star. being at the foot of the poll, which was simply because those who voted had not been checked off, and that therefore the exertions of the out agents were wasted in looking after electors already polled. A Committee of twenty-four was appointed to up all night in the Committee-rooms in Capel-street. The books were checked, the voters were brought up nex: day, and at the close of that day's poll Mr. O'Connell was at the head of it, instead of the foot, where he was the day before. Did this look like hatred of O'Connell !

"I said nothing offensive to him but this, and I paper alluded to.

Dapers. I go out to shoot occasionally on Saturdays, at Mr. Guest's, Steelhouse-lane, Birmingham. during the season, and the only papers I have taken with me since December last were copies of the Irish Universal Suffrage Association, which I hope

" PATRICK O'HIGGINS,"

No. 14, North Anne-street, Ang. 18, 1841.

CITY OF LONDON.-The Chartists of this city met as usual on Sunday morning, in their Institute, 55, Old Bailey, the account of the splendid meetthe founder and late secretary of the Dublin Repeal and Charter Association, delivered his second lecture, upon the subject of O'Connell, Ribonism, and Chartism in Ireland, for the benefit of Mr. R. Peddie. The lectures produced 7s., 2s. 6d. of which was given by the lecturer. The Chartists held their weekly meeting, Mr. Henderson, of Westminster, in the chair; new members were enrolled. Messrs. Watkins and Parker gave their report of the proceedings dlesex, which was received with feelings of pleasure.

FINSBURY.- At a well-attended and respectable if companions only for beasts. They tell us we are Corn Law meeting held that evening at the Court do it, come forward and let us instruct each other. Room of the parish of St. Luke's, City Road ; and We need not colleges, nor fine institutions, to gather city of Dublin, in 1835, he was, on the third day of a resolution for a vote of thanks to him for his bold true knowledge. Attend, therefore, a public meet-the election, so apprehensive of defea: that I was and manly opposition to the monopolising conduct ing, to be held at the Domestic Coffee House, 14, afraid he would resign, and at a meeting of his of these pretended anti-monopolists, was unani- Henrietta street, on Thursday next, the 7th instant, Committee in Sackville-street, Mr. Murphy, of mously and enthusiastically carried, and ordered to at half-past seven, when and where business of im-

SOUTHWARK .- A glorious Repeal Meeting took place on Sunday evening last, at Mr. Roche's, Red Lion Maze, Tooley-street, Mr. O'Leary in the chair. A powerful address was delivered by Mr. Brown, rule the books; I was Chairman of it, and sat of Walworth; also several excellent speeches were made by Messrs. Murphy, Walker, and Jeanes. The business of the evening concluded by the carrying of a motion by a great majority that Universal Suffrage, with a repeal of the Union, would be beneland.

JAMES GUEST, Bookseller

93, Steel-house Lane, Birmingham.

P.S Any amount may be sent in postage stamps.

TO THE MEN OF BIRMINGHAM.

MEN OF BIRMINGHAM.-You who so lately showed of the association, and the county council of Mid- your mighty armament and gigantic power to your enemies. You who have braved the taunts and sneers Mr. Matthews was elected to the county council in of the self-styled respectables. You who have dared Mr. Matthews was elected to the county council in 'of the self-styled respectables. Fou who have dured respectability.—As a great number of electors read the place of Mr. Parker; Messrs. Parker and Os-born were elected members to sit on the O'Brien enemies tell us we are ignorant. Yes, they tell us the members to sit on the O'Brien enemies tell us we are ignorant. Yes, they tell us the members to sit on the O'Brien enemies tell us we are ignorant. Yes, they tell us the metabolic the met

LONDON.-The Tailors held their weekly meetpeople by hired ruffians, Mr. Cobbett refuted the calumny in a style and with a spirit that does honour to human nature. This letter is to be found in the Freeman's Journal of the 31st of October, 1834. It was written in my house, and with my most hearty concurrence.

O'Connor, on his return from the north. portance will be brought before you.

I am fellow-townsmen, Your friend, manner in almost every instance when they were called upon to interfere. If a Church party, an Anti-Corn Law party, or any other party of humbugs anomalies. Recitation—" The enslaved millions," the real finale upon such treachery. Last year the showed as proof of their intellect the noble-minded Chartists came into the field at the eleventh hour; women of this country were entitled to it, such as however, they carried a number of their men. This Miss Woolstencraft and others. "The Northern year there is a strong and formidable union, in order Star and the Democratic Press"—Nobly respondto return a majority of commissioners to the board who will do their duty to the people, and protect the liberty of the subject. Our Whig and Tory papers are alarmed beyond measure—the respecta-bility forseath of the board is in danger. The bility, forsooth, of the board is in danger. The brate the release of Mr. O'Brien. There was a Whig people are, notwithstanding, steadily pursuing their anti-Corn Law lecture at Ouseburn, and many course, leaving it to interested hirelings to talk about thought that they would celebrate his release as thought that they would celebrate his release as the anti-Corn Law lecture-reader was completely Manchester, and the defeat of the machinations of floored. It was his first public attempt in Newcastle, the "plague" and its minion -. and we believe it will be the last; he is not prepared to answer the reasonable questions of the working classes; and a consciousness of his incapacity to do so, induced him to go and hide himself. The following resolutions were moved and seconded, and carried unanimously at the Chartist meeting, Mr. Condon in the chair. Resolved, "That this meeting hail with extreme delight, the liberation from the Whig to form a library for mutual instruction. They have dungeon of that unflinching poor man's friend, our ture on the state of parties. also made arrangements for receiving a visit from representative James B. O'Brien, Esq, and as a THE GLASGOW SOIREE Co of nature, we do hereby pledge ourselves to fall souries and a solution was held at Mr. Roche's, Red Lion, Maze, Tooley-street, Mr. O'Leary in the chair. After some private business had been "That inasmuch as we cannot more competently dispose of. show an attachment to the genuine principles and transacted, the Secretary asked if any person wished for him, by union with the rest of his admirers throughout the empire, the means of establishing the boat. It was then agreed to call a public meettalents, this meeting are, therefore, of opinion, that certain gentlemen be requested to take part in delivering a course of lectures, the proceeds to go to Mr. O'Brien's press fund." 3. "That the thanks of this meeting be given to Mr. Fielden, M.P., and Dr. Bowring, M.P. respectively, for moving and second-ing the stoppage of supplies; likewise to the four independent gentlemen who supported the same." Miller in the chair, for the purpose or consuering 4. "That the thanks of this meeting be tendered to be reasonable of conner. Esc. Several of the ladies Mr. Wm. Atkins, of the Ducrow Inn, for his liberality on all occasions in contributing towards the association funds, and more especially on the occasion of offering to make up any deficiency in defray- present ; but the ladies present declared their detering the expences of a delegate to welcome Mr. O'Brien." 5. "That a reply be sent to Mr. Williams, to the letter sent us respecting the public tes, and that the town be placarded with an address on the subject. After giving three hearty cheers for the Charter, Mr. O'Brien and Mr. O'Connor, the lution, considering it to be the only remedy for the evil of both countries:-" That it is the opinion of meeting broke up at a late hour. Mr. Morgan lecthis meeting that the Repeal of the Legislative tured at the following places this week, to large and Union based upon the principles of Universal Sufattentive audiences, Benton-square, Westmore, North Shields, South Shields, at all which places frage is the only remedy for Ireland and England." effect. Mr. Sherman seconded the resolution in a speech full

THE BIRMINGHAM DEMONSTRATION.

ON TUESDAY LAST, Mr. Benbow lectured in the Working Men's Hall, on the present awful state of our country, and the remedy for removing it. The Hall was crowded to excess.

NEWARK.-Mr. Dean Taylor lectured here on Thursday evening to a large audience.

TROWBRIDGE .-- On Tuesday evening, at a oublic meeting held in the Democratic Chapel, Mr. Clewor, the Chartist lecturer, successfully de-fended himself against the slanderous and unchristian attacks recently made upon him.

HUDDERSFIELD .- Mr. Chas. Connor lectured here on Tuesday evening, and gave a cheering account of the glorious reception of the patriots in > GLASGOW .- A lecture was delivered in St. Ann's Church, by Mr. Hamilton, of Stonehouse, on the evils of intemperance, and the propriety of all professing Chartists abstaining from the uso of intoxicating drinks.

GORBALS .- A meeting of the inhabitants was held in their own Hall, when Mr. Currie delivered a lec-

THE GLASGOW SOIREE COMMITTEE had a meeting proof of our respect for, and confidence in that noble in the L. U. S. Hall, College Open, when they entered into further arrangements for that impor-

THE DEMONSTRATION COMMITTEE assembled in the first-rate talents of Mr. O'Brien, than procuring same place on Thursday evening week. The Steam ing in St. Ann's Church, for the purpose of laying before the Chartists of Glasgow their proceedings, and asking their permission to invite Sharman Craw-PUBLIC MEETING.—A public meeting of the females of Glasgow was held in St. Ann's Church, Miss Feargus O'Connor, Esq. Several of the ladies present delivered sentiments worthy of the occasion. It was stated that O'Connor would not accept any mination of compelling him to accept a present from the lasses of the Queen of Chartism ; and we very much doubt if the great giant of Chartism will not be vanquished in the Bazaar Hall, at the soirce, when surrounded by the lily-white hands and pretty faces of those who are determined to take him prisoner, and then bang round his neck the emblem of their affection. A large Committee of the ladies was then appointed to carry the desired object into

tured here on Sunday evening. WANDSWORTH .--- The friendshere have agreed

T. H. SHAW.

"O! gratitude, where hast thou fled! Hast thou deserted men's bosoms altogether ?

When Mr. O'Convell abandoned the high position which he held in the country, and descended not only to enter into petty squabbles with issuers of one pound actes, but became a banker himself. I thought -but perhaps I may be wrong-that he, as a banker, in opposition to other bankers, and from my objections to Joint Stock Banks and banking-that is to say, issuing of notes in general-he was no longer entitled to a tribute from his country. I looked upon it as a public collection to aid him in opposing other bankers, which means I considered urjust and unfair; and I thought that a great man like him should have kept himself aloof from banking projects altogether. I shall not now enter into a disquisition upon banking ; but, perhaps, Mr. O'Connell may discover-I hope not too late-that I was more his friend than his enemy when I refused to contribute my mite to the tribute ever since he became a banker.

"When the anti-Tory Association was formed l declined becoming a member of it, though proposed by as honest a patriot and as worthy a man as ever any country gave birth to-the late Dominick Bonsyne, M.P. for Clonmel-because I saw nothing in the objects of the association but to form a coalition with the authors of the coercion act. When I saw, in a list of the division of the House of Commons, that Mr. O'Connell voted with Peel, Goulburn, Jackson, Shaw, Lefroy, and all the other Teries in the house. against Mr. Crawford's motion for the total abolition of tithes, and that he subsequently told the whole world that Mr. Crawford's Radical propositions were calculated to turn out the Whigs, and bring in the Tories; in short, wh en I saw that he had joined the Whigs, and voted, upt n several occas ons, longer, without feeling myself atterly degraded in my | cause of Chartism.

BERMONDSEY .- Several robberies have taken place last week in this locality, viz .- Mr. Sherman, newsjourneyman baker, of Star Corner, twelve quartern are so determined. loaves-a poor man in the Grange lost nearly all the middle of the day.

BRIGHTON.-On Friday evening last, Sept. 24th, the men of Brighton assembled at their meeting room at the Cap of Liberty, Portland-street, to testify their joy at the release of their persecuted follows friend, James Bronterre O'Brien. To have seen the joy pictured on the countenances of every one present would have been to the personned Bronterra - a payment in part for the sufferings he had under gone in the cause of the people. The old, the young, the gay and the sad, were all there to pay a welcome tribute, to an honourable and virtuous man. The females vied with the males in the enthusiasm and joy they felt at their teacher being again among them. Mr. Woodward occupied the chair, supported on the right and left by Messrs. Flowers, Giles, Page, Colling, Morling, and a host of the "good men and true" who had "fought the good fight" in days gone by, with the fearless and undaunted O'Brian at their hord. Morder it has not so that O'Brien at their head. Monday, the room was again crowded, and we should say more numerously than on the Friday evening; not a seat could be got, and hardly standing room; all was again en hu-siasm, nothing is wanted in Brighton more, than Rdym, Freeman-street, where any friend may inspect and hardly standing room ; all was again en:huthat O'Connor or O'Brien should pay a visit to give a zest to the cause. ARDELEY.-A Chartist Association has been Those books that are now out the Committee

ARDSLEY.-A Chartist Association has been formed at Ardsley. On Monday evening last, seventhe eternal gratitude of Ireland to them, I could no teen of the good men and true entered into the holy in on Friday next.

to join the Association. Mr. Jeans, a true Repealer and member of the National Association. entered The Committee, in bringing its business to a close, an beg leave to return their best thanks to the various his name and took up his card. A gent. then rose, friends and contributors, for the very handsome and inquired whteher they were for an unconditional ficial to the working classes of England and Ire- manner they have come forward to assist in pro- Repeal of the Union, when he was stopped by the viding the necessary means for getting up that grand 'Secretary, stating, that no person but members of display, to do honour to the man and the cause that the Association were allowed to speak. Upon which the person stated that, having been a true we delight to honour.

SOUTHWARK .- On Sunday evening last, a meet

When it is stated that the sum of £18 0s. 6d. was Repealer ever since his first entrance into political man, 2, Grange Terrace, Grange Road, lost four collected in the short space of three weeks, chiefly life, he would with pleasure join the Association sovereigns-the landlord of the Fort Tavern, from the working men, it is a proof (if any were and gave his name Mr. Brown, of Walworth. Mr. Grange Road, twenty-five sovereigns-a poor wanting) that we can accomplish a great good if we B. then, in a neat speech, replete with interest, depicted the cause of the present distresses both in

To the various trades we are indebted not only for | England and Ireland, ascribing it to class legislation, his clothes. Strange to say, all this was done in their flags and banners, but for their presence. The and after a speech of considerable length, sat down Committee assure them that if at any time they with cheers. The Chairman proposed that the health should wish for a similar favour, they will heartily; of thenew and talented member be drank with three comply. To our friends in the surrounding towns times three, standing and uncovered. Mr. Brown and districts we are in like manner grateful. then returned thanks, and stated that after the The sum total of receipts and expenditure is as manner in which the opinions he had stated had been received, he begged to move the following reso-

Receipts Expenditure	18	8. 0 4	6
-

Due to the Treasurer ... 4 4 2

We have no doubt but that our friends both in town and country will come forward, and assist the of spirit, and called upon the meeting to join toge-Committee in clearing off the above small sum. With these few plain and simple facts,

We remain,

On behalf of the Committee, WALTER THORN, Chairman. WM. HOPLAIN, Treasurer. W. PARKES, Secretary.

printer, Small-brook-street.

Those books that are now out the Committee their enemies but their friends, and were determined would be obliged to the holders if they will bring to obtain the rights of the English, Irish, Scotch,

September 27th, 1841.

they pledged themselves to join the National Charter Association forthwith.

ther in obtaining a Repeal of the Union, based on AT A MEETING of delegates at Seghill, on the 26th, great room, No. 14, North Anne Street, Mr. Henry the principles of the People's Charter. An amendment was proposed and seconded in favour of what Mr. Wm. Bird in the chair, delegates were present is called General Suffrage, and the Repeal of the Union, which, on being put to the vote, was declared hill, East Holywell, North Shields, and Newcastle, to be lost, and the original resolution carried by a who were all instructed that their constituents would WM. HOPLAIN, Treasurer. W. PARKES, Secretary. All communications to be addressed to Mr. Taylor, rinter, Small-brook-street. only one which would report the account of their ing themselves to continue their exertions for the was preud to have the honour to propose, because of meetings, the Tablet having refused. The meeting Charter. After some other business of less impor- the opposition he had given, but whom he was proud was conducted with the greatest good feeling, and a few such meetings as these would soon show to the Irish people that the English Chartists were not

> The resolutions were mostly those of thanks to vaand Welshmen, in despite of all opposition. The rious individuals for services readered. meeting resolved to meet again on Sunday week.

DUBLIN.-The Irish Universal Suffrage Association held their meeting on Sunday last, at their

Mr. Wm. Bird in the chair, delegates were present Clark in the chair. The minutes of the last meeting from Cramlington, Bedlington, Foreman's-row, Seg-hill, East Holywell, North Shields, and Newcastle, Copp. of Bristol, Mr. A. Russell, of Athboy, and who were all instructed that their constituents would Mr. T. M'Donald, of Newry. Mr. Freebairn gave tance, the meeting was adjourned to Sunday, Oct. 24th, when it will be resumed at North Shields, at ten o'clock, a.m. Ar THE USUAL weekly meeting, in the Cloth-market, little business of public interest transpired. The usual weekly meeting interest transpired.

persed, after receiving notices for the enrollment of several new members.

Charust Entelligence.

LONDON (GLOBE FIELDS) .- At the weekly meeting, held on Sanday, at the Hit-and-Miss Tavern, it was resolved, "That two persons be sent from this society, as part of a committee to be formed for the purpose of aiding to get up a press for J. B. O'Brien, to meet at the Disratch Coffee Rooms, on Monday evening. Oc:ober 4th, when Mr. J. Pickergill and Mr. J. Cooper were appointed for that purpose.

DUNFERMILINE. - The committee appointed to make arrangements for the reception of Feargus the inhabitants a procession-a petition for the Char-

Laws was resumed last Tuesday evening, and was kept up with great spirit for nearly two hours. The speaking was chiefly confined between Mr. Holenshead, a Chartist, and Mr. Bormond, a grocer, &c., the latter observing that he thought he knew a deal about the workings of this law, and proceeded to give a very lively description of the evils resulting from them. At the conclusion of his address, he hoped the Chartists would at once endeavour to have them repealed, and was about to move a resolution to that effect, when Mr. Anderson stept forward, and said that he regretted he had not been in at the commencement of the discussion, as it deprived him] of taking a part, as he would liked to have done : but, although he had not taken a prominent part in the business of this evening, he had heard nothing to induce him to change his opinion. (Hear, hear.) He would, therefore, move the same resolution as he had done on the previous evening. The resolution bers are coming forward to enrol their names in our was to the effect." That the Corn Laws, and every Association.

other bad law ought to be repealed, but, in order to make a lasting benefit to the working classes of this country, it ought to be accompanied with an extension of the franchise to the limits contained in the People's Charter, so that when the poor man got a cheap loat, he might have a vote to keep it in his possession." Mr. Bormond opposed this resolution, as he said it involved another question. After some desultory conversation, it was agreed to adjourn the debate till next Tuesday night, when it is expected to be finally closed.

requested to take a minute of this meeting, together i misrule are fast drawing to a close. with the resolutions, for the purpose of having the said report published in the Northern Star." Pro-posed by John Man, seconded by C. Winspear. meeting, on Monday, several new members were

2nd. "That Stockton, Hartlepool, and Middlesbro', form themselves into a district for the purpose of carrying out the objects of this meeting, and that Darlington, Stokesley, and Yarm be requested to join us in keeping up an agitation in favour ing for the "shu of the People's Charter." Moved by Mr. Hetherington." James Hollenshead, seconded by Mr. James Quin. HORTON, N

3rd. " That another delegate meeting be held this

Martin, Mr. J. Smith delivered an iddress to a lärge audience. On Monday night, we had an address from Mr. Duffy. The andience was numerous, in-deed the room was completely crowded; but the best of all was, that Mr. Duffy, and a great many more Roman Catholics were enrolled as members, amounting, altogether, to sixteen in number. This is the way the Repealers ought to do, committee appointed for the carrying out of the O'Connor Demonstration, most respectfully call upon the different trades of this town to follow the example of their brethren in other parts, by joining in the O'Connor, E-q., have issued a placard suggesting to f demonstration, and showing their attachment to that cause which alone can berter the condition of the ter-and the erection of a wooden hall, capable of labouring community. The committee meet every holding about 2,000 persons, in shares of one shilling each. MIDDLESBRO'.—The discussion on the Corn Laws was resumed last Tuesday evening, and was stration, will be holden in their room, on Sunday the 3rd of October, at two o'clock in the afternoon, at which Delegates are exposted from all the surrounding villages. Various resolutions have been passed at the former meetings. One and all seem determined that the united energies of the whole of this district be put into active operation, to secure a glorious and triumphal entry of that tried friend and champion of the justice as well as necessity of yielding to us some time past. those rights which they have so long and so wrengfelly withhelden from us.

Chartism, at this place, is progressing most gloriously. The working classes are beginning to see that there is no remedy for the evils under which they groan, save in the people's Charter, and num-

WINDY BANK .- Mr. Marsden lestured in the Chartist News-room here, fully exposing the manifold evils of the present system of class legislation, and strongly recommending a union of efforts to obtain the Charier, as the only means to destroy that power and bring happiness to the people. At the conclu-sion, three chcers were given to F. O'Connor, and three to Frost, Williams, and Jones.

SKIPTON .- Mr. Knowles, from Keighley, deli-

DELEGATE MEETING AT MIDDLESBRO' .- According The lecturer animadverted in severe terms on the to appointment, a delegate meeting took place ou seifishness of the middle-class; he did not spare Sunday, the 25th, to consider the best means of the working men for the apathy they have shown keeping up a local agitation upon the most economical in this part of the country, in forwarding the great plan. There was present Messrs. Quin, Cameron, and and glorious cause; he exhorted them to do their Mr. Claren, from Harilepool, Messrs. Winspear and | duty, and spoke in the most happy manner on Umbleby, from Stockton, together with the Council the necessity of union. Although this town is the of the Charter Association of Middlesbro'. On the hot-bed of Whiggery and Toryism, there is a demo-motion of Mr. Maw, Mr. Umbleby was called to the cratic feeling springing up in the minds of the work-chair. He opened the proceedings in a neat ing classes. There are numbers who would speak speech, and concluded by calling on the out their sentiments on this subject, but dare not ciezaios to give a report of the state of Char- for fear of the consequences, as all are, more or less, ism in the various localities, each of which under the influence of Whig or Tory cotton lords. gave cheering accounts, but all complained There are a few, however, who know their rights, for the want of agitation, expressing his opinion and knowing dare maintain them. An Associa- to Mrs. Roberts, on Wednesday In that if a course of agitation was kept up, it would tion was established on Saturday night, September me and the donors many thanks. have a great effect in the furtherence of the prin- 25th, with every prospect of success; and we hope ciples of Universal Suffrage. After a considerable the men of Skipton and surrounding villages will deal of discussion, the following resolution was un- rally round us in this our glorious undertaking, and animously adopted :- 1st. "That Mir. Anderson be let the tyrants know that the days of their despotic > enrolled. The letter of Mr. O'Connor to Henry Hetherington was read, and a resolution unanimously passed, voting confidence in O'Connor and the Star, and expressing the contempt of the meeting for the "shuffling and unseemly conduct of Mr. Bloomsbury; official assignee, Mr. Belcher.

called at the house of Mr.

I am delighted indeed, at the prospect of being soon joined (for I think it cannot be long) by the whole dis-LEEDS .- On Sanday last, in the absence of Mr. interested people of Ireland in our righteous demand, for the privilege of governing ourselves.

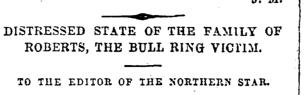

The common enemy is now dominant : and the same power that lifted him up is equally potent to pull him down; but he must be pulled down, on this occasion, upon a principle that will keep him down. He has got up, for from any opposition on the part of the people to felorin, real reform; but from sheer disgust on the part of the people at the treachery and monstrous profligacy of the Whigs.

Again most mincenely thanking you for the part you are now acting, and greatly hopeful that through your exertions and the exertions of your brother Chartists, the hard working, industrious people of Ireland may be relieved from the baleful domination of that trafficking band of villains who have so long been making a spoil of their sufferings, and sincerely praying that you may live to see the day when the people of Ireland may have some reason to be contented-having well-covered tables and well-covered backs.

I remain. My dear Sir, Your friend, and the friend of Ireland, JAMES MOIR. 174, Gallowgate, Glasgow, 14th Sept., 1841.

P.S. You will receive along with this my "Star" the people's rights, F. O'Connor, Esq., into this and " Patriot," for this week. I have been sending district, and en rave on the hearts of our enemies them to yourself or some other person in Ireland for J. M.

SIR,-I shall esteem it a favour if you will inform the public, through your valuable paper, that the sum of 95. 2d. was collected at the tea-party on Tuesday night, for the wife of Joseph Roberts, who was trans-ported on the oath of one Billy Hall, late prize fighter, but now a member of the "blue-bottle" corps. The wife of Joseph Roberts is at this time in great distress, having one child at this time lying dead in the house; the other, we think, cannot long survive. If our sympathising friends will contribute their mites. vered a lecture here on Saturday, the 18th izst., in they will be thankfully received and duly acknowledged, the Temperance Hall, which was well attended. either by Mr. Guest, Steelhouse-lane, or Mr. Taylor.

printer, &c, Smallbrook-strect. Through grief, Mrs. Roberts is become quite deaf. I think if this, with her case, was made known to the humane, something would be done to alleviate her distressed situation.

Sir, hoping you will make this known, I remain, Yours respectfully, in the cause,

WALTER THORN. Tin-plate worker, 86, Lower Hurst-street.

Birmingham, Sept. 25th.

P.S. Please to notice that I paid over the above sum to Mrs. Roberts, on Wednesday last, for which she gave Bankrupis, &c.

From the London Gazette of Friday, Sept. 24.

BANKRUPTS.

James Hammon, Great Portland street, Oxford-street, plumber, to surrender October 2, at half-past two o'clock, November 5, at two, at the Bankrupts' Court. by extreme asthma, was, by taking two or three Solicitors, Messre. Harrison and Dobree, Hart-street,

Theophilus Gamauf, Fetter-lane, wholesale furrier, for sixteen weeks; quite incapacitated for walking; BORTON, NEAR BRADFORD.-On Wednesday ight last a stranger called at the house of National Solicitors, Messra. Wood and Ellis, Life Pills can walk with all the activity and free-

WEST-RIDING OF YORKSHIRE. NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that a SPECIAL N ADJOURNED SESSIONS of the Peace for the WEST RIDING of the County of YORK, will be holden at the County of YORK, will be holden at the Count House, in WAREFIELD, "Every working man, for the charge of a half-will de noiden at the COURT HOUSE, in WAREFIELD, on WEDNESDAY, the 13th Day of October next, at TWELVE O'CLOCK at Noon, for the purpose of taking into consideration the Report of the Finance Com-mittee presented at the last Fontefract Sessions; hope the masses will now do s)."-Northorn Star.

Carrot Cart

year of his age.

EMMETT AND IRELAND!

Just published, price ls., an interesting Memoir, from au bentic sources, of the lamented patriot Robert Emmett; incidentally detailing the Origin. Progress, and disastrous Termination of the Irish Insurrection, 1803, &c. Embellished with a splendid steel engraved Portrait. This edition includes the Trial, celebrated Speech, &c. &c. "This little work is calculated to keep in remembrance the name of one who feit, and felt deeply, most blood-thirsty faction that ever governed, or a cure.

rather misgoverned Ireland. We hope the book may have an extended circulation."-Weekly Dis-Patch.

ASK FOR THE ENGLISH CHARTIST CIRCULAR I

PRICE ONE HALFPENNY !

"This noble, though humble, ally in the glorious! cause of the People is, we are happy to perceive, pursuing its onward march, and, if properly en-couraged, cannot fail most efficiently to aid in the cause of right and justice. The number before us (25), besides other highly interesting matter contains the 'People's Charter' entire. Thus every working of October next, and that all proceedings, under the Highway Act, will be taken on the First day of this must this all internet of a single halfpenny, can prothis most-this all-important document; and we sincerely trust that the whole of the masses will gladly avail themselves of the opportunity. We perceive that the whole of the back numbers are in print, and can be obtained for one shilling ; a work at the price, containing so large an amount of really useful information, wo are not acquainted with and we hope that every Chartist will aid in its circulation."-Northern Star.

The work can be had in Monthly Parts 6d. each.

THE LABOURERS' LIBRARY,

Containing the Remedy for National Poverty and Impending National Ruin : or the only safe way of Repealing the Corn Laws, by enabling cach Work-

Observe, that each Box of the genuine Medicine has pasted round it the Government Stamp, on which is engraved these words, PARR'S LIFE PILLS in WHITE letters on a RED ground, none Addressed to the Landlords of Ireland.

Every Young Man should read the Drama of WAT TYLER ; price Twopence (ariginally publishing at 4s. 6d.), by ROBERT SOUTHEY, Poet Laureate to her Majesty.

"Every lover of his species should make an effort to circulate this splendid and truly invaluable poem."-Patriot.

Price Twopence.

DISSERTATION ON THE FIRST PRIN-CIPLES OF GOVERNMENT; by THOS. PAINE. This Pamphlet is a masterly defence of the right of every man to the possession of the Elective Fran-the constitution ensues, and a melancholy death puts a period to their dreadful sufferings.

These Pills are mild and effectual in their operahope the masses will now do s)."-Northorn Star. EMMETT'S SPEECH ! Now publishing, Price One Penny, the splendid speech of Robert Emmett, Esq., who was executed in Dublin, for High Treason, in the twenty-second in Dublin, for High Treason, in the twenty-second hope the masses will and enectual in their opera-tion, without mercury, or mineral, and require no restraint in diet, loss of time, or hindrance from business : possessing the power of eradicating every symptom of the disease in its worst stage, without the least exposure to the patient; they are particu-larly recommended to be taken before persons enter into the matrimonial state, lest the indiscretions of a parent are the source of vexation to him the re-mainder of his existence, by afflicting his innocent but unfortunate offspring with the evil eruptions of a malignant tendency and a variety of other complaints that are most assuredly introduced by the same neglect and imprudence.

It is only by purifying the vital stream from insi-dious disease, that the body can be preserved in health and vigour. Hence the infinite variety of complaints an infected state of the blood induces. and hence the new and deceptive forms a tainted his country's wrongs; a man who, in endeavouring habit puts on, which often decrive the most eminent to redress them, feil a sacrifice to the schemes of the of the faculty, and baffle the best intentions towards habit puts on, which often deceive the most eminent

> In those disorders wherein salivation has left the patient uncured, weak, and disheartened. and when no other remedy could restore the unhappy sufferer to that health which he has unfortunately lost, the PURIFYING SPECIFIC PILLS will be found the only effectual and radical remedy; and have ever been successful, though administered in many desperate cases of Evil, Scurvy, and Leprosy, as well as removing Pimples from the Face, Sore Legs, or other disagreeable Eruptions on the head, face, and body.

> > Price 23. 9d., 4s. 6d., and 11s. per Box.

Prepared only by Messrs. PERRY & Co., Surgeons, 44, Albion-street, Leeds, (Private Entrance in the Passage,) and 4, Great Charles-street, Birmingham.

Observe, none are genuine without the signa-ture of R. & L. PERRY & Co. impressed in a stamp on the outside of each wrapper, to imitate which is felony of the deepest dye. Messrs. PERRY expect when consulted by letter the usual Fee of One Pound, without which no notice whatever can be taken of the communication, (postage pre-paid.)

Patients are requested to be as minute as possible in the detail of their cases, -as to the duration of the complaint, the symptoms, age, habits of living, and general occupation. Medicines can be forwarded to any part of the world; no difficulty can occur, as they will be securely packed, and carefully protected from observation.

THE CORDIAL BALM OF SYRIACUM

is intended to relieve those persons, who, by an immoderate indulgence of their passions, have ruined their constitutions, or in their way to the consummation of that deplorable state are affected with any of those previous symptoms that betray its approach. as the various affections of the nervous system, obstinate gleets, excesses, irregularity, obstructions, weaknesses, total impotency, barrenness, &c. A perseverance in its use has been the happy means of relieving many thousands, and of restoring a great number to the permanent enjoyment of life. It is remarkable for its efficacy in all disorders of the digestive organs, and is especially recommended to those, who, from the irregularities of youthful age, habits of studious application, or a life of pleasure. have fallen into a despondent state of mind, and that distressing train of symptoms commonly denominated the nervous. In such persons the mental are not less enfectled than the corporeal, and to them a remedy that acts with efficacy, without inter-

and also a Memorial from the Barnisters attending the West Riding Sessions respecting the removal of Knaresbrough Christmas Sessions; and a Potition from certain Inhabitatis of the Wapontake of Claro, relating to the same subject, and on other Special

Business. And Notice is also hereby gizen, that at the same Sessions, at the hour of One o'clock of the same day, the Report of the Committee, appointed to select a Site for the proposed New Gaol, or House of Cor-rection, will be taken into further consideration, and such Orders for the Grant of Money out of the County Stock or Rate made thereon as the Justices then present shall deem expedient. C. H. ELSLEY, Clerk of the Peace. Clork of the Peace's Office, Wakefield, 27th September, 1841.

LEEDS BOROUGH SEESIONS.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that the next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the Borough of Leeds, in the County of York, will be holden before THOMAS FLOWER ELLIS, the Younger, Esquire, Recorder of the said Borough, at the Court House, in Leeds, on WEDNESDAY, THE THIRTEENTH DAY OF OCTOBER next, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, at which time and place all Jurors, Constables, Polico Officers, Prosecutors, Witnesses, Persons bound by Recognizances, and others having Business at the said Sessions are required to attend. And Notice is hereby also given, that all Appeals, not previously dispessed of, will be heard at the Opening of the Court, on Friday, the Fifteenth day

the Sessions.

By order, JAS. RICHARDSON, Clerk of the Peace for the said Borough. Leeds, 14th September, 1841.

CAUTION !

THE extraordinary demand for PARR'S LIFE L PILLS has induced several shopkeepers of mean and dishonest principles, to try to impose on the incautious various counterfeits composed of the most pernicious ingredients, mercly for the sake of roaping an extra profit, totally regardless of the dreadful consequences which must ensue.

other can be genuine. In no instance has this invaluable Medicine failed to effect a perfect cure where due patience and perseverance has been water "York, Sept. 7, 1841. severance has been exercised. Read the following

"Gentlemen,-We shall feel obliged by your re-peating the last order for Parr's Life Pills, and forwarding immediately by Pickford's Rails. Instances of extraordinary cures are continually occurboxes, restored to health. Another instance is a man who had been confined to his bed by rheumatism chise. "We beg each and all of our friends to dom of perfect health. I could enumerate many other instances, but these will suffice to prove the oirculating this invaluable tract.-English Chartist value of the Medicine in ameliorating discase and Circular.

"E. HOLLIER."

day fortnight for the purpose of forming a central Tordoff, the Hare Inn, Horton, about ten o'clock, Belcher. two o'clock in the afternoon.

CUSESURN .- The Onseburn Chartists held their usual meeting for lectures on Tuesday evening, the 21st, when a lecture was delivered by Mr. Parker, subject, the causes which led to the American and French Revolutions. We have the pleasure to state onsly proceeds in this district. At the conclusion of the lecture, reference was made to the newspapers, and to a bill extensively posted round the neighbour-hood, headed "Newcastle and Gateshead Anti-Corn Law and Free Trade Association," in which it was stated that being of opinion that it was essentially necessary that the working classes should be placed in possession of sound and useful political information, they had appointed Mr. Daniel Liddle to give lectures round the district, A lecture was to be delivered in the Primitive Methodist Chapel, Ouseburn, on Friday evening, at seven o'clock, when the Chartists of Ouseburn resolved to attend to get all the information they possibly could.

DEATH AND BURIAL OF THE NEWCASTLE AND GATESHEAD ANTI-COEN LAW AND FREE TRADE Association .- On Friday evening, the 24th, Mr. Daniel Liddle, agreeable to public announcement, delivered a lociare on the evil tendency of the Corn Laws, &c., &e.; the wall near the pulpit was decorated with maps, and every one on his entering was most plentifully supplied with papers and tracis put out by the Anti-Corn Law League. The lecturer appeared to be highly delighted at the presence of so numerous an audience, the chapel being completely filled. His lecture was listened to throughout with the greatest attention, but at the conclusion Mr. Wm. Parker rose and objected to the accuracy of the lecturer's facts and position, and requesting to discuss the subject; this, much is the praise and credit of the trustees of the chapel, was by them agreed to, but most evidently to the great chagrin of the lecturer and friends, when after very lengthened discussion, which was ably sustained by Messrs. Brnce, Catrine, Hall, and Parker on the part of the working population, the lecturer and his friends were completely silenced; every man and woman in the well-filled chapel were satisfied of the fallacy of the Corn Law humbugs, and the lecturer shrunk away, and we are perfectly convinced that no more lectures will be attempted in this district, the Chartists having promised him that as he wished to give sound political information, which " was their wish also, they would attend him in all his future lectures. At the usual meeting of the Ouseburn Chartists on Sunday, 20th inst., it was unanimensly resolved, "That the above report be forwarded by the secretary to the Star, for insertion."

bownsmen.

with very good effect on Thursday.

lecture on Chartism; but the Corn Law League of dear Sir, I also know that we are at present in the very 10,000 converts to Hygeianism, (who had read my this place had a lecturer, of the name of Roughstone, position that would enable us to return the compliment; Medicine and reduced its price. I have no connext coach. every stage and symptom of the Venereal Disease, scrofula, swellings in the neck, nodes on the shin engaged for the same evening, and the Chartists con- but there is no wretch base enough, no damned villain Medicine, and reduced its price-I have no con-"J am, Gentlemen, bones, cancers, fistula, pains in the head and limbs, cluded to go along with Charles Connor to hear what with a heart black enough to make the proposition ; nection with the conflicting parties, who sell what in both sexes, including Gonorrhees, Gleets, Secon-"Yours repectfully, this champion of the League had to say, and if pos- if there were, I am convinced the people of Soctland each call Morison's Pills-nor with any, but my dary Symptoms, Strictures, Seminal Weakness, Deficiency, and all diseases of the Urinary Passages, which are frequently mistaken for rheumatism, "JOSEPH NOBLE, sible to get a hearing for Connor, and to make the would spurn the wretch from their society, and on his own Medicines, which, after seven years' trial in &c. &c. " Printer, Bookseller, and Stationer. League meeting into a Chartist one, in which object off-going would cover him with saliva in utter disgust every disease, of young, and old, on sea and land, of without loss of time, confinement, or hindrance from "23, Market-place, Hull, Jan. 18, 1841." they completely succeeded. Mr. David Mills was : at his heartless proposition. business. They have effected the most surprising a public or a private nature, stand unequalled for called to the chair, and introduced Mr. Roughstone, The people of this country have no interest in opposi. Safety and Successful Cures; and which require called to the chair, and introduced Mr. Roughstone, The people of this country have no interest in opposition only one trial, to be appreciated, who went through a number of threadbarrassertions, tion to that of their Irish brethren; they ask no privilion only one trial, to be appreciated. Under the service the service that they do not demand for the Dr. GREER's Pills will be Prepared in London, IMPORTANT.-Many persons, after learning that so cures, not only in recent and severe cases, but when many wonderful cures have been effected by PARK'S salivation and all other means have failed; and when LIFE PILLS, have a great desire to procure the an early application is made to these Pills for the return the fee. that if the Corn Laws were repeated, workmen's lege for themselves that hey do not demand for the wages would be higher and employment plentiful, people of Ireland; although they have been treated by roast beef and plum pudding the order of the day a set of unprincipled trafficking politicians in your with the working classes, &c. He concluded by ex-with the working classes, &c. He concluded by ex-country, as if they had. I know the use that has been with the working classes, by the party same men Packets for Exportation, and Saa Cantains All medicine which has done so much good. In doing cure of the above complaint, frequently contracted this, however, caution must be observed, as certain in a moment of inebriety, the eradication is generally For the accommodation of those who cannot convoniently consult Messrs. W. and Co. personally, of the Corn Laws, and he would go with them for the who carried the Reform Bill by threats of physical stamped by Government. Charter. At the conclusion of this expression, there force the most palpable and most direct.) for the purmedicine. The proprietors cannot, of course, be Mercury, has been productive of infinite mischief; accountable for any untoward results that may under the notion of its being an antidote for a cerwas a general feeling of disapprobation manifested pose of deterring the people of Ireland from having centage. It being quite impossible I can faithfully ensue to those who have been thus imposed upon, tain disease, the untutored think they have only to but they can point out an effectual means to prevent saturate their system with Mercury, and the busiin the body of the meeting, and a cry of " No, let us anything to do with the Chartists of Scotland and reply to all correspondents, without a clerk, therefellow. In the body of the insetting, and a try of the first of booland and fore, it is expected that all Strangers will send En-have the Charter first." The lecturer sat down England. Yes, my dear Sir, and I have lived to see fore, it is expected that all Strangers will send En-seemingly dismayed, when Charles Connor rose, and the day when one of those very men-and no less a shewed to the satisfaction of the meeting, with the personage than O'Conneil's pacificator-general-should from me, who has given up all out-door practice, between the the satisfaction of the form with which a million for this purcese. ness is accomplished. Fatal error! Thousands are Mr. HEATON, 7. Briggate; and Purchasers may be sure they have the genuine annually either mercurialised out of existence, or medicine if they find the words PARR'S LIFE their constitutions so broken, and the functions of Mr. HOBSON, Times' office, Leeds. Mr. THOMAS BUTLER, 4, Cheapside, London. Mr. HARTLEY, Bookseller, Halifax. Mr. DEWHIRST, 37, New Street, Huddersfield. WHITE letters on a RED ground. Observe, also, that miserable. The disorder we have in view owes its the name of Mr. Edwards, 67, St. Paul's, London, is fatal result either to neglect or ignorance. In the the arguments of the lecturer were all delusior. He of Irish pikes could be manufactured. To be used, I JAMES GREER. made it clear that the object of the League was to suppose, by the moral-force-men par excellence. Out keep the working classes in ignorance and distress, upon the disgusting hypoerisy of such swaggering, fire-No. 1, has White, and No. 2, Green Labels on the Mr. HARRISON, Bookseller, Market Place, Barnsley printed as Wholesale Agent on the directions which | first stage it is always local, and easy to be extin-Mr. HARGROVE'S Library, 9, Coney Street, York. He say down, loudly cheered, after which the meet-ing gave three cheers for the Charter, three for F. The people of this country are real genuine moral-O'Connor, and three for Frest, Williams, and Jones. force men; not a single breach of the peace so far all Seven Hundred Threes of there through the Blood failed, are received daily. are wrapped round every box. Price 1s. 12d., 2s. 9d., guished by attending to the directions fully pointed and 11s. each. Instances of cures, when every other remedy had the constitution; but when neglected or improperly Messrs. Fox and Son, Booksellers, Pontefract. Mr. HABRISON, Market-place, Ripon. Mr. LANGDALE, Bookseller, Knaresbro & Harrogate The Chairman then read a memorial, which he in- know, has been committed by them since the com- than that of No. 2, and is perhaps the most Exhilartreated, a mere local affection will be converted into Mr. R. HURST, Corn Market, Wakefield. tended submitting to the meeting, praying her his- mencement of their agitation for Universal Suffrage, &c. ating Tonic ever discovered ; and the Essence of my GRATIS.—The Life and Times of Old Larr, who lived to be 152 years of age, containing Remarks on Disease, Health, and the Means of Prolonging of his parents, should be snatched from all the pros-Mr. DAVIS, Druggist, No. 6, Market L'lace, Manjesty not to proregue Parliament until her Ministers Not that they are cowards, for they have been both No. 2 Pills does not, like that of other strong Purhad taken ap consideration the distress of the work- flattered and builled to deter them from the pursuit of gatives, carry the food out of the Bowels, before the chester. on Disease, Health, and the Means of Prolonging of mis parents, shound be shatthed from an one prosent Life, 32 pages with Engravings, Anecdotes, Poetry, pects and enjoyments of life by the consequences of the max he had gratis of all agents. Mr. JOHNSON, Bookseiler, Beverley. Mr. NoBLE, Bookseller, Boston, Lincolnshire. ing classes, and to extend the iranchise universally ;) their object, but sitogether without effect. The Chartists | lacteals take up its nourishment into the Blood ; After which it was moved, seconded and carried ; cocupy the whole field of public opinion in this country, but it affords, (and allays the most acute inflamma-Mr. NOBLE, Bookseller, Market-place, Liull. and after giving three cheers for the Chairman the and they are entitled to it, for they ask nothing that is tory pain also) full time for the Patient to be not, in its own nature, fatal, and which never proves Wholesale Agents-Mr. Edwards, St. Paul's so if properly treated. Church-yard, London; J. Honson, Star Office, Mar- It is a melancholy fact that thousands fall victims. Mr. H. HURTON, Louth, Lincolnshire. Iris Office. Sheffield. Chronicle Office. Lord Street, Livercool. And at the Advertiser Office, Lowgate, Hull.

committee to manage the affairs of the district." and called for a glass of ale, and something to eat; Proposed by Mr. J. Anderson; seconded by Mr. S. the landlord supplied him with it, and during the Fox. 4:h. "That J. Hollenshead, J. Anderson, and time the stranger was partaking of it, the dog be-J. Man, be deputed to attend the public meeting longing to the house went under the table, and the b, at twelve, at the Bankrupts Court Sonotici, which is to held at Hartlepool, on Monday, the 3rd | landlord observed the man drop something down Mr. Ware, Blackman-street, Borough; official assignee, Mr. Pennil. of October, and that Middlesbro' and Stockton bear | and the dog partook of it. The man, as soon as he these expences." Moved by Mr. F. Andrew; se- had taken his refreshment, bid "good night" and ho conded by Mr. Calles Boardman. Anter solid dely set on. He had not been gone very long before the at the Commissioners rooms, manchester. Son enliory conversation and a vote of thanks to the dog showed symptems of great illness, and in less Messre. Makinson and Sanders, Middle Temple. chairman, the meeting broke up, highly gratified than an hour expired. The landlord on seeing that James Hulme, Manchester, grocer, Octob with the proceedings of the day. It is expected that his dog was dead suspected that his house was going November 5, at two o'clock, at the Commissioners' Stokesley, Yarm, Darlington, and all the neighbour-ing villages will send their delegates to the meeting, encounter. He loaded his gun and seated himself which is to be held on Sanday, the 9th October, at down, waiting the event; when about two o'clock, he saw a light struck up; he then proceeded to the place, and could distinctly see three men at his back-window, and one of them with a lighted candle in his hand, but as soon as they saw him and his formidable weapon, they made their escape.

that the iscentre was well attended, and most Carlisle Radical Association, a vote of thanks was Burfoot, Temple. attentively listened to, and the cause most presper- given to John Fielden, Esq., M.P., for Uldham, Dr. Bowring, and the other members, who supported them in the House of Commons, for no more supplies to be granted, until full enquiry be made into | the distress of the country.

> here on Monday evening, at the United Coffee Kirck and J. B. Falkner, Liverpool, paint-manufac-House, George-street. turers. Hall and Gardner, Manchester, drysalters.

NOMINATIONS FOR THE GENERAL COUNCIL. COLNE. Mr. Hartley Stansfield, Crows House.

Mr. Abraham Schofield, Colne. Mr. Wm. Greenwood, Colne. Mr. Thos. Ridehalgh, Linches. Mr. Thos. Baldwin, News Agent, Colne. Mr. Josh. Brown, Colne. Mr. Benjamin Foulds, Colne Lane. Jos. Holgate, Colue. Mr. Wm. Smith, Colne. Mr. Rebert Tomlinson, sub-Treasurer. Mr. James Morney, sub-Secretary.

WALLEY.

Mr. Moses Robinson. Mr. Joseph Naylor. Mr. John Teal. Mr. George Bentley. Mr. William Neil. Mr. David Culpon, sub-Treasurer. Mr. William Calyon, sub-Secretary.

DEFTFORD.

Mr. Hogan. Mr. Jenner. Mr. Heywood. Mr. Adams. Mr. Burton. Mr. Morgan, re-elected sub-Treasurer. Mr. T. Wilshire, sub-Secretary, pro. temp.

> -----TO MR. PATRICK O'HIGGINS.

MY DEAR SIR,-Although a total stranger to you, LOUGHBOROUGE .- On Sunday evening, the I scarcely deem it necessary to make a formal apology Council agreed to call a delegate meeting for October for thus addressing you. My object in writing to you the 10th, at five o'clock presisely, at the Charter is to thank you, which I do with most heartfelt sin-He form, at not obtain pleasery, as the charter is to form you, which i do with most heartest sin-Hall, when the following places are requisied to cerity, for the noble and also courageous effort which zend delegates, viz Montaberel, Hathern, Long you are now making to rub the film from off the eyes of Whatton, Normanian, Sutton Witwick, Belton, your warm-hearted, generous, but too-confiding country-Sheepmaad, East Leske, and such other places in men. Many a line, Sir, while prosecuting the cause of the vicinity as are facturable to the Charter. On our country's freedom, have I been forced to exclaim in Many at the appendent of the Association mer. Monday, the members of the Association met, and, bitterness of spirit, will the people of Ireland never be after transacting other business, separated. A com- able to see the delusion which is being practised upon mittee was appointed to arrange for the coming visit them. My joy is indeed great at the appearance of the ; of the brave O'Connor; they are to meet weekly, day star of their political salvation beginning to dawn and they solicit the co-operation of their fellow upon them. Although, Sir, I have not forgotten the disgraceful treatment of Mr. Lowery when sent on a COLNE.—The Colne Radicals have incorporated Eugland and Scotland, to greet the people of Ireland in the National Charter Association. with the right hand of followship, and to request their friendly mission as the representative of the people of BARNOLDSWICK .- Mr. Marsden lectured here co-operation for equal rights and privileges by every legal, peaceful, and constitutional means. Neither,

Corbet-court, Gracechurch-street; official assignee, Mr Thomas Iredale Woodin, New-cut, Lambeth, victualler, October 1, at half-past two o'clock, November | confirming health.

John Hadfield, Manchester, and Bagguley, Cheshire, conded by Mr. James Boardman. After some de- set off. He had not been gone very long before the at the Commissioners' rooms, Manchester. Solicitors,

"Gentlemen,-I forward you a copy of a letter sent to me (as under), and which you can make rooms, Manchester. Solicitors, Messrs. Milne, Parry, what use of you think proper. Milne, and Morris, Temple. "I am, your obedient servant,

John Reed, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, sail-cloth-manufacturer, Oct. 15, Nov. 5, at one o'clock, at the Bankrupt Commission-room, Newcastle-upon-Tyne. Solicitor. Mr. Munns, Fenchurch-buildings.

Henry William Hobhouse, Johnson Phillott, and Charles Lowder, Bath, bankers, October 18, 29, at eleven | years, so that I have, at times, kept my bed for CARLISLE .- At a meeting of the Council of the o'clock, at the White Hart Inn, Bath. Solicitors, Messre

PARTNERSHIPS DISSOLVED.

H. Lee and Co., Sheffield, table-knife-manufacturers. Middleton, Newton, and Middleton, Sheffield, merchants; as far as regards W. Middleton. G. Wood and J. C. Wales, Manchester, warehousemen. Ibbot-CHELSEA .- Mr. Ridley lectured to the Chartists son and Curtis, Sheffield, joiners'-tool-makers. M. W.

From the Gazette of Tuesday, Sept. 28. BANKRUPTS.

James Little, banker, Manchester, Oct. 11, and Nov. 9, at eleven, at the Commissioners'-rooms, Manchester. Johnson, Son, and Weatherall, Temple, London; Hitchcock, Manchester. Benjamin Rushforth Broadbent, flannel-manufacturer, Rochdale, Lancashire, Oct. 11, and Nov. 9, at eleven, at the Commissioners'-rooms, Manchester. Willis, Bower, paid), addressed as above. and Willis, Tokenhouse-yard, Lothbury, London; Alsop, Manchester.

John Richan, Thomas Richan, and James Blake, braziers, Sunderland, Oct. 22, at one, and Nov. 9, at eleven, at the Thompson Arms Inn, Sunderland. James Parkinson, cotton-spinner, Moorgate Fold, To the memory of OLD PARR, written on the dis-Lancashire, Oct. 19, and Nov. 9, at one, at the Townhall. Preston. Ainsworth and Son, or Swift, Blackburn; or Bower and Back, Chancery-lane, London.

IMPORTANT.

TO Open the Eyes of the Deluded World, I ask L will any Medical Gentleman, from any quarter, contrast the honesty and success of his Practice, as Surgeon, Physician, and Accoucheur, with that of mine, during the last Twenty-eight Years ? Surely this is the right way to test merit, medicine, and men.

Thank Providence that all honest Lawyers and Doctors, and Clergy, are no longer my Persecutors, and their own enemies, but, like other honest men. as their grateful letters to me, to publish their Cures, amply testify-are acknowledging the necessity of Universal Suffrage in Medicine, as in Politics, in order to establish the Health of Mankind.

FIRST LETTER.

To Dr. Greer, of Glasgow.

DEAR SIR,-It is with peculiar pleasure that I add my testimony to that of many others in favour of your truly valuable medicines. I have used them I now do, of the Hygeian principles of Medicine, and Medical Practice, I have come to the resolution attended by the happiest results.

I am, Sir, Your obedient Servant, JAMES THOMPSON, Surgeon. Busby.

The next latter will be from an honest writer. CAUTION,-Since I conscientiously resigned, seven years ago, my lucrative situation, as Professor to the

Sir, am I ignorant of the impudent offer, that was British College of Health, London-(see Morison- advertising, the sale of the Pills is daily increasing; PERRY'S PURIFYING SPECIFIC PILLS, nate enough to obtain a perfect cure. The following BEYWOOD .- Mr. Charles Connor visited this made by the chief of the moral-force men of Ireland, iana, 1034)-when I, by the approbation of the late every person who has been benefited is anxious to Price 2s. 9d., 43. 6d., and 11s. per Box, are well are some of the many symptoms that distinguish

This day is published, price Twopence, "I remain, your obedient Servant, " For M. Moxon, JAMES BAYNE." Knowledge ; more especially the Sciences of Miner- outside of each wrapper.) alogy, Geology, Botany, and Entomology. By the late Rowland Detrosier. Third Edition. FROM MR. HOLLIER. CHEMIST. DUDLEY. To the Proprietors of Parr's Lite Pills.

"We most earnestly recommend this little book 10 every body."-Examiner. " Dudley, Sept. 14, 1841.

Important Work by the same Author. Now on Sale, price Threepence, Sixth Edition,

AN ADDRESS on the Necessity of an Extension of Moral and Political Instruction among the Working Classes. By the late Rowland Detrosier.

" Tipton, Staffordshire. With a memoir of the Author. "This is the best piece of composition on the "I, Joshua Ball, hereby testify, that I had been dreadfully afflicted with Rheumatic Gout for 17 months together, and could not get anything to do talent, and true patriotism; who raised himself me good, till I took ' Parr's Life Pills,' which I am from among working men to the admiration of the from among working men to the admiration of the have proved ineffectual. very happy to state have nearly restored me to pergood and intellectually great throughout the king-dom, and who devoted his life to the improvement of feet health. As witness my hand, this 11th day of "JOSHUA BALL."

his kind. No man can know his duty to himself and his children who has not read this powerful EXTRAORDINARY CASE OF CURE.-Testract."--Muidstone Gazette. timonial from Mr. John Jolliffe, Lancer Tavern, Old

Now Publishing in Weekly Numbers, at Threepence,

for the great benefit I have derived from your invaluable Medicine. I had for several years been VINDICATION OF THE RIGHTS OF WOMAN; by Mary Woolstoncraft. Revised and labouring under severe attacks of illness, from diffi-Re-Edited. culty of breathing, accompanied with excruciating

"If women are to be excluded, without having a pains in the chest; and, although I have been under the care of several eminent medical men, I could voice, from a participation of the natural rights obtain no relief. Your celebrated Pills have com- of mankind, prove first, to ward off the charge pletely restored me to health; and I beg you will of injustice and inconsistency, that they want reamake this acknowledgment public, for the benefit of son." "This high-minded woman has created an influence" others similarly afflicted. I shall be happy to answer inquiries, either made personally, or by letter (postwhich defies calculation ; she produced that impulse towards the education and independence of woman I am, Gentlemen, yours respectfully. "JOHN JOLLIFFE. Rexiew, April, 1841.

London : Cleave, Shoe-lane; Hobson, Northern Star Office, Leeds; Hoywood, Oldham Street, Manchester; and may be had, on order, of all the Agents for the Northern Star throughout the kingdom.

Just published, in Demy 8vo.,

BY MESSRS. PERRY & Co., CONSULTING SURGEONS.

44, Albion Street, Leeds, (Private Entrance in the Passage,) and 4, Great Charles Street,

Birmingham,

ILLUSTRATED BY EIGHT FINE ENGRAVINGS,

THE SILENT FRIEND,

PRACTICAL TREATISE on Venereal and A Syphilitic Diseases, in their mild and most alarming forms, showing the different stages of those deplorable and often fatal disorders, including observations on the baneful effects of Gonorrhea, infection may scarcely have been removed, when Gleets, and Strictures. The Work is embellished with Engravings, representing the deleterious influtheir insertion in the "Nottingham Review," and ence of Mercury on the external appearance of the skin, by eruptions on the head, face, and body; to which are added very extensive observations on "Gentlemen,—Since I undertook the agency of this popular Medicine, I can with truth aver, that it has, to my own knowledge, been a very great blessing to scores of persons in this town and neigh-blessing to score the score black and the persons in this town and neigh-blessing to score the score black and the persons in this town and neigh-blessing to score the score black and the persons in this town and neigh-blessing to score the score black and the persons in the score black and the person black and the persons in the score black and the persons in the score black and the person black and the persons in the score black and the per myself, given them to my family, and, of late, ad-ministered them to my patients; and, in every case, the result has been so very good, that, approving, as blessing to scores of persons in this town and neigh-the result has been so very good, that, approving, as bourhood. Indeed, so numerous are the testimonials without confinement or interruption from business, to the virtues of Parr's Pills in the cure of inveterate the whole accompanied by explanatory engravings, discase, that many persons who had been quite hope- with general instructions for the perfect restoration of using no other Medicines in my Practice than less of any relief, have obtained a permanent and of those who are incapacitated from entering into your's-being convinced that they will be always perfect cure. To particularise would be useless, the the holy state of Marriage, by the evil consequences cases are so numerous. One person was cared of a arising from early abuse, or syphilitic infection. bad leg of fifteen years' duration; another of Rheu- This invaluable Work will be secretly inclosed matism of ten years' standing; others of Asthma, with each box of Perry's Purifying Specific Pills, are the cases of Relief in Bilious and Liver Com-plaints, Sick Head-ache, Coughs, Colds, and Dis-eases of the Stomach and Digestive Organs, &c.

fering with domestic habits, is peculiarly desirable Sold in Bottles, price 11s. each, or the quantity of four in one Family Bottle for 33s. (including Messrs. Perry and Co's., wellknown Treatise on Secret Vice, &c.,) by which one 11s. Bottle is saved. (Observe AN ADDRESS on the Benefits of Goneral | the signature of R. & L. PERRY & CO., on the

> The Five Pound Cases, (the purchasing of which will be a saving of One Pound Twelve Shillings.) may be had as usual at 44, Albion-street, Leeds, and 4, Great Charles-street, Birmingham; and Patients n the Country who require a course of this admirable Medicine, should send Five Pounds by letter which will entitle them to the full benefit of such advantage.

Messrs. Perry and Co., Surgeons, may be consulted as usual at 44, Albion-street, Leeds, and 4, Great Charles-street, (four doors from Easy-row,) Birmingham. Only one personal visit is required from a subject to which it refers in the English language, country patient, to enable Messrs. Perry and Co. to written by a man of unconquerable zeal, surpassing | give such advice as will be the means of effecting a permanent and effectual cure, after all other means

> N. B. Country Druggists, Booksellers, Patent Medicine Venders, and every other Shopkeeper can be supplied with any quantity of Perry's Purifying Specific Pills, and Cordial Balm of Syriacum, with the usual allowance to the Trade, by most of the principal Wholesale Patent Medicine Houses in London.

MEDICAL ADVICE. MESSRS. WILKINSON AND CO. SURGEONS,

No. 13, Trafalgar-street, Leeds.

HAVING devoted their Studies exclusively for many years to the successful treatment of the Venereal Disease, in all its various forms ; also, to which other writers have developed."-Westminster the frightful consequences resulting from that destructive practice, "Self Abuse," may be Personally Consulted from Nine in the Morning till

Ten at Night, and on Sundays till Two.

Attendance every Thursday at No. 4, Georgestreet, Bradford, (from Ten till Five.)

In recent cases a perfect Cure is completed within a Week, or no Charge made for Medicine after that period, and Country Patients, by making only one personal visit, will receive such Advice and Medicines that will enable them to obtain a permanent and effectual Cure, when all other means have failed.

They hope that the successful, easy, and expeditions mode they have adopted, of eradicating every symptom of a certain disease, without any material alteration in diet, or hindrance of business, and yet preserving the constitution in full vigour, and free from injury. will establish their claims for support. As this Disease is one which is likely to be contracted whenever exposure takes place, it is not like many other visitors, once in life, but, on the contrary, one another may unfortunately be imbibed ; therefore, the practitioner requires real judgment in order to treat each particular case in such a manner as not merely to remove the present attack, but to preserve the constitution unimpaired, in case of a repetition discharges of a specific and of a simple or mild nature, which can only be made by one in daily practice, after due consideration of all circumstances. In the same manner at birth, appearances often take place in children, which call for a proper knowledge and acquaintance with the disease, in order to discriminate their real nature, and which may be the means of sowing domestic discord, unless managed by the Surgeon with propriety and skill. Patients labouring under this disease, cannot be too cautious into whose hands they commit themselves. The propriety of this remark is abundantly manifested, by the same party frequently passing the ordeal of several practitioners, before he is fortu-place on Friday last, the 24th instant, to deliver a of 500,000 fighting men, to put us down. At my land assist his neighbour.—En-lecture on Chartism; but the Corn Law League of dear Sir, I also know that we are at present in the very 10,000 converts to Hygeianism, (who had read my converts to Hygeianism) and effectual cure ever discovered for head, face, and body; ulcerated sore threats, the solution of the solu Messre. W. and Co.'s invariable rule is to give Card to each of their patients, as a guarantee for Cure, which they pledge themselves to perform, or they may obtain the Purifying Drops, price 4s. 6d, at any of the following Agents, with Printed Direc-tions, so plain that Patients of either Sex may Cure themselves, without even the knowledge of a bed-

Mortal of many years ! how blest the plan Thy mighty secret does reveal to man.

September, 1841.

Haymarket, Liverpool:-

"August 26, 1841."

human life.

"To the Proprietors of Parr's Life Pills.

"Gentlemen,-1 beg to tender my warmest thanks other newspapers.

"To the Proprietors of Parr's Life Pills.

"From these Facts, more than from any mode of assured confidence of success.

And sickly sorrow change to joyous day; Despair to banish from the dying man A God-like gift! O do not lightly scan A boon so great, nor wisdom's purpose mar:

Disease to conquer, anguish drive away,

God gave the power-his instrument was PARR. The above lines were written by a Lady near Nottingham, who had been cured of a grievous malady by Parr's Life Pills; gratitude induced her to cause

From this auspicious hour shall evil cease, Mourning to joy shall turn,-discord to peace. Thy benign remedy to man gives power To lengthen out on earth his "little hour," covery of his last Will and Testament, in which is contained the method of preparing his infallible

SONNET.

Medicine, for conquering disease, and prolonging

O, venerable Parr, lo, trumpet fame Again calls forth thy long-forgotten name;

THE NORTHERN STAR

Boeury.

A GLEE FOR THE MILLIONS.

TINE-" Scots Wha hae." Britons now by Feargas stand. Spread his tidings o'er the land, Foremost of the patriot band, O'Connor, liberty!

Welcome, Feargus, to our shore, British hearts will thee adore ; British hearts can thee secure. For we shall be free !

Champion of the noble few. Ever straight and onward true, He will tyrants' power subdue, Death or victory !

For his country's rights he'll brave, Dangers dread, his kin to save ; From corruption's putrid grave. Who would from him fly.

Britons, onward at the call. Sound the trump of truth to all; By our strength we stand or fall, Who would turn away?

Rally round the Charter cause. Ye who tyrant's burden draws. Ye who value Briton's laws, Now for victory !

J. P.

TO FEARGUS O'CONNOR, ESQ.

Dear Feargus, these are awfu' times, When folk mun going wi' empty wymes, Or emigrate to distant climes In searc o' wark; Or desp'rate, rush to disnal crimes, In actions dark And yet there's plenty in the lan' To keep trae want baith beast an' man, If government would build their plan, Or equal righ s: God grant they would, for weel they can Ease a' our plights. Bat na ! ye starvin', workin' men, Ye need na' seek relieve frae them, But a' unite, and a' condemn Unequal laws;

Let a' our actions be the same In freedom's cause

Then let us trust in ane anither. An' put our shouthers a' the gither, An' soon oppression's tree will wither, An' tumble down; An' then we'll dance wi' son an' brither On slavery's crown

Dear Feargus, now that you are free, I hope you will at once agree To come to Aberdeen, an' see Your Chartist friends; Perhaps your health may better be 'Mong Northern scenes.

At ony rate, let nathing fear ye: Na Whig or Tory now can steer Je; As lang's your frien's are standin' near ye. Keep up your heart; And when you come, we'll gladly hear ye, As' tak' a part

Te're are been watchfu,' are, observant ; Exposin' men sae weel deservin' 't; Sae heaven preserve ye firm an' fervant, In freedom's fight; While I remain your humble servart,

James Jarvis examined -I reside at No. 30, Fen- most cool and premeditated. The unfortunate part of the Considerable discussion has arisen amongst the inha- saying that he was almost starving, and that he ceptar ce of office, nearly thirty members of the governchurch-street. I am a porter. I was in the parlour of case was that the murderer had effected his escape, bitants of the ward, and in the various places of public would receive with the greatest thankfulness even a ment had been returned without opposition, with the

the matter. I did not know Blakesley.

but I ran for Mr. Croft, the surgeon, of Gracechurch- that two bodies had been picked up off Greenwich, and police in cortain districts, that they will be speedily charity. On Friday he was at the Rose and Crown, Mr. MARK PHILLIPS rose to declare his belief that street, who attended immediately. The police had not : Mr. Burdon, brother of the deceased, immediately pro- augmented, and their beats curtailed.

him as fast as I could in the direction of Gracechurch- man, states, in addition to the evidence given before as he was about to take temporary repose from his to the place whence the sounds proceeded, he disco-to the place whence the sounds proceeded the the the property of the was wanted at the property of the street, when I was joined by another young man; and the Coroner, that her husband and Biakesley were on moure, a party cance to say that ne was wanted at wered Biakesley, who stated that he had no home-we kept him in sight as far as Ciencent's-lane, when the most friendly terms, until he was apprised of his. Mr. Burdon's. Thinking that it was not a matter of that he was in great distress, and that he did not was wasting away. from the absence of profit, country was wasting away. from the absence of profit, but in the courts in Gracechurch- conduct at Sevenoaks. Blakesley wrote to him for importance, he did not hurry himself, but in the course of know what to do. Upon this he was taken to the bast debts, and depreciation of fixed capital. He did not a street. I returned to the house in Eastcheap, and found money and cutlery for killing, &c., and it was his inten- a few minutes seven or eight persons arrived, annound the door. I then heard Mr. Burdon in the neard Mr. Burdon he discoursed how things more langth as were the discourse of his had the officers present if they had scent the Longth for young does not a street for the house in great distress, and cutlery for killing, &c., and it was his inten- a few minutes seven or eight persons arrived, annound the door. I then heard Mr. Burdon he discourse to the request; but happening to go his back inside the discourse of here discourse to the discourse of here discourse to the king's asked the officers present if they had scent the Longth to be discoursed how things more land to the back inside the discourse of the house to be added to the back inside the discourse of the back inside the discourse of the back inside the discourse of the discourse of the discourse of the back inside the discourse of the back inside the discourse of the discourse of the back inside the di George Hallows examined—1 and a half-oresser, and and decined, as ne deleved it would do no good. This out, and the max head, and the max head, and the max head, as a construction of beyond the power of human skill. Four or five medical "I am the man that committed the murder." Some Sir John Easthope, after stating a particular on Tuesday morning a man came into my shop, who, them to come to Londen, and offered to support Mrs. gentlemen were busily employed in examing the would the store blakesley had been taken into custody, instance of the general depreciation of capital which had took place, I have no doubt was the mur- Blakesley until he got into something. He told Blakes- of Mr. Burdon, and, what was most astonishing, no-I to see him. He came to be shaved, and entered into could not allow him to sleep in the house. Blakesley wife of the murderer, who scemed to be unconscious of cooled immediately to the station-house, where Brisconversation about his wife. He said he was going to reluctantly agreed, and her sister returned, and they inflicted upon herself, until Mr. tow at once recognised Blakesley, he having known said that he considered that the Savings Banks' returns get out a warrant scainst Burdon, the landlord of the were very comfortable until within three or four days English discovered it. Her whole faculties seemed to him for a number of years. Immediately on his were produced by Sir Robert Peel as a proof that the King's Head, and asked me if I knew him, and on my before the murder, when words took place between be absorbed in endeavours to provide for the safety of seeing Bristow, Blakesley inquired how his wife existing distress would pass over, and that, in fact, disreplying in the affirmative, he said Mr. Bardon had got them respecting Mrs. Blakesley going to live with him. her brother-in-law. She assisted in untying his cravat, was, and upon being told that she was better, he tress did not prevail at the present moment. This was bis wife there, and likewise some property which be- That was the sole cause of their quarrel, and Blakes- and gave orders as to the best way, in her opinion, thanked God, and said that he felt much easier since probably the last-opportunity which they would have longed to him, and which had been fetched from Seven- ley became so insolent that Mr. Burdon forbade him his that he ought to be treated. Mr. English then dis-he had acknowledged the murder. Inspector Hod-before the prorogation of Parliament to discuss this be had been to the Kisg's Head that morning to de- the door, before he entered, some time, watching that the table should be about the table should be accurate that about the table should be accurate that about the table should be accurate table should be table should be accur mand his wife; that he received the advice, I think, of the place was clear, as she observed the door open and stantly directed that she should be conveyed to Halbin, of the Hertfordshire police, who refused to his surprise that this discussion should be reopened after had a right to demand his wife He said when he det the bar, she was convinced he intended some mischief. for a time any further hemorrhage. She was placed the Force. manded his wife, Mr. Burdon ordered him out of the His looks were fierce and determined, and he appeared upon a bed, and her clothes having been cut off, it was The pris manded his wife, Mr. Burdon ordered him out of the His looks were fierce and determined, and he appeared upon a bed, and her clothes having been cut off, it was The prisoner was taken on Monday in custody house, saying, if he did not go, he would turn him out so wild. She states that the description of his dress found that she had an incised wound penetrating the of the Hertfordshire police, and conducted before Hertfordshire police, and conducted before He then said, "If I had had a gun in my hand at the and person which has already gone forth is somewhat peritoneum, but not into the abdomen, on the right the Lord Mayor.

time, I would have shot him," adding, "But I'll serve; incorrict. She stated that at the time of the murder he side, through the thin portion of the stays which cohim out yet, I will de for him, and get a search warrant possessed no other clothes than those he wore, except- vered the hip, and opposite to the nether region of the for my property." He then took a letter from his ing a buff waistcoat. They consisted of a dark invisible liver. Being perfectly insensible, restoratives were adpocket, which he said he had received from his wife on green Newmarket coat, with black buttons, light ministered to reproduce pulsation, and when they had Monday, and read it to me, appointing to meet him at drab trowsers with open buttons, and three buttons at taken effect the wound was dressed. She continued the same place that night as she had done on Sunday the bottom on each side, a black eatin walstcoat and afterwards in a comparative state of delirium, and Mr. night. I asked him at what place that was, and he orange sprigs, a light blue handkerchief, Wellington English remained watching her progress during the said at the end of Eastcheap. He said Mr. Burdon dis- boots, and silk hat. He has a quick gait in walking, whole of the night. At intervals she broke out into i liked him because he was unfortunate in business at and generally keeps his eyes fixed towards the ground. Incoherent expressions, mentioning her brother-in-law's iked him because he was uniorunate in business at and generally keeps his eyes had down and generally keeps his eyes had in ground. Incoherent expressions, incidential and so in ground was a prime cause of the species of the contraction ingly pale and depicted great wretchedness; when distress, the latter stating that though the contraction ingly pale and depicted great wretchedness; when distress, the latter stating that though the contraction is provided in business at an expression of the currency produced distress, the cause of the contraction is provided in the species of the currency produced distress, the cause of that con-Sevenceks, and he told the booking-office-keeper to ink. would survive the injuries inflicted by the wound, but

Serenceks, and he told the booking-onice-keeper to ink. give them up to no one but himself, but Mr. Buy. Mr. D. W. Harvey, the city police commissioner, on he continued, on account of the unusual circumstances tween eleven and twelve o'clock on Saturday night, Mr. AGLIONBY added his testimony, from local give them up to no one but himself, but bir. Bur. Mr. D. W. Harvey, the chy points commissioner, on the case, to watch her without intermission until tween eleven and tweive o'clock on Saturaby night; Mr. AGLIONBY added his testimon don had been down to Sevenoaks and got them away. Friday waited upon Sir James Graham, Secretary of of the case, to watch her without intermission until the 23th instant, I was on duty in the market place, observation, to the extent and severity of Coroner-Did he appear at all excited whilst telling State for the Home Department, recommending that a yesterday evening, when, seeing that she had slept

James Jarris examined -1 reside at No. 30, Fen-chards treet. I am a porter. I was porter. I was porter. I was porter. I was porter of the server of the partor is the King's Head on Taesday night has. The partor is a little bornd the further extremity of the bar, at the the commission of the server of the King's Head on Taesday night has. The partor is a little bornd the further extremity of the bar, at the moment of these the bores to run after him back part of the premises. Shotly after ten veloce, I, a wall as some other persons who were thene, whene were intense armed by hearing some load shrids, apparently pro-ceeding from the bar, and likewise stranging. I are than ad aw Mr. Burkon in the set of falling. I pre-traited this had hitting. I pre-traited this had hitting the crowned so that door. I away if the same, Rolder and abcoming a moment a terter the crowned of pusice. The there will a mander, and abcoming the same to falling. I pre-traited this had hitting the crowned so that a falling. The decased calciumed this the same, Rolder and abcoming the same to falling. I pre-traited this had hitting the crowned so that a falling. The decased calciumed this the same, Rolder and abcoming the same to falling. I pre-traited this had hitting the crowned so that a fallow of justice. The the raite of the appreciation to provide attribute the same to the same, Rolder and abcoming the same to falling. I pre-traited this hards of justice. The same, Rolder and abcoming the same to falling. I pre-traited this hards of justice. The same, Rolder and abcoming the same the part of the same part of the s which many of the constables had to go over, and the drover that was there to purchase the razor-strop, jocularly, the increase was a proof of the confidence of want of a sufficient number during the sittings of the offering it for a penny. It appeared he did not give the country in the change of administration. The inthe matter. I did not know Blakesley. Daniel O'Connell examined—I am foreman to Mr. Nicholis, tea-dealer, of No. 8, Fenchurch-street. I heard the screaming on the night of Tuesday last in the Ever since the issuing of the Coroner's warrant for heard the screaming on the night of Tdesday has in the screaming on the night of Tdesday has in the screaming on the night of Tdesday has in the screaming on the night of Tdesday has in the screaming on the night of Tdesday has in the screaming on the night of Tdesday has in the screaming on the night of Tdesday has in the screaming on the night of Tdesday has in the screaming of the Coroner's warrant for one and that he has since given it as his opinion a London paper, but could not obtain the sight of increase. These returns entitled him to claim time for a deliberate, investigation of the condition of the opinion of the scream the occasional did, at first, as I thought it was only some family affir, and many howses, known to have been the occasional did, at first, as I thought it was only some family affir. and many howses, known to have been visited, but without consequence of the representations of the Jary, the fears is and the negative of the descassion. I was alcored upon the scream of the upper scream of the upper scream of the upper scream of the descassion of the upper scream of falling. I did not see any one going out of the door, success. On Friday morning information was received excited by the recent murder, and the paucity of the London side of Hitchin, where he also solicited for time.

street, who attended immediately. The police had not: Mr. Burdon, brother of the deceased, immediately pro-arrived on my return after I had been for the surgeon, ceeded there to view them, in order to identify Blakes-but they arrived in a minute or two after, and the place ley, should he be one of them; but he was not. Soon was cleared. and the magnanimity and extraordinary was cleared. at Hitchin, where he asked for a London paper, anless something was done to remeve the existing un-tress, and to open up channels for the industry of the and after wards to drop it suddenly on the floor. It outer, its peace and order were in danger. He im-after the commission of the murder, Inspector Brake after the commission of the murder, Inspector Brake after the commission of the murder, for the murder of the was in Hitchin all day on over without brigging. Betieven to rest to read with great to be allow the with to pass to consider were being on the subscription of the sister in law. John Haynes examined.—I was also in the parlour wrote to Mr. Bradley, high constable of Orford, near presence of mind of the Saturday, living upon charity. About two o'clock on over without bringing Parliament together to consider John Haynes examined.—I was also in the parlour wrote to Mr. Bradley, high constable of Orlord, hear product of the King's Head on the night of Tuesday last. I Sevenoaks, for whatever particulars be could give murderer, who was first stabbed, had not been laid. Sunday morning, a policeman belonging to the Hert-followed the witness Jarvis, and caught a glimpse of, I respecting Blakesley, and to request that if he was in before the public. Mr. English, of No. 22, Grace- fordehire constabulary force, as he was passing Mr. EwaRT throught it not unreasenable to give church-street the ordinary modical attendant of the dant of t believe, the murderer going out of the door. Seeing a the neighbourhood be might be secured. large knife on the floor, covered with blood, I pursued Mrs. El'23 Burdon, the widow of the murdered family, stated to the reporter, that on Tuesday night, floaning, and apparently in distress, and upon going vided that no uncertainty was allowed to exasperate the down to Sevenoaks, he discovered how things were, Head, and saw Mr. Burdon lying on his back inside the papers with the account of Mr. Burdon's murder in would do justice to his good feelings by bringing for-George Hallows examined-I am a hair-dresser, and and declined, as he believed it would do no good. This bar, and immediately perceived that he was dead, and them, and upon his being told that they had, he said, ward good measures.

derer, Robert Blakesley. I should know him again were ly he should be glad to see him at any time, but he body's attention had been directed to the unfortunate Hitchin, and from information they received pro-Mr. VILLIERS, after some preliminary observations, a police-constable named Bradshaw, who, when on shut several times be'ore he came in. The moment she her bed-room. In doing so, upon the stairs, she deliver him up until he had received orders to that the decision of a previous evening. But events were a ponce-constable hanned Braushaw, who, when on shirt several times be one he canno in the source of the decision of a previous evening. But events were deliver that morning in Leadenhall-market, told him he caught a sight of Blakesley's face, on secing him enter fainted, and the syncope prevented fortunately effect from Captain Robinson, the Superintendent of taking place in the country which justified the course they were pursuing.

Captain CARNEGIE deprecated the course which the opposition was pursuing, as tending to no practical result. He had great confidence in the talents and cha-

A great crowd of persons assembled around the racter of Sir R. Peel, and he hoped that he would be able Mansion-house ; and, besides the Lord Mayor, there to provide a semedy for the existing commercial distress. were also present, Aldermon Marshall, Gibbs, Car- But if ho failed, he (Capt. Carnegie) would still consider roll, Kelly, Humphery, and Pirie. Mr. Harvey, the it to be his duty to legislate for the greatest good of the Commissioner of Police, was likewise in attendance. greatest number, and would offer no factious opposition The prisoner betrayed such weakness on being to a ministry, of which even the members for Steckport placed at the bar, that he was allowed a seat, and

his countenance (which was only now and then seen Mr. THORNELY and Mr. BROTHERTON contended

the existin Hitonen, and I saw the prisoner, Robert Blakesley, distress, loitering about there. I had received instructions Captain FITZROY commented on some of the statefrom my Superintendent to be very particular in ments made of Mr. Cobden. He also contended that noticing-the arrival of any stranger. After watch the opposition was uselessly wasting the time of the ing him some time I went up and spoke to him. Ho House. told me he was almost mad, and that I might take him into custody. I asked him what for, and he replied, "I suppose you have heard of the circum-stance in London." I rejoined, "I suppose you are Sir Charles NAPLER pressed on Sir Bobert Peel the Sir Charles NAPLER pressed on Sir Robert Peel the the man who stabbed the landlord and your wife." propriety of having a naval officer on the Board of Ord-He answered, " Yes, the landlord and my wife, and nance; and considerable amusement was created by the I do not mean to say any more." I took him to discussion. the station-house, and he several times ejaculated. "Oh, I think I hear that shrick !-- it is her's--I The votes having passed the committee, the Speaker resumed the chair, and the report was ordered to be think I see her now." He was searched at the station-house, and the letters produced were found upon | received on Monday next. him.-(Letters from his wife and mother were The Poor Law Commission Bill was postponed to the handed in.) He had several trifling articles about same day.

David Wright.

Aberdeen, Sept. 18th, 1841.

STANZAS.

I.

A parson call'd on me the other day, And histed that I sto d in my own light, By being a reformer, which would lay My rising hopes low in the dust, and blight My prospects: and by writing for that ray Of with, the Northern Star, the poor man's might, I should be left without a friend till heary ; For help, he said, was only from the Tory.

II.

I've hitherto been tanght virtue's friends Are only of that stamp that's worth the keeping, Who, for a selfish purpose, vilely bends To swerve from truth in any track, is reaping The wages of iniquity, and vends His conscience for the paltry price of sleeping On downy beds, and in preferment's chamber Where meagre difficulty fails to clamber.

III.

If my sole road to notice should be this, To flatter vice and act the hypocrite, I'll gladly sing unheard, and thereby mizs The most opprobious chains that bind the wight. Africa's slaves in thought are fetterless, But this black slug would shut my eyes from light; Or if I saw some scenes of dire distress, Would have me wink at human wretchedness unnoticed.

IV.

There is more pleasure in the paths of truth Than in the zig-zag road of deviation; For who would be divested of all truth, For worthless empire of a short duration ? Even such a suitor is at least uncouth, Who seeks alone for vicious exultation : He'll swim at most but for a few short years, To sit beneath his abject doubts and fears.

13 rather muse unknown, and sing uppaid, Than court the vicious sycophantic lay; May virtue, thoughin simplest garb array'd, Be mine to sing, throughout life's shorten'd day; And may both truth and justice lend their aid To brighten up the poor's declining ray. So that the labouring class with joy may own Starvation and her manacles are flown.

V.

VI.

Freedom must dawn, for reason breaks the gloom, The long dark night of ignorance receives, And as the seeds of falsehood fail to blocm Within the hemisphere of truth, so speeds The fierd oppression to unwelcome doom, When mat by knowledge of all-conquering deeds, The poor man's sword and buckler is the light, Reason and truth will put his fees to flight.

JAMES VERNON.

Southmolton, Sept. 21st, 1541.

THE MURDER IN EASTCHEAP.

On Thursday evening, at six o'clock, Mr. Payne, the corner for the city of London, and a jury of twenty cilizens, resident in the ward of Billingsgate, assem-Mary-ri-Hill, to investigate the circumstances con. dressing-knife. nected with the death of Mr. James Burdon, the landto which appeared in the Stur of last week.

Mr. Harvey, the City Police Commissioner, Sir J. Dake, Mr. Alderman Wilson, and several other of the civic authorities, were present

lirs Eliza Burden, the widow of the murdered man, was first examined. She said-The sign of the house The age of the deceased, who was my bushand, was time had arrived, and he assisted me in endeavouring is in the murderer's own handwriting :-35. On Tuesday evening I was sitting in the bar, at to return the howels, but they could not bo returned, the corner nearest the window. My husband was they were so swollen. We did not probe the wound, Enting in a chair at the back last of the bar. He was but I have no doubt but it extended into the cavity of "DEAR SIR, -As you asked me to apply to you if with light coloured sprig, and drab kerseymere Sitting with a handkerchief over his face, asleep, with the abdomen. It had every appearance of having been you could do me a service, I am now about to solicit you trousers, tightly made, Wellington boots, and silk Che arm resting on the table. My sister, whose name inflicted with a knife with two edges such as that pro- ; to take a little trouble for me. I calculate that Word is neckerchief.

von this story ? enough to drive any one mad.

Edward Briscow, City Police-constable 569, examined such readily accoded to. -I knew the man Robert Biakesley. On the morning Mrs. Sarah Blakesley, the wife of the murderer, is under careful treatment, ultimately recover. His Eastcheap. We saw Mr. Burdon, and Blakesley said, "Oh God, I have been the cause of my brother's in the 25th year of her age.

away. I told him I knew the man well, and I felt very Bardon took place on Moncay. wife being kept at Mr. Burdon's house against her will. police :--- confer a further favour upon me, and only for one the direction of Inspector Lloyd, were last evening The depose month. I assure you it will be the making of me. If daced was purchased at my shop by a man answering in one month from the present time. In fact, it will the description of Blakesley, about five minutes past save me from something very unpleasant. Pray let me : the description of Biakestey, about five minutes past out on post if you can, or as much of it as you the inurdered man, were deposited in the churchyard

" Bradburne Cottage, Sevenoaks, Kent, " Aug. 9, 1841.

a common sort of knife, such as is used by butchers. I can spare. "In haste .-- Ever your's truly, showed him a drawer full. He chose the one produced, saying that it would do if it was sharpened at the back towards the point, as he wanted it to graft trees. He "James Vale, Esq. Tokenhouse-yard." wanted it to cut the bark up and down without being The request made in the above letter wasnot granted, relatives. A great crowd of persons followed the funeobliged to turn the knife. I showed him a shoe knife. and within a few days Blakesley's goods were seized, ral, but the police in attendance closed the gates of the which he objected to, but asked if it could not be and he returned to London, and for several days both churchyard against the public. sharpened, as he wanted it. I said yes, and went and

"R. BLAKESLEY.

Mr. Cornelias Smith examined-I am a surgeon, and Head, and Mrs. Blakesley then went to No. 22, York suburbs:lord of the King's Head, in Eastcheap, who was reside at No. 56, Gracechurch-street. I was called to Place, City Road, and requested the murderer's fither brutally murdered by a man named R bert Blakesley, see Mr. Burdon and his sister a few mirutes after ten | would allow him to come until he could obtain a situa- night of Tuesday, the 21st of September instant, on the night of Tuesday last, some particulars relative o'clock on Tuesday night I went to the King's Head tion, adding that she would be provided for by her James Burdon, landlord of the King's Head publicimmediately, and on my arrival I found a large number sister and brother-in-law in the meantime. Mr. Blakes- house, in Eastcheap, in the City of London, was wilof persons round the door. On entering I found the ley, sen, however, refused to receive his son, or even his fully and maliciously stabled so as to cause his deceased lying on the floor, near the bar, with the blood clothes, which the wife begged him to do to prevent his | instant death, and whereas a man named Robert through which the intestines were protruding. The 'father had with Mrs. Blakesley. wound was an incised one, and about an inch and . The following letter will shew that Blakesley, after and a hair inches in height, apparently about thirty in which I reside is the King's head, in Eastcheap. a half in length. Another medical gentleman by this jenving Sevenoaks, resided in Eastcheap. The original years of age, rather stout, dark hair, large dark whis-retried of 2100 should be offered for the apprehension soundly for about an hour, and symptoms of irritation Witness-No, he appeared quite cool at the time, but, of the nurderer, or for information that might lead to mentally and physically having subsided, he examined remarked that a man being refused his wife, was it and a reward of £20 to any waterman who might the wound, and judged from its appearance that it was End the body. This proposition, it is believed, was at going on favourably. Mr. English is now of opinion, that readily accided to. though he never thought so before, that she will, of Tuesday last, I met him in Gracechurch-street, and doing well. A favourable change took place on Thurs- opinion is founded not only on the appearance of the he told me his wife was detained from him against his day night, and strong hopes are now entertained of her wound, but from his knowledge of her excellent conand her will. He had met her on Sunday night, and he ultimate recovery. On Friday Mr. Burdon's brother, stitution. She was of a clear, healthy, and florid comwished to know if he could not demand her. I, at his visited her, and on asking "How she was?" the poor plexion, slightly inclined to obesity, but had never had solicitation, went with him to the King's Head, in creature, who is still in a very weak state, exclaimed any severe illness. Mr. English states that she is now

" 44, Eastcheap, London, Aug. 28, 1841.

"Now James, I have come to demand my wife." Mr. murder." After a short time she became calm, and A post mortem examination was on Saturday made on Burdon replied, " I think you had better go about your entered into an explanation of the horrorible scene of the body of Mr. Burdon, for even amongst the medical business." Mr. Burdon then walked into the parlour, Tuesday night, which entirely corresponded with that profession it was rather a phenomenon that the wound and Blakesley said, "Do you mean to let me have my given by her sister. She expressed a surprise that should have caused almost instantaneous death. Dissec-wife. If she is not here, you know where she is." I Blakesley should have made an attempt on her life, as told Mr. Burdon, Blakesley had asked me to come as a she was on the most affectionate terms with him, and the surgeons. It was found that the aorta was divided, witness, and he replied that he knew nothing about it. on their last parting on Sunday night he appeared quite preventing, of course, the circulation of the blood He and Blakesiey then went out, and Blakesley said, happy and cheerful. She said they never had the through the arteries and veins, and causing the flow of being separated from his wife made him very uncomfort- slightest quarrel, and she believed that he doated upon blood not to pass through the orifice, but to fall into the able. Blakesley then left him, and said he would meet her. They, however, differed upon the point of her cavity of the abdomen, and thereby produced in consehim at the Mansion House to get out a warrant ; but he leaving her brother's house, she wishing to stay till he quence sudden death. The knife having been pointed did not do so. I did not hear of the murder until got into employment. She frequently makes inquiry upwards by a blow from the left hand, passed through eleven o'clock on Tuesday night. I then gave a if he has been apprehended, and appears exceedingly the norta and interior portions of the body, until its description of Blakesley's person to Mr. Blake, the anxious, and at times excited. If her life be saved it egress was stopped by striking against the vertebras or inspector ; but he paid no attention to him, and ap- will be owing to the resistance presented to the knife back bone. A rough wound, such as would be caused peared much excited, he supposed, from the occurrence. by her stays, which caused it to glance off and pene- by definitive resistance to a sharp-edged instrument, He ordered me to go to the door, and clear the mob trate the abdomen horizontally. The funeral of Mr. was found on the back-bone of Mr. Burdon. On Saturday afternoon, the reporter ascertained from much surprised and hart that my information was and The unhappy father of the murderer has been known Mr. Inspector Brake, who holds the Coroner's warrant as a tradesman of great respectability in the city for for the apprehension of Blakesley, that a hat had been James Bradley examined-I am sergeant of the City nearly forty years; he was a Common Councilman, and found in the river which was supposed to belong to the police, and on the night of Tuesday last was at the his brother is now a representative of one of the wards. murderer. Itappears that at high tide on Saturday Station-house in Tower-street. About three minutes The family of Mr. Blakesley, sen., consisting of two sons morning a waterman named Weare found the hat off the after ten o'clock, a report came that Mr. Burdon, the and two daughters; one of the sons was drowned some floating bath near Blackfriar's Bridge. Having heard of landlord of the King's Head, had been stabbed. I ran time ago, and the other has by his crimes now obtained the nurder of Mr. Burdon, he at ence took it to the Induord of the King's Head, had been stabbed. I ran time ago, and the other has by his crimes now obtained to the King's Head instantly, and with difficulty a melancholy notoriety. Since the 29th of last April, obtained an entrance, in consequence of the great Blakesley, the murderer, has obsented himself from his crowd round the door, and in the bar front. On enter- paternal roof. He was brought up under his father's ing, I found the body of Mr. Bardon lying on the floor, eye, in his warehouse, and at the period stated Mr. snd the surgeon (Mr. Smith) leaning over him. A Blakesley, sen., gave him a sum of money for the pur-vayed to Inspector Brake. The latter Inspector waited female (Mrs. Blakesley) was being conveyed up stairs, pose of paying for a suit of clothes, and since then he upon Mr. Blakesley, sen., in Basinghall-street, and he his person. and I saw spots of blood on them. I picked up a large has acen nothing of him. The murderer married with- tried the hat on, and expressed his belief that it belonged knife out of the fire-place behind the bar. It was out the knowledge of his father, and immediately after. to his son. In the bat is the name of Christie, the they had been bound over by the Coroner to appear covered with blood up to the hilt, and it is the one I wards he and his wife went to Sevenoaks, where he maker, of Gracechurch-street, and the date when it was covered with brood up to the first, and it is the one 1 wards he and his whe went to bevenoaks, where he maker, of Grazechurch-street, and the date when it was now produce. I had been there but a few minutes proposed setting up as a batcher, but was numble to when Mr. Owen, the landlord of the Yorkshire Grey, carry his intentions out in-consequence of his credit get-at the corner of Bear-lane, came and said, "The per-ting into disregute. In order to celebrate his marriage the same into the conserved were purchased, son you want," (meaning Binkesley) " is now in my he was obliged to have recourse to Mr. ale, of Token-his backs. The bat is now in my he was obliged to have recourse to Mr. ale, of Token-his backs. The bat is now in my he was obliged to have recourse to Mr. ale, of Token-his backs. The bat is now in my he was obliged to have recourse to Mr. ale, of Token-his backs. The bat is now in my he was obliged to have recourse to Mr. ale, of Token-his backs. son you wan; (meaning Biakesiey) is now in my newas obliged to have recourse to hir. ale, or token- and two of the customer's hames were not entered in house." I ran down there as fast as I could, and house-yard, an acquaintance of his father's, who his books. The hat is a beaver one, and Mr. Blakesley, searched the place all about, but he had gone, and I then lent him the sum of increy he required. Since sen, told Inspector Brake that the murderer had a could not find him. I did not know Blakesley, but he then the following letter, in the handwriting of the positive aversion to silk hats. The Inspector next accosted me a little before four o'cleck on Tuesday murderer, was addressed to Mr. Vale, and has been went to the King's Head, Eastcheap, and showed the against you, and the depositions are now preparing, morning, in Leadenhad-market, and told me about his by that gentleman deposited in the hands of the hat to Mr. Burdon's widow and her mother, who, as well as the servant and potboy, declared their belief to anything to say, now is your time.

reside at No. 20, Aldgate High-street. The knife pro- you will oblige me, be assured you shall have it again body of Dichestreet. The knife pro- you will oblige me, be assured you shall have it again body of Dichestreet. closed. At four o'clock yesterday the remains of Mr. Burdon, of St. Mary-at-hill. The funeral procession (a walking one) consisted of about ten couples, and amongst the mourners were Mrs. Burdon, the widow, her mother, the deceased's brother and child, a little boy, and other himself and his wife found an asylum at Mr. Burdon's. The Hue and Cry of Saturday did not contain ground it at the back myself. I told him it would not the King's Head. The murdered man, seeing that the offer of any reward for Blakeley's apprehension, bed in the office-room of the Blue Anchor Tavern, St. stand hard work. It is what is called a butcher's Blakesley had no prospect of obtaining employment, in- but yesterday afternoon the following bills were timated to him that he could not remain at the King's generally circulated throughout the metropolis and

> "£100 REWARD .- MURDER .- Whereas, on the flowing from s wound in the left side of the abdomen, pawning them. This was the only interview that the Blakesley stands charged with the said murder, who is of the following description :- About five feet eight kers, da'k eyes, dark complexion, prominent nose, somewhat turned up, speaks quickly; dress-an invi-' sible green coat (Newmarke: cut), black silk waistcoat.

him, but no money. He said at the station-house,

"I did not mean to kill Mr. Burdon, but he got between us. 1 intended to kill my wife, and then myself."

William Rattan, City police-constable 542, who saw the prisoner in Leadenhall-market on the night lator told his assembled friends, in terms not to be provious to the murder, identified the prisoner as misunderstood, that upon the first occasion that being Robert Blakesley. His evidence was nearly might arise he should, without scruple, abandon the same as he gave before the Coroner at the inquest them and their interests, and try to regain the seat upon Mr. Burdon's body. The Lord Mayor then questioned the prisoner as follows :--Prisoner, what is your name ?

Answer-(with much firmness,) Robert Blakesley. What is your age ? Twenty-seven. What is your profession ? was brought up as a clerk in the counting-house of my father, who is in the cloth trade.

Where did you reside ? In Basinghall-street, Citv.

Had you any other residence No, my Lord. Edward Bristow, city police-constable, said I nave known the prisoner three or four weeks, and I know him to be the person who went by the name of Robert Blakesley. I am acquainted with

In answer to the Lord Mayor, the witnesses said at the Old Bailey.

The Lord Mayor asked if the prisoner was sufficiently recovered to stand up? Blakesley here rose, but was obliged to be supported by the two officers who stood in the dock with him.

The Lord Mayor-(addressing the prisoner)-You have heard the statement made by the officers and will shortly be read over to you. If you have

be that the hat is that worn by Blakesley on Tuesday [In prisoner-(nothing down in more all the be that the hat is that worn by Blakesley on Tuesday [In prisoner-(nothing down in more all the be that the hat is that worn by Blakesley on Tuesday [In prisoner-(nothing down in more all the be that the hat is that worn by Blakesley on Tuesday [In prisoner-(nothing down in more all the be that the bat is that worn by Blakesley on Tuesday [In prisoner-(nothing down in more all the be that the bat is that worn by Blakesley on Tuesday [In prisoner-(nothing down in more all the be that the bat is that worn by Blakesley on Tuesday [In prisoner-(nothing down in more all the bat is that worn by Blakesley on Tuesday [In prisoner-(nothing down in more all the bat is that worn by Blakesley on Tuesday [In prisoner-(nothing down in more all the bat is that worn by Blakesley on Tuesday [In prisoner-(nothing down in more all the bat is the bat is that worn by Blakesley on Tuesday [In prisoner-(nothing down in more all the bat is the bat of the Tower-street Station, and has a quantity of truth will come out. It is not as Mrs. Burdon

The depositions were then formally read over and signed, and in the interim the prisoner whispered to the officers next him-" I wish not to be loft alone." This being repeated to the Lord Mayor, he replied,

Very well, his wish shall be attended to." Dean-During the time he has been with us he has been supplied with books, and he wishes that indulgence to be extended towards him in Newgato. The Lord Mayor-Very well, he shall have pioper books.

The prisoner was afterwards removed to Newgate in the post chaise that brought him from Hitchen, followed by an immense crowd of persons.

Emperial Parliament.

HOUSE OF COMMONS, FRIDAY, SEPT. 24. After some routine business, the bill providing a retired annuity to the Vice Chancellor (a supplementary bill to the Bill for the Administration of Justice) drew forth some observations from Colonel Sibthorp, Mr. Ewart, and Mr. Wakley, who considered the amount security, the parties retired.

Sir JOHN EASTHOPE.

On the motion for going into a Committee of Supply, Coroner, at the Marquis Wellesley, High street, Mr. P. M. STEWART rose to call attention to a petition Shadwell, on the body of George Hows, aged 18, a which he had presented, on the 21st September last, bricklayer's labourer. Sarah Hows, of 110. New from the provest, magistraizs, and town-council of Gravel Lane, the sister of the deceased, said that she Paisley, on the present distressed condition of the ma- had not seen her brother for a month until last nufacturers of the county of Renfrew. Mr. Stewart | Saturday evening, when, on passing through Gravel

LORD HOWICK, A BAD BARGAIN .- The "liberal" electors of Sunderland appears to have got a pre-cious bargain in my Lord Howick. At a dinner got for his native county, from which he was lateley elecjed.-Newcastle Journal.

3

THE ALLEGED OUTRAGE ON LORD HOWICK .- Th ojourned examination into this mysterious affair took place in Sunderland, on Tuesday, before a full bench of magistrates. After somo further evidenc on the part of the prosecution had been heard, but which was merely correborative of what had been heard before, Mr. Wright, on the part of the defendant Liddle, contended-first, that the gun was not loaded with destructive materials; secondly, that no individual was singled out by the prisoner. as the statute required; and, thirdly, that prisoner had no intention to do grievous bodily harm to any one: therefore, that the charge could not be sustained. After some witnesses had been heard for the defence, Mr. Moore, in reply to Mr. Wright's defence, contended that the charge was made out. It was by no means clear that the gun had not been loaded with shot when presented by the prisoner, as between the outrage and the time of Liddle's arrest, sufficient time had elapsed to allow him to draw the charge; and it was in evidence that the ramrod, though too short to draw the paper, was sufficiently long to extract any substance that might have been over it. But even admitting, for the sake of argument, that no shot had been in the gun, the paper pellet over the powder was quite sufficient to inflict serious injury, if discharged at the short distance of a few yards, as spoken to by the witnesses. Further, it was clear, from the previous gathering of stones and the cleaning of the gup, that the attack was premeditated ; while the evidence of the first witness. Sedgwick, placed it beyond all deubt, that Lord Howick was the individual to whom a malicious injury was intended. The magistrates then retired. and, after an absence of three quarters of an hour, returned into court with a decision to the following effect :- That, having taken into anxious consideration all the circumstances of the case, they were unanimously of opinion that the charge of felony was not satisfactorily borne out by the evidence; while they were equally agreed that the prisoner had been proved guilty of a most abominable and outrageous assault, for which the Bench were somewhat disposed to send him to take his trial at the Quarter Sessions. However, taking into consideration the serious pecuniary loss the prisoner had sustained in consequence of his bad conduct, the magistrates thought the demands of justice would be answered by imposing on him a fine of £5, and calling on him to enter into recognizances, himself in £50, and two surgues in £25 each, that he should keep the peacfor twelve months. Mr. George Hudson and Mr. William Storey having joined Liddle in the requisite proposed to be too large. Sir ROBERT PEEL defended the amount, as also did On Friday week, an inquest, adjourned from the CORONER'S INQUEST .- DREADFUL DESTITUTION .previous day, was resumed before Mr. Baker, the read some statements respecting the appalling distress Lane, the deceased, who was sitting on the step of existing in Paisley and its neighbourhood, which one a door, jumped up as well as ho was able, and recog-

He did not appear at all excited whilst telling me so. I think it was scarcely five minutes after ten before I was in the King's Hend. I ran there the moment I "Dear Sir,-I shall feel greatly obliged if you will John Charles Davis examined.-I am a cutler, and month. I assure you it will be the making of me. If L'anged it into my husband's left side. He then made police man at the door clearing the mob out. a plunge at me, but I jumped on one side and avoided. hand. Blakesley then pisde towards the far to go out, Pratton, a city police constable, 542, where examined, a and my husband and sister went after him. My hus- and correborated the evidence of the former wit-band just reached the bar door when be fell. Blakes. nesses. as far as the street door and again looked back, and screamed, and my sister exclaimed, " Oh, it is my

there was a large pool of blood on the floor. My any negligence on their part. who were in the parlour to our assistance, and one of them ran after Biskesley, who was at the moment better be made to his office.

believe, and my sister pp stairs to her bed-room.

is Sirch Biakesley, was in the bar talking to me. She duced, and I have no doubt it was done with the in- still in possession of the cottages, and p-rhaps you will is the with the in- still in possession of the cottages, and p-rhaps you will is the wife of my hustand's murdarer. His name is strument before the jury. The blood on the blade shows : oblige me by seeing that he picks what plums, damsons, Refer Biakesley. About ten minutes after ten I was that it entered the body of the deceased to the hill. I; beans, and peas there are, and send them to be packed him to where ne was that it entered the body of the deceased to the hill. I; beans, and peas there are, and send them to be packed him to where ne was that it entered the body of the deceased to the hill. I; beans, and peas there are, and send them to be packed him to where ne was there are after ten I was that it entered the body of the deceased to the hill. I; beans, and peas there are, and send them to be packed him to where ne was there are and send the body of the deceased to the hill. I; beans, and peas there are and send the material to prevent the body of the deceased to the hill. I; beans, and peas there are and send them to be packed to some more consideration than being merely living, and gave him a cup of tea. She also offered offered to some more consideration than being merely living, and gave him a cup of tea. She also offered alarmed by Learing hurried steps on the outside of the have do doubt that the infliction of that wound was the in one of the baskets I left with him and if the grass bar, and on looking up I saw the man Blakesley. He cause of death. I have since made an external exami- will suit you there, please to let me know it, and you and rer round the bar, and making a spring at his wife, nation of the body, and it is my opinion that the blade. I will then settle about the price of it. I have written caught heid of her hards, exclaiming " My wife or her - of the weapon entered the main artery, and that the to Mr. Saunders by this post respecting the cotinges, to his apprehension and conviction, by application to

He then stabled her in the right side, and internal bleeding was the cause of Mr. Burdon's speedy Mrs. Blakesley joins with me in kind remembrances to Inspector Hodgson, at the chief Police office, Basingbefore I could get up he drew it away from her, and death. I think when I entered the house there was a yourself and Mrs. Harman.

received information that a man was stabbed.

Thomas Quinlan, a private watchman in Eastcheap, the blow. I think he thin had the knife in his left James Raid, a pot boy at the King's Head, and William ley locked brok as theigh he meant to it turn. He got A long discussion here ensued as to the conduct which had been pursued by the police.

then, I think, threw the knife down and ran away. I A Juror remarked that they said a largo sum for the protection of life and property, and yet at ten o'clock husband; he has committed murder !" She appeared_ at night, in the city of London, a most cold-blooded then to discover she was stabled, and I saw blood murder was committed, and the perpetrator permitted fowing iron her side. When I locked towards my to escape. He really thought it was the province of tristand, he was lying with his back on the floor, and the jury to ascertain if the man had escaped through evidence tended to show that in every respect it was so. No traces, however, of him could be found.

hall-street, or to Inspector Brake, at the Station-house, Tower-street, in the City of London."

Blakesley, she continues to improve.

CAPTURE OF THE MURDERER.

Inspector Hodson and policeman Edward Bris- danger.

tow, 569, who have been indefatigable since the murder of Mr. Burdon in their endeavours to capture financial statement of the Chancellor of the Exchequer getting worse, she applied on Monday morning to on Saturday afternoon, it was ascertained that the Blakesley, on Saturday afternoon last, having ob- was put off, if the whole result of his meditations was Mr. Sergeant, the relieving officer, for relief. Whilst police had not received any intelligence respecting the tained some cine to his retreat, started off for Hert- merely an addition to the taxation. Agricultural as- talking with that gentleman, information was retreat of Blakesky, and hence the belief gains ground fordshire, a person answering the description of sociations, instead of being confined to their legitimate brought that he had expired. By the Ceroner-The that he has committed self-destruction by drowning. Blakesley having been wandering about that neigh- | objects, were converted into political societies. On being called upon to name any society so per-

that the friends of Blakesley had reported that he had road by Inspector Hodgeon, and Bristow the policeshriks and there of my sister brought some persons The Coroner said the Commissioner of Police being committed suicide in order to facilitate his escape from man, it appeared that on Wednesday last, about Saxmundham, the other day, manifested its political man, one of the Greenwich magistrates, was by him present, he thought any splication on that point had justice, has added to their menial anguish. It is twelve o'clock, a person, supposed to be Blakesley, objects by various indications, such as that of the way sent to the Greenwich Workhouse. He was a very better be made to his office.

Ultimately Inspector Brake and other policemen en- groundless, Mr. Blakesley, sen., having from the first charity at several public-houses. On the following Mr. PARKER, as one of the representatives of an foing cat at the door, and the other for a dector. I Ultimately Inspector Brake and other policemen en-thick my lushand lived about four or five minutes tered into explanations as to the extent and position of winced great readiness to assist the police. On the following important manufacturing town, spoke the extent and position of the distance of an interview of an individual was important manufacturing town, spoke the extent and position of the distance of the representatives of an individual was important manufacturing town, spoke the distance of the distance of the same individual was important manufacturing town, spoke the distance of the distance of the same individual was important manufacturing town, spoke the distance of the dist Liter he fell, but he was quite insensible, and never their beats on the night in question, and there being no night of the tragical event a constable went to No. 22, seen at Bell-bar, about two miles from Pottor's-bar, his constituents in attributing much of the distress of by the cognomen of "Ginger," and had been

Lifer he fell, but he was quite insensible, and never their beats on the night in question, and there being no reparence of the country to restrictions on trade. Coroner.—Are you quite sure that your husband was still stilly and esleep when the blow was simed at the here form him very few observations, as there is information they made further inquires on the solution they must come set. The communicated to Mr. Blakesley, information they must come set. The communicated to Mr. Blakesley, information they must come set. The communicated to Mr. Blakesley, information they must come set. The communicated to Mr. Blakesley, information they must come set. The communicated to Mr. Blakesley, information they must come set. The communicated to Mr. Blakesley, information they must come set. The communicated to Mr. Blakesley, information they must come set. The communicated to Mr. Blakesley, information they must come set. The communicated to Mr. Blakesley, information they must come set. The communicated to Mr. Blakesley, information they must come set. The communicated to Mr. Blakesley, information they must come set. The communicated to Mr. Blakesley, information they must come set. The communicated to Mr. Blakesley, information they must come set. The communicate to Mr. Blakesley, information they must come set. The communicate to Mr. Blakesley, information they must come set. The communicate the set of the country. A general Shadwell, said that, in accorded with the the wight country is the document of the country. A general Shadwell, said that, in accorded with the the wight country is the document of the country. A general Shadwell, said that, in accorded with the the wight country. A general Shadwell, said that, in accorded with the the wight country is the document of the country. A general Shadwell, said that, in accorded with the the wight country is the document of the country. A general Shadwell, said that, in accorded with the set. Winess-I am not positive as to the wound being to, that a most wilful murder had been committed by the had here single meal. He was afterwards traced to Hatfield financial scheme. The country had, notwithstanding, "Natural death, accelerated by define to real Woodside, where he told a very distressing tale, decided against the late Ministry; and since his so- want of the common necessaries of like a

"For the better apprehending and bringing to of the writers said was a disgrace to a Christian cour- nised her. He appeared very ill, and was searcely punishment the above-hamed Robert Blakesley, the try. Mr. Stewart thought that the petition was en- able to stand. She assisted him to where he was offer £100 reward to any person, or persons, who may laid on the table. The silent system pursued by the him food, but he was unable to cat. He told her he apprehend, or cause to be apprehended, the above Government, with the single exception of Sir Robert had been sitting from six o'clock that morning on Robert Blakesley, or give such information as may lead Peel, was not likely to satisfy the country. The man London Bridge, and with the greatest difficulty had jority of the present Parliament was constituted by the erawled to where she found him. He had not slept representatives of the English counties, and it was, in a bed for a fortnight, nor tasted food from the therefore, a landlord's majority. After commenting on Thursday morning previous. The last two nights the speeches made by Sir James Graham and Lord Stan- he had slept in some stables belonging to Mr. In the opinion of the medical attendant of Mrs. the speeches made by Sir James Grantin and Lora Coat in a made Steps in asmich, for whom some time before ley to their respective constituents, Mr. Stewart coat Wheatley, at Greenwich, for whom some time before cluded by declaring that the prorogation of Parliament, he had worked. He had applied to the relieving without entering into the consideration of the distresses officer of the Greenwich Union for rolief, who refused of the people, was not only unwise, but fraught with to give him any, saying that "there was plenty of danger." Mr. MILNER GIBSON did not care how long the the whole of Saturday night and the Sunday, but

deceased was in so exhausted a state that he was unable to swallow, and took only a small quantity of barley water. Six years back he was in a similar Mr. GIBSON replied that the Agricultural meeting at | destitute state, and being taken before Colonel Forerelief. The relieving officer of the Greenwich Union said that the deceased was known to him

> H V.LS. NURTHERN

"Your greatly obliged, "R. BLAKESLEY. " Mr. Harman, Bradbourne Vale, Sevenoaks, Kent."

ADDITIONAL PARTICULARS.

"I non.

Upon inquiry at the station house, in Tower-street, His respectable parents are in a state of deep iffliction, bourhood since Wednesday last, in a distressed and

and the heartless statement that has been circulated, agitated state. From information received on the verted, Emperial Parliament.

HOUSE OF LORDS .- MONDAY, SEPT. 27.

Lord BROUGHAN called the attention of their Lordships to the state of prison discipline in this country; and, amongst other matters, observed that, in consequence of the short diet given to the prisoners, a peculiar disease called land scurvy prevailed in many parts of the country. The Duke of WELLINGTON said that the subject was one upon which Parliament ought to have every information, and promised that every facility should be given to the production of the returns moved for.

Tuesday, September 28.

The Administration of Justice Bill was brought up from the Commons, and read a first time. after which their Lordships adjourned.

HOUSE OF COMMONS,-MONDAY, SEPT. 27.

The House resolved itself into a committe of ways and means. and

The CHANCELLOR of the EXCHEQUER stated that these two items comprised the sum which the House was then called upon to supply, and this sum was as nearly as possible coincident with the sum which the late Chancellor of the Exchequer had estimated that it would be necessary to supply. The step which he had thought it right to adopt-namely, that of funding exchequer bills, had been quite successful. He did not wish to have recourse to new taxes to make up the deficiency, and he should therefore option should be given to the Government of adopting either of these expedients.

Mr. T. F. BARING contended that the proposition of the Right Hon. Gentleman was injudicious, and protested against the course he was pursuing, in adding to the funded debt of the nation.

The CHANCELLOR of the EXCHEQUER defended the ours." course he had pursued, and referred, as a precedent, to the course pursued, under nearly similar circumstances, by Lord Monteagle. Mr. WILLIAMS contended that the difficulties of the country could be met by a system of rigid economy, and moved, as an amendment, "That it was inexpedient to add to the funded debt of the country."

Dr. BowRING adverted to the want of economy in the collection of the revenue.

Colonel SIBTHORP said the Opposition side of such experiments. Mr. HAWES said it was only reasonable that Sir Robert Peel should state the principles upon which his Government was to be conducted.

upon the distress prevailing in the manufacturing districts.

Sir ROBERT PEEL said that Hon. Gentlemen opposite must not deem him disrespectful if he still adhered to his resolution of not entering upon the question of the Corn Laws. He admitted the existence of great distress, but it was most mischievous to deal in exaggerated descriptions.

Lord PALMERSTON said he would not object the particular proposition of the Chancellor of the to 41. Mr. S. CRAWFORD then moved his second in struction to the committee, the effect of which was to prevent the Commissioners from refusing outdoor relief.

The Honse then divided, and the motion of Mr.

Mr. WAKLEY supported the motion. Mr. DARBY opposed the motion, which gave too great a latitude and removed everything in the shape of a test.

The House again divided, and the motion was negatived by a majority of 146 to 32. The House then went into committee, the clauses were agreed to, the House resumed, and the report was ordered to be brought up the next day. Sir J. GRAHAM said he should move the third read ing of the bill on Friday.

THE " SIGHT."-One would think that starvation was an oddity in London, as the "Faculty" have engaged the Hanover-square Rooms, to exhibit their voluntarily starved or fasting man, Bernard Cavanak, for a sight of whom they charge one shilling per (fool's) head. Whether the disposers of such shillings could make a better use of them is not for he had no occasion to go into the details already us to state, it being rank presumption to dictate communicated to the House by the late Chancellor to the rich; suffice it to say, that many noodles who of the Exchequer, as it would be a needless repeti- go to see this ten days' starved man, pass by many tion. In the present session there had been voted who have not tasted what can be called food for ten £1,727,432, to which was to be added the interest years, or more. O miserable system ! but not so on exchequer bills, amounting to £740,000, and miserable either, for England is blest with a most "liberal" New Poor Law.

DANIEL O'CONNELL AND THE CHARTER .- A COTrespondent thus writes :- "I perceive, from the list of answers to correspondents, in last week's Star, that Patrick Ryan wishes to know what were the words of Mr. O'Connell, when he placed the original document of the People's Charter in Mr. Lovett's hands; Mr. Waddington (a most zealous London make up the deficiency, and he should therefore (Chartist) informs me that they were—'There, resort to temporary expedients. He proposed that Lovett, there's your Charter; take it, it is yours; either exchequer bills or the sale of stock should be you have a perfect right to it;' meaning, that the applied to this purpose ; and he proposed that the industrious classes, in general, had a right to it, and that he told them so through Mr. Lovett. This was at Mr. Lovett's house; and after he (the renegade) Dan) had signed his name to that important document. If Mr. O'Connell now thinks that we are 'wrong' in demanding that which he himself has acknowledged to be a 'right,' the fault is his, not

> Mr. L. T. CLANCY, founder, and late Secretary of the Dublin Repeal Charter Association, addressed an English assembly for the first time on Tuesday week, at Lambeth ; the subject of his discourse, or lecture, which occupied above three hours, was O'Connellism in Ireland; Ribbonism in Ireland, and Chartism in Ireland."

of the Dublin Repeal Association, lectured at the member of what ought to be the Commons House Scientific Institution, 55, Old Bailey, on Thursday of Parliament-as a Representative of the People week, for the benefit of Mrs. Peddie; "O'Connellism in the Convention of 1839-as an advocate of the the House was attempting to bully the Govern- week, for the benefit of Mrs. Peddie; "O'Connellism in the Convention of 1839-as an advocate of the ment, but they would find it too strong for any in Ireland, Ribbonism in Ireland, and Chartism in claims of the working classes on the platform, Ireland," was to have been the subject of his lec- or the assertor of their rights through the press. We ture, but not being able to commence till near nine have seen nothing to condemn; much, very much to o'clock, he could only deliver so much of it as admire. Your ever-to-be-remembered services in behalf referred to the renegade O'Connell, reserving the of the Dorchester Labourers, and Glasgow Cotton Mr. EWART and Mr. Scort followed, and dwelt other portions for the two following Thursdays. Spinners, entitle you to the lasting thanks of the trades

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1841.

THE glorious demonstrations in Lancaster. Liverpool, Manchester, Leeds, and Sheffield, leave us flinching conduct in the prison-house, to which those Exchequer, for it was the only resource, except literally no room for comment ; for, beside: occupy- miserable hypocrites and traitors, the defunct Whig that of voting fresh taxes, which was left him after ing our whole space, they present to the reader such faction consigned you; and have in our hearts rejoiced

THE NORTHERN STAR.

The Northern Star, framed and decorated, with the inscription-"The Chartists' safeguard."

Large green banner-Inscription-

"Doncaster Charter Association." Two beautiful tri-coloured flags. Large white flag, with the motto-

" Union." "England expects every man to do his duty." Green flag, decorated with white rosettes. Motto—" More pigs and less parsons." Large black banner— Inscription—" Tories behold, and tremble !

Manchester massacre-Poland-Rathcormac."

About twenty carriages, filled with ladies, were in the procession-while one mighty mass-one living tide of men, whose numbers 'tis impossible to calculate, followed the banners of freedom, ever and anon rending the air with their approving and joyous shouts.

Mr. O'Connor and the Council were the only parties who reached the Square in their carriages-the whole of the other carriages were shut out by the mighty mass of human beings who filled every nook and corner of the Square. So far as we could see, the number of people in the procession would have filled the Square nearly three times over-as such, many thousands neither saw, nor heard Mr. O'Connor in the Square. Silence being obtained-

The CHAIRMAN called on

Mr. HARNEY to present the address before adopted to Mr. O'Connor. Mr. HARNEY then read the following address :--

TO FEARGUS O'CONNOR, ESQ.

The Address of the Sheffield Artizans, and others, in Public Meeting assembled, Sept. 29th, 1841.

PATRIOTIC SIR,- Upon the occasion of this your public entry into the town of Sheffield, after sixteen months' incarceration in the dungeon of despotism, we deem it our duty to briefly address you, expressing our approbation of your past career, and our esteem of your public conduct; at the same time giving you to understand what we require of you in the future fer our continued and hearty support. As Englishmen, free in heart and soul, though politically and socially held in the chains of thraldom, we scorn to play the part of sycophants. The language of flatterers shall not be ours. But, in all sincerity, we award you our heartfelt approbation of your political career. From the first hour that the name of O'Connor became familiar to the public ear to the present CITY OF LONDON .- Mr. L. T. Clancy, late Secretary time, we have watched closely your conduct; as a of this country, whose rights were invaded by the unjust punishment of their persecuted brethien; no: THE NORTHERN STAR. will the people of this country ever forget your un-paralleled exertions in humanity's cause, when night and day you laboured, and thank God, successfully too, to save from the bloody sentence of the law, the virtuous, unfortunate, betrayed John Frost and his compatriots.

Lastly, Sir, we have marked your unbending. unthe rejection of the measures of the late Govern- a mass of intellectual provision that to add to it that cruelty could not make you cower before despotism, and the rest of the democratic press, may the people ment.

near five hundred persons sat down to dinner. The PHILO-ARGUS .- We have not room this week.

The arrangements were altogether excellent, and reflect honour on the superintending committee.

About five o'clock the company sat down to table and were not slow in doing justice to the good things set before them. Each having partaken of the substantials, and the cloth removed, the Chairman gave orders for the admission of the public waiting outside. The doors were no sooner opened than a rush side. The doors were no sooner opened that a rush of was made from without, and simultaneously the boxes, pit, and gallery filled to overflowing, hundred being forced to remain outside, for whom there was no room within. The speakers now took up their places in front of the pit, Mr. O'Connor being THOMAS M. WHEELER has sent us a very interesting the sound of MR Stallerood's lecture at the Stallerood to the pit, Mr. O'Connor being the stall of the pit, Mr. O'Connor being the stallerood's lecture at the post. loudly applauded on coming forward.

power.

Mr. GILL responded to the sentiment.

Air-" Rule Britannia."

The CHAIRMAN then introduced Mr. Wm. Martin. of Brampton, who presented an address to Mr. O'Connor from the Chartists of Chesterfield and Brampton. We regret our limits will not permit us AN to give the address.

The CHAIRMAN next introduced Mrs. Clayton. Mrs. Holbery, Mrs. Foden, and Mrs. Ward-a de-putation from the Female Chartists of Sheffield, appointed to present a congratulatory address to Mr. O'Connor; Mrs. Ward read the address which was beautifully worded, setting forth the estecem and respect in which he was held by the four patriots whom they represented. [The ladies must pardon us not printing their address--our excuse will be found above.] The Chairman then gave ' Feargus O'Connor, Esq., the incorruptible and unchangeable advocate of universal liberty, may he live to see the rights of the people established, and the principles of freedom triumphant throughout the world. Mr. O'CONNOR, who was received with the most tremendous cheering, then replied in a speech of an hour and a half's duration, of which it is quite impossible to give even a word

Air-" See the Conquering hero comes." The CHAIRMAN next gave "The Charter, the only means of redress for the wrongs and grievances of the people-may it speedily become the law of the land."

Responded to by Mr. JULIAN HARNEY. Air -" Scots wha hae."

The CHAIRMAN next gave-"The Welsh Martyrs; may the united people restore to their fatherand the exiles in liberty's cause.'

Responded to by Mr. SAMUEL PARKES.

Air-" The exile of Erin."

The CHAIRMAN next gave-"Justice to Ireland by the Repeal of the Union, and independent Parlia-

Responded to by Mr. M'KETTRICK.

Air-"St. Patrick's Day." The CHAIRMAN next gave, "The sacred memories of Tyler, Wallace, Tell, Washington, Kosciusko, Mur, Emmett, Fitzgerald, and the patriots of all ages and all nations, who have struggled and died to MARY HOLBERRY return her sincere thanks to the establish the rights of man."

Responded to by Mr. Hollyoake. The CHAIRMAN next gave, "Bronterre O'Brien, and all who have suffered to achieve the people's deliverance; may they have their reward in the speedy triumph of the principles they have so nobly vindicated.3

Responded to by Mr. MARSH. Air-" A man's a man for a'that."

The CHAIRMAN next gave-"The Northern Star.

enlightened win their rights, and have the knowletters for Mr. O'Connor, addressed in the way he describes, and several of them marked "in haste." They have all been forwarded, but we do not know anything more of them.

JOSEPH BROOKE, HOBTON. - We have no room this week for his brother's letter. The tracts and some books shall be provided for him. WRIGHT SWIFT may get the American newspapers by arranging with his friends in America to pay for them, and send them to him through the omas M. whence has sent us a very interesting report of Mr. Stallwood's lecture at the Doves Inn, Berwick-street, Soho, which the crowded state of our columns compel us to omit. duct at which human nature has shuddered; but he never saw cruelty in the mills that could be con-trasted with that practised by one or two petty tyrants here. The fustian-cutting is the principle

A SUBALTERN, YORK .- We have no room.

SCRAPS FOR RADICALS shall appear. MR. SAMUEL JONES will be delegate from Huddersfield on Sunday next, the 3rd of October, at the West Riding Delegate Meeting, to be holden at as can be expected in their circumstances, but such Devisibury on the above day. ADDRESS and an invitation has been sent to has, on some occasions, had thirty children working Messrs. O'Brien and Benbow to visit Hudders- for him-children under the age at which the mills field. The Secretary, Mr. E. Clayton would feel take them-children whose parents are poor, and obliged to those gentlemen to state if they have compelled to get them work on some terms, and, received the above. Address E. Clayton, Sow-ing-row, West-parade, Huddersfield.

EDWARD BURSEY, Scoretary for the East and North this man has eighteen children working for him, all Riding districts of the county of York, will be glad to have the name and address of any Char-years of age; yet they have to rise early and work tist of Malton and Beverley, or any other town late, and towards the end of the week-as if rest on in the above Ridings, as he wishes to communi-the Sabbath was too much for these little ones-they cate with them on important business. Address are made to work all night : yes, the iron-hearted master makes them work all the Friday night : and 19, Bilton-street, Layorthorp, York.

H. D. GRIFFITHS.-We cannot see any good which if exhausted nature fall to sleep, the poor little ones could accrue from the insertion of his letter to are aroused by the fists of their masters. A few the "Restoration Committee." A. D. G--To whom ought a requisition requesting little hell. After some conversation with the neigh-

the use of a vestry room to be presented? To the Minister.-May lodgers sign such requisition? thirty years of age, attracted my attention. Her That depends on the purpose for which the vestry eyes were swollen, and of a dark purple colour. I room is wanted: if on rate-paying matters, the the requisitionists should be rate-payers; if not, any parishioner may sign.—Is there any pay-ment whatever required for the use of such hear the children cry. But it would require the vestry room ! No. P. H. E.-Mr. Hill's work on Grammar may be pro- pen of an Oastler to do justice to the subject ; for L. L. - Mr. Hut's work on Grammar may be pro-cured from any bookseller in Scotland who receives a London parcel. They are published in London by Cleave, 1, Shoe-lane, and by Simpkin and Marshall. The Rational School Grammar is at present out of print; but a new edition of it is preparing by Mr. Heywood, of Manchester, who will shortly have it ready.

IRISH ABSENTEEISM .- Next week.

W. H.- We have no room. ment, based upon the praciples of Universal Suf-frage." WM. Scorr has doubtless a good ground of action against the millowners by whose negligence, in against the mithowners of whose negligence, in not taking care of their machinery, the horrible accident happened to his daughter. We have no doubt that he would obtain damages, and to a good amount, if he can find the wherewithal to support an action.

> Brighton friends for their exertions on behalf of her husband. M. JOCELYN .- We have no room.

WM. HARDINGE.-Next week.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE NORTHERN STAR.

J. G. BROOKS .- This week our space is full; but we shall be glad to hear from him at a future opportunity.

C .-- We have not room.

more wise than the rest stated his opinion, that the working classes would never be benefited until their J. D. H. asks : First-Whether it is not the duty of the labour could be protected, but was kindly re-Postmaster to keep an account of all posted at his office? No. Second-Whether it is customary minded that they were not met to discuss politics. to do so? No.

LEEDS.-Weekly Contributions to the Unem

The vaunted Operative Anti-Corn Law Association

announced a general meeting of their body by placards, to be holden in the Lancasterian School

Room, on Thursday week, at which business of the cury with so much pomp), to find that the candles burning and members present amounted to the amazing number of thirty-there being just eighteen of the former and twelve of the latter. The Secretary apologised for the paucity of their numbers present; he could not tell the reason, but he assured his audience that there were 700 names on the book, and that they need not despair. Ano-ther complained of no weight in the agitation. One will not be compelled to surrender for that which is held out to them by most of the trades of the metropolis.

We remain, Sir, Your humble servant, In behalf of the Operative Stonemasons, THOMAS CARTER, Secretary.

London, September 27th. 1841.

Local and General Intelligence.

GRAVELHOLE .- (NEAB BOLTON.)-In no

trasted with that practised by one or two petty tyrants here. The fustian-cutting is the principle trade, and is in the hands of a few men, who all employ a number of persons, and have the work under their own inspection. Some of them are

Mr. C. Wood condemned the course pursued by the necessity of an alteration of the Corn Laws. The resolutions of the Chancellor of the Exchequer were then agreed to, Mr. Williams not point of form.

Sir J. GRAHAM moved that the House should re- to us from a great many localities. solve itself into a committee of the whole House npon the Poor Law Commission Bill.

Mr. YORKE moved that it should be an instruction to the committee to insert a clause to the effect "that the commissioners be not empowered to enforce indiscriminate separation between man and wife, and that in no case shall they sanction or permit separation when the application for relief shall be substantiated as arising from positive inability to obtain work, or from physical infirmity, and not from idleness, vice, or crime."

Sir J. GRAHAM said it was impossible to overestimate this subject ; but if he entered into the discussion of the Poor Law Amendment Act upon this motion, he could not refuse to do so upon others; and he should thus be carried into details contrary to the intention of the Government, which was anxious to have time to consider the subject with proper care and caution.

Mr. S. WORTLEY supported the course pursued by the Government; and, while he condemned the separation of man and wife to the extent to which it was carried, he still hoped the Hon. Member would withdraw his motion to a more favourable opportunity.

Mr. V. SMITH said that it would have been more manly for the Government to have at once declared for how long a time they meant to continue the Poor Law Commission.

Sir R. PEEL said it was intimated to him, in the early part of the session, by the Noble Lord the member for the city of London, that he intended to bring in a bill for the continuance of the Commission for one year, and he only now brought forward that Bill. The Hon, Gentleman should have made himhad wasted upon this point.

up their hunting, shooting, and other recreations, to inquire into and adopt measures to ameliorate : the deplorable condition of the labouring classes of the people.

Mr. PARINGTON supported the course proposed to be pursued by Sir J. Graham.

Mr. C. BULLER supported the Government, in the course which it was, under the circumstances, bound honoured with a public dinner, &c. &c."

to adopt. Colonel Wood, of Brecon, said he never supposed that this law was to be applied to all parts of the kingdom indiscriminately. In his district they had built houses so as to allow old couples to live together, as they had been accustomed to do.

Mr. H. HINDE opposed the motion of the Hon. Member for York. Mr. GRIMSDITCH hoped the Hon. Member for York would not press his motion, though he believed the Poor Law Act was destructive of the social system.

Mr. WIGNEY said if the Hon. Member for York divided the House upon the question he would vote for him.

Lord SANDON could not support the motion of the Hon. Gentleman (Mr. Yorke), though he entertained very strong opinions upon the Poor Law Act.

Government.

generally extended,

possess them.

bring forward his amendments.

question of compensation to the Hon. Mr. Scarlett day, and that therefore we can't wait for the next foreman at the above works. mously carried. Mr. C. BULLER said that it was hard upon the The Chairman said they would now move down to pastor that he might please himself, but they would copying clerks of the Exchequer, some of whom the Station, there to meet their friend and champion. join their Chartist brethren ; and if he would not, have been thirty years in their occupation, that no Immediately the vast mass assembled-proceeded he might look for a congregation elsewhere. -in the early part of the week-all would stand and very naturally feels a wish to see her interred. (Cheers.) At Manchester they had had six hundred thousand in procession. He had marched compensation whatever was to be given to them. with all haste to the Railway, any thing like order a fair and a good chance; and if they would also he informed Allen of his desire to go to Manchester After some further discussion, the Bill was read | was out of the question-so intense was the desire of remember that we have only one weekly paper for for that purpose, stating that he would be back in a side of. all England. Scotland, Ireland, and Wales, and week or fortnight, when the black monster turned the third time and passed. the thousands who, from the Square, and every street at the head of the trades, marshalled under Upon the motion for going into Committee upon leading to the Station, now poured down to the place their respective banners. It was said that the Poor Law Commission Continuance Bill, where they expected to behold O'Connor once more. He would be assassinated if he went to Manchester; the Poor Law Commission Continuance Bill, Mr. S. CRAWFORD moved as an instruction to the Their patience was, however, put to the test, having well, he went ; and he did receive a letter telling Committee, that it should not be lawful for the to wait till near half-past three o'clock, when a beauhim that his countrymen would assassinate him. Commissioners to declare any new Union after the tiful Union Jack, waving within the gates of the though even six thousand of them should perish in ground for them. Our anxious desire is to make specimen of his conduct, one of the men had his leg lord. effecting his destruction ; he heeded not this ; he passing of this Bill until the question of the Poor Station, borne by the sturdy veteran, Duffy, who had the Star a truly national organ, equally represent- broke by a fall from the scaffold, and on his return Laws should be brought before Parliament in the accompanied Mr. O'Connor from Loeds, announced attended the meeting, and the men who chiefly ing all; but we cannot do this unless the country to his work, expecting, of course, that as he had the arrival of the people's leader. To adequately describe the enthusiasm with which Mr. O'Connor crowded round the hustings were those whom he course of next session. was told would assassinate him; but did they Mr. W. BUSFEILD FERBAND seconded the proof communication. attempt to injure him ? No ; on the contrary, they was hailed, is a task we are not fitted to perform. position. The above remarks apply, of course, to news, facts, Allen immediately discharged him, in the was immediately taken into custody. had expressed their satisfaction at his conduct, and Sir J. GRAHAM said the measure before the House Enough, that again, and again, and yet again, the meetings of the people, Chartist intelligence, &c. | most insulting manner, and told him he did not want was one, which pledged no one, as he reserved not mighty multitude made the very sky to ring again expressed their readiness to join the English people Original papers, letters to the Editor, personal such d-d hobbling fellows as him there; again, in their struggle for their liberties. (Cheering.) only the details, but even the principle of the Poor | with their thundering cheers. correspondence, poetry, &c., must be here at the there was one of the men who had got leave from At Leeds they had yesterday a glorious exhibition of Law, until the next session of Parliament. beginning of the week, or we shall not hold our- the under foreman to attend the death-bed of his their numbers and their strength; and to-day, he The following is the order of procession :-Mr. M. PHILIPS supported the course pursued by (wife, and on his return, Allen asked him where the selves bound even to notice them. Splendid green silk banner of the Sheffield Chartists. | was proud and happy to see that Sheffield was more the Government. d-lin h-l he had been ? The man replied that determined than ever in the good old cause. Mr. his wife was dead, and he should want to go to bury Mr. WARLEY said it was now avowed that the Motto :- " The National Charter Association"-O'Connor concluded an eloquent address by warn-ing his hearers to have nothing to do with secret societies; no threats of physical force were now principles of the Poor Law were to be maintained "Justice to all-privilege to none." land Fold, Marsh-lane. by the present Government, so that Whigs and The Reverse-" The greatest happiness of the great-Tories might be considered as pledged to its supalso been quite customary for this monster to order number for the greatest length of time. Members of the Council of the National Charter needed, they were too proudly strong in their moral move" party. might. (Loud and continued cheering.) Three CHESTER. - We are sorry the crowded state of our Mr. WARD defended the Poor Law, and expressed Association in an open carriage. hearty cheers were given for Frost, Williams, and Jones; three for the Charter and no surrender; and great pleasure at the manly course adopted by Sir J. The Union Band. columns compel us to reserve their communica-Graham, in avowing his adherence to the principles Feargus O'Connor, Esq., in an open carriage drawn tion for next week. of that measure, whatever amelioration might be by four grey horses. Mr. S. WORRLEY and Mr. YORKE supported the Motto:-"Feargus O'Connor, Esq., and the Barns-Roval. Reverse:--" Universal Suffrage, Vote by Ballot, Equal Representation, No Property Qualifica-tion, and Payment of Members." instruction to the committee, and argued in favour of the necessity of out-door relief. fifty-five. CARLISLE. - The memorial next week. Colume SIBTHORP supported the motion, and said As before stated, four hundred tickets were sold he was slways opposed to the whole system of the by Monday afternoon ; but a large number of per-Poor Law as unconstitutional and degrading to the Green flag-Inscription :sons were accommodated in addition to the above "Worsbro' Common, Barnsley District." support of their Society; and, consequently, they dent income. people. number ; and, as near as we could judge, something . i.

would be presumptuous. We need offer no other We sympathise with you on your late incarceration, the Government, and dwelt at some length upon apology for the entire absence of what is called and do most heartily congratulate you upon your re-"Leader" in the Star of the present week-nor for the omission of much, and the condensing into being able to put his amendment owing to some the smallest possible compass of much more of It is not because you belong to the aristocratic portion valuable Chartist and local intelligence, forwarded of the state; it is not because you have moved, or may

GLORIOUS DEMONSTRATION

AT SHEFFIELD.

For some time past, the Committee appointed to superintend the getting up of the Demonstration in nonour of the Chief of the People's Choice, Feargas O'Connor, Esq., had been unremitting in the duties assigned them. The Theatre Royal was engaged. Four hundred tickets were printed, 260 men's and 150 women's. By the 27th, these were all sold, and so great was the demand then, when there was no onger a supply, that it was now seen, when too late, had there been six or seven hundred tickets printed, instead of four hundred, no doubt all would have been sold. But it was now too late to make further arrangements, consequently, immense numbers who had postponed applying for tickets, until the Monday away-and our country's greatness established upon the evening and Tuesday, could not have their application granted, and as may be supposed, were bitterly disappointed. Large green placards, posted through-copy :--

" TO THE MASTER CUTLER.

" SIR,-We, the undersigned inhabitant householders of the borough of Sheffield, do hereby request you to convene a public meeting, to be held on Wednesday, September 29th, to consider the propriety of presenting a congratulatory address to

[Here followed the names of the requisitionists.]

past seven the rain came pouring down, considerably damping our hopes. About eight o'clock it ceased, and again the friendly breeze speedily dried the soaking streets. From this hour the day began to wear a better aspect ; and after twelve o'clock the sky looked gloriously fine, and all dark forebodings vanished.

Mr. Otley was unanimously elected Chairman.

by the Conncil.

presented to Mr. O'Connor, and in a few words proposed its adoption.

uniting of all sections of the Chartist body. The Christian Chartist Churchmen had notified to their WANT IT, or there would be no Star on Satur- | world to deny,) relative to the conduct of ALLEN, ledge to maintain them." lease from the felon's cell, in which the tyrants of our country had immured you.

And now, Sir, permit us to state why we honour you. move, in a different sphere of society to us, who belong mainly to the toiling masses ; nor is it because of your talents, which we are bound to admire. No; we honour you because we found you the honest and incorruptible. We are no " man-worshippers," and had you, Sir, like unto others in whom we once confided, stept aside from the straight-forward path of political rectitude, like them you would have been rejected by the people, and the men of Sheffield would have been among the first to pronounce your condemnation. Our confidence and support you shall have so long as an honest man and sterling patriot you are faithful to your trust, and no longer. But, Sir, faithful in the past, you have our undiminished confidence for the future. Go on, then, patriotic Sir, go on in the noble course you have hitherto pursued. Fear not the plots of your enemies, nor the calumnies of false friends; the people will support you; and we, the Artizans of Sheffield, pledge you our untiring help and aid until the Charter shall be law-every despotic institution annihilated-every unjust law swept equal rights and happiness of all. Mr. O'CONNOR replied. He thanked them from out the town, on Tuesday morning, announced the his heart and soul. He thanked them for the ele-arrangements for the day following. We subjoin a gantly expressed address just read, and presented to him by his friend, Mr. Harney. It was not the first time he had stood upon this hustings-he had stood there when there was danger to brave-when every minion of tyranny was on the watch to entrap him. (Cheers.) He stood there again, aye, after sixteen months' incarceration in a felon's cell-he stood amongst them to hurl defiance to the oppressors, and Feargus O'Connor, Esq., on his arrival in Sheffield. to tell them that vain had been their efforts to subdue his spirit by persecution. (Loud cheers.) Thank God, he could now congratulate them on "The Master Cutler having declined to call a, the proud position of their cause. One of the vile self acquainted with the opinions of his leader before meeting for the above purpose, we, the requisition- factions had fallen, the miserable truckling Whigs he threw away so mach excellent indignation as he ists, hereby call one, to be holden in Paradise Square, were no more. (Cheers.) They had now the Tories on Wednesday, September 29th, at two o'clock in in front; and, by God's blessing, as they had beat Mr. S. JERVIS said there was time, if they gave the afternoon precisely. After which, the members the Whigs, so would they beat and put down the and friends of the National Charter Association will; Tories. (Loud cheers.) Since he last met them, they proceed to the Railway Station with carriages, had had a general election; well, now they had a banners, and music, to meet Mr. O'Connor, who House of Tories and Sir Robert Peel, that great will arrive at Sheffield by the quarter to three o'clock State quack; your disorder is so chronic, you have train, and will then return to Paradise Square, laboured under it so long, you can bear it a little where he will address the assembly; and then in the longer, and can afford to do without medicine for same order proceed to the Theatre, where he will be the next six months. (Laughter.) Now, he would ; caution them against been misled by parties who At length the day-the long wished for day arrived. would bid for their strength, not to free the people. The previous evening the rain had descended in tor- but for their own selfish ends. Remember what rents, and caused no little unpleasant feeling in the were the promise, and what have been the perforbreasts of our fair friends, fearing, as they did, that mances of the Whigs. (Lond cries of hear, hear.) similar weather might be their ill fortune on the maded with a giving my country coercion and morrow. On rising, about half-past five o'clock, we ended with giving yours starvation; and yet now found that a stiff breeze had dried the streets won-derfully in the course of the night, and although the loude the streets wonclouds overhead looked anything but propitious, we vernment ; well, what do they propose to give us in had faith that all would be well ; but about half- return for our support ! O ! just nothing ; you are to "open your mouth, and shut your eyes, and see what God will send you !"-(laughter,)-but never should the Whigs deceive them more ; he had saved them from the wolves before, and he would save them from the prowling wretches again. (Cheers.) If the Whigs admire our principles, as some of them say they do, let them join us; to them we will not At two o'clock precisely, the Council and members ; go, so to us they must come. If the mountain will mountain. (Cheers.) The shopkeepers were beginning to find out that an empty till on Saturday night, made an ugly wife on Sunday morning; they were beginning to find out that if the working classes were miserable, they could not be comfortable; hence they were now joining us. Mr. O'Connor, after a few other remarks, then entered man wanted to get the Charter by fasting and praying, the fasting should be performed by his flock description, the cause for which has rested entirely knowledged that the generality of the masons on But glorious had been the demonstration in that with the parties themselves. Now if our friends that work were rational and thinking men. Mr. Harney then read the address intended to he will but bear in mind that we are filling up In order to give the public an opportunity to town: at the head of thousands, and tens of thou-Tuesday, September 28. sands of the hard-handed sons of toil he had entered the paper every day; that the same column judge for themselves, whether the men have any On the third reading of the Administration of not be much. the Bull Ring, renowned in the annals of their cause Mr. GILL seconded the motion. cannot be filled twice over; that we must give out reason to complain or not, we will give you a POCKET PICKING AT THE PARISH CHURCH .- It Justice Bill, The CHAIRMAN took the sense of the meeting, The effect of his visit to Birmingham had been the such matter as we have JUST WHEN THE MEN detailed account of facts (which we challenge the Mr. WARD again brought under discussion the when a forest of hands declared the address unani-

Responded to by Mr. Mr. Buxton. This closed the evening's proceedings. We may, in conclusion, mention that, in addition to parties from Doncaster, Barnsley, Rotherham, and Chesterfield, there were persons present from almost

Ryan, P.P., of Donabate. BILSTON friends have sent us a bala all the villages and towns within 30 miles of Sheffield: we conversed with a gentleman who had walked forty miles from the Tory town of Newark, much to our gratification. He assured us Chartism was making steady progress in his locality; and similar cheering information we received from all quarters. In Chesterfield, Doncaster, and Rotherham the cause is gloriously progressing. Wednesday was a day glorious for Sheffield-how must the miserable factions have quaked in their E. R. ŠMART.-Next week. hearts to witness the peaceful moral exhibition of BRIGHTON.-Mr. Wm. Morlin begs the people's struggle, to see them in their countless thousands throng the streets, and hear their lionvoices shouting the death-knell of tyranny. Ye have done well, men of Sheffield; see that ye resolutely JONATHAN WOOLER. - We have no r and wisely follow up your glorious display on Wednesday last, and the hour cannot be far distant when THE VICTIMS.—The donation of you will have the reward of your patriotic toils in seeing your hopes realised-Your Charter law.

To Beaders and Correspondents.

THE SECRETARY of the Irish Un We regret much that we cannot persuade our friends practically to observe the very clear and plain directions which we have so often given and repeated about the sending of matter for the Star. The extent of our circulation obliges us to go to press on Thursday afternoon; and, therefore, our friends seem to think that if their communications reach us by Thursday morning it is quite soon enough. This R. COXONY, DURHAM.-The Plates is a great mistake. They should remember that every word of the paper has to be put together by single letters, and the whole space filled before we can go to press, and it is impossible to do this in one forenoon. Our men are busily employed in THOSE AGENTS who have received filling up the paper with matter which, from one source or other, we must supply during the whole week, and it seldom happens that more than one or two columns, besides the necessary space for editorial comment, remain to be filled on Thursday morning. This shews the importance and necessity of all matters of news, occurrences of the movement, reports of meetings, &c., being sent to us at once, immediately they occur. Instead of which, it often happens, that on Monday and Tuesday we have scarcely any letters, and on Wednesday comparatively few till the night post arrives. The consequence is, that those letters which do arrive in the early part of the week are carefully attended to and given generally at length; while we are obliged to have recourse to the London papers, and various sources, for matter to fill the remaining portion of se many columns of the paper as must be set up before Wednesday night. Wednesday night and From Finsbury, London, per J. Wa Thursday morning's posts bring us a shoal of letters from all parts of the country; these come upon us just in the hurry of writing and attending to what are called the leading articles; while in the early part of the week we have more time to attend to correspondence. The consequence is that one half of these letters are passed over entirely; and the other half compressed into the smallest possible amount of space-and the next consequence is, that in the following week we have letters of

Mr. C. Wood supported the course adopted by of the Association moved from their rooms, accom. not come to Mahomet-Mahomet must come to the munications being treated with neglect. Some to prejudice the public mind against a body of men whose letters or reports may have been omitted for | who are at this time struggling for their rights, we panied by the various banner bearers, and an im-Mr. HARDy hoped that during the ensuing winter want of space, refer occasionally to the police therefore take the opportunity of soliciting a favour, silk handkerchief, the property of Adam Halliday. mense concourse of people to Paradise Square. On the severe clauses of the Poor Law would not be reports-the column of "varieties," or some other to disabuse the public mind through your columns ; Zaccheus Parker, 18, for trial, on a charge of arriving at the hustings, on the motion of Mr. Gill, enforced, and that out-door relief would be more portion of the contents of the 2nd, 3rd, 6th, or and trust, as your journal is the only one on which The CHAIRMAN observed they would be aware of th pages of the paper, which are always set up working men can depend for the truth, that you will Mr. WARLEY said if Hon. Members instead of first-and ask indignantly if their communication | lay its columns open for them. the business for which they had been called topicking. being the administrators of the law, were for a short was less important than such or such a thing The Observer states that the men lately employed gether; it was to agree to a congratulatory address to be presented to Mr. Feargus O'Connor on his into the question of free-trade, completely upsetting arrival. Mr. O'Connor was expected to reach the the fallacies of the "cheap-bread," "high-wages," railway station before three o'clock, he, (the chair-man) would not therefore, detain them by any demonstrations, he said—At Birmingham a gentle-further remarks, but would call prop. Mr. Here and "plenty-to-do" gentry. time its victims, they would form a different opinion which appeared in the same paper from which at the Houses of Parliament have struck against of its provisions from that which now seemed to it was excluded "for want of space"-others their foreman for no fault whatever; and that sixaccuse us of partiality and unfairness in cutting teen or seventeen have been the means of per-The House divided, and Mr. Yorke's amendment down their reports to a mere annoucement, while suading 220 to leave their work without a cause. was negatived by a majority of 187 to 36. those of other towns are given at greater length. This, to us, is preposterous : more particularly when further remarks, but would call upon Mr. Harney The consideration of the main question was then ing, taking especial care that while he did the pray-We have had many most angry letters of this we are aware that the source whence it came has acto propose and read to them the address prepared. postponed until Tuesday, when Mr. S. Crawford will

A	YOUNG CHARTIST AND	CONSTANT READER 1	ployed Op	eratives' Enumeration Fund.
ł		ise is a very "young'
	Chartist indeed.			Drought formand

A YOUNG CHARTIST AND A CONSTANT READER if	LEEDS Weekly Contributions to the Unem
not an enemy in disguise is a very "young"	ployed Operatives' Enumeration Fund.
Chartist indeed.	£ s. d.
TO THE CHARTISTS There is not a man in England	Brought forward 10 3 3 or Ireland more devotedly attached to the princi-	Donation from Leeds fimes Once 010 0
ples of the People's Charter than the Rev. Mr.	Donation from Mr. Joseph Gates 010
Ryan, P.P., of Donabate.	Donation from Mr. Smithson, not B. B. 0 1 0
BILSTON friends have sent us a balance-sheet of their	From 62 contributors, at James Binns
receipts and expenditure, from which it appears	and Sons, per Samuel Henry Horn 0 5 2 that their Treasurer is 17s. 101d. in advance,	10 ditta at Wather Wathom and having received £6 1s. 4d., and expended	SIZ-Decom man Labor Direct
£6 19s. 23d. The accounts are John Cadley,	53 ditta da da da ner
Joseph Jarvis, and James Damaine.	Tahm Weighlan 0.4 F
A. RSend an order and the money with it to Mr.	21 ditto at Diplay and Oalas non Joshua Hobson, 5, Market-street, Leeds, and he	Joseph Thompson 0 2 7 may have as many Parr's Pills as he pleases.	" 24 ditto, do. do., per Edward E. R. SMABTNext week.
BRIGHTONMr. Wm. Morlin begs us to acknowledge	, 14 ditto, at Boyle, Gill, and Co.'s, for him the receipt of £1 from Nottingham, per Mr. Smart, and 5s. from Salisbury, per Mr.	per John Jackson 0 1 2
Wilkinson, for the O'Brien Press Fund.	,, 18 ditto, at Rogers and Hartley's,
JONATHAN WOOLER We have no room for his letter,	per Wm. Cliff 0 1 6
nor do we see any point in it.	" 16 ditto, at William Robinson and
THE VICTIMS.—The donation of £5, through Mr.	Co. per James Rattray 0 1 4
Cleave, named in our last, and of which the ap-	" 49 ditto, at Lord and Brooks, per propriation of £4 was accounted for, was in-	Wm. Robinson 0 4 1
tended also to include 3s. for Mrs. Holberry. Mr.	" 25 ditto, at Hargreaves and Nus-
Cleave will be glad if the parties will furnish him	sey's, per Joseph Smith 0 2 1 with their precise address.	" 22 ditto, at Mr. Pritchard's, per HALIFAXWe are sorry we have no room for their	Wm. Watson 0 1 10
address.	, 12 ditto, Air. Cawoo ds, nax-mill,
THE SECRETARY of the Irish Universal Suffrage	(two weeks) per Thos. Card 0 2 0
Association begs leave to inform the friends of	, 47 ditto, Mr. Benyon's, per William Roberts 0 3 11 freedom in England that his address now is-
P. M. Brophy, 14, North Anne-street, Dublin.	" 33 ditto, Mr. Cooper's, per Henry Bolton 0 2 9
A REPUBLICAN We have no room.	, 36 ditto, Tsylor and Wordsworth,
R. COXONY, DURHAM.—The Plates of Emmettwere	10 ditto Mr Stenhen Mitchell's ner
sent to Mr. France, Newcastle, same time as all	Mark Hutchinson 0 0 10 the others : how it happens that Mr. Sutherland	" 63 ditto, Mr. Brownridge, per Edwin has not received them, Mr. France or Mr. Suther-	Gaunt 0 5 3
land must say—we cannot.	, 18 ditto, Shearwood and Booth's,
THOSE AGENTS who have received their accounts	per Wm. Giles 0 1 6
are requested to remit the amounts due, or their	" 22 ditto, ditto, per James Branson 0 1 10
Papers will be stopped.	" 45 ditto, Mr. Halliley's Hope-street
	Mill, per Humphrey Bloomfield 0 3 9
FOR THE WIVES AND FAMILIES OF THE INCAR-	" 23 ditto, Dickenson & Barraclough's,
CERATED CHARTISTS. £ s. d.	per Marvell Wild 0 1 11
From a few Chartists at Micklethwaite,	" 33 ditto, at Fenton, Murray, and near Bingley 0 2 0	Jackson's (old side) per L.
. the Mason's Branch of the National	Smith $\dots \dots \dots 0 2 9$
Charter Association, Lambeth,	"42 ditto, do. do. do. (machine
London 1 1 0	makers) per. Wm. Hesketh 0 3 6 , 26 ditto, at Mr. Pearson's, per T.
FOR O'BRIEN'S PRESS.	, 43 ditto, at Mr. Holdforth's, per
From T. Ireland, Dunfermline 0 1 0	Lash Wood
FOR DEFENCE OF O'BRIEN'S SEAT FOR NEWCASTLE.	19 divto at Dobart Wood and Son?
	per James Stewart 0 1 6
\sim From Mr. Wood, Sudbury 0 2 $8\frac{1}{2}$	" 11 ditto, at Mr. Porter's, per Joseph
FOR THE EXECUTIVE.	Rose 0 0 11
From Finsbury, London, per J. Watts 0 10 0	" 27 ditto, at Brown and Co.'s, Marmodell's wondows hos as a three a radio	shall-street, per J. Murphy 0 2 3
	" 15 names omitted to be given in by
MUD SUDIZE AN MUE NEW HOUSES OF	mistake 0 1 3
THE STRIKE AT THE NEW HOUSES OF
PARLIAMENT.	891 contributors £14 10 6
	COMMITTALSJames and Thomas Walsh, brothers, TA THE STAR OF THE NORTHERN STAR	"acpactively only clover and thisteen seems of are respectively only eleven and thirteen years of age, were on Tuesday committed to Wakefield House of Sin,-Various reports having been circulated, Correction for two months, on a charge of having through the medium of the journals of the metro- been found in a house with the intention of commitcomplaint from various parties about their com- polis, and which, if not contradicted, are calculated ting a felony. Though young in years they are old offenders. On Monday, Joseph Wilkinson, 18, was committed for trial on a charge of having stolen a pocket picking. Mary Tracey, a very old frequenter of the police-office, for trial, on a charge of pocket

> FIRE.—On Friday night last, a fire broke out in the premises of Mr. Yewdall, grocer, Briggate, which bus for timely discovery might have been attended with serious consequences. It was, however, early discovered, and was got out without much damage. We understand it is supposed to have originated from a man having taken a candle into a staircase amongst some dry goods, from which it is presumed a spark must have fallen amongst the rubbish, afterwards broken out into flame. The loss will

would appear that some of the swell mob, advocates the " appropriation" clause, are taking advantage post-we must go on; if they would remember | One of the men received the unwelcome intelli- of the crowds attending the parish church to exerall this, and send their communications promptly gence from Manchester of the death of his mother | cise their vocation. Several handkerchiefs have exchanged pockets, and it behoves all who attend, to mind what company they happen to sit by the Robbing Lodgings.-On Tuesday last, William that, therefore, no one place can be allowed to round upon him and told him "if that was the case Dean left his lodgings at Mr. Thomas Driver's, monopolize an unreasonable portion of the paper, he might go away altogether," asserting "that he Pottery Field, and stole therefrom a pair of black we should have no complaints of inattention to would not keep a job open for any man that length trowsers, a black waistcoat, a black silk handkerany party-because we know there would be no of time under such circumstances." As another chief, and other articles, the property of his land-PICKPOCKET .- During the proceedings at the Anti-Corn Law meeting on Monday, a gentleman will aid us rightly in the sending of their matters been lamed in the service of his employers, that of the name of Marsh detected a man in the act of they would continue to give him work, but no, taking a silk handkerchief from his pocket, and he ROBBERIES .- On Monday last, a pair of wheels, the property of Mr. Shann, spirit merchant, Bondstreet, were stolen from near the Clarendon inn .-On Tuesday, a claret coloured pilot coat, with dark buttons, and the skirts lined with plaid stuff, was stolen from the house of Mr. John Hutchinson, Gar-SUICIDE OF A LADY .- On Friday, a lady of the many's good tradesman, in the mest domineering name of Marshall, who resided at No. 18, Pritchard-manner, to " pick up his tools and be off," before road, Kingsland, who, in consequence of being liable they have been many hours on the job, without the to occasional aberrations of mind, was under releast consultation as to whether they were blameable straint, left her home unperceived, and flung herself Jones; three for the Charter and no surrender; and three for Mr. O'Connor; when the mighty multi-tude formed in procession as before, proceeding up the principal streets of the town to the Theatre Royal. THE DINNED conclude by informing them that the masons have taken to the Sir Walter Stott public-house, where manfully come out, and there they will remain until the usual means to resuscitate life were resorted to, JAMES WOOD, SUDBURY.—The non-payment of church that monster, Allen, is removed from the works, but without avail. The deceased, who was fifty-rates will not vitiate his vote. The qualification and are not, as has been stated, deficient of the eight years of age, enjoyed a considerable indepen-

are requested to remit the amount Papers will be stopped. FOR THE WIVES AND FAMILIES From a few Chartists at Micklethwa near Bingley ...

THE NORTHERN STAB.

name of Ellis Mawson, son of Benjamin Mawson, vail on them to forget the past, and expressed a hope further request the co-operation of the men of Surrey, Spink-well Terrace, absconded from home, to the great grief of his friends, who, though poor, are All his persuasion and entreaties were, however, Coffee-house, Bride-lane, Fleet-street, on Monday honest and industrious. A neighbour's boy had ineffectual. Captain Rous subsequently waited upon evening, at eight o'clock precisely, to form themhonest and industrials, it eight o clock precisely, to form theme subsequently waited upon evening, at eight o clock precisely, to form theme lately associated with some travelling musicians, the Earl of Lincoln, the First Commissioner of the selves, and proceed to carry out the above objects." and it is supposed that he and Mawson have gone in pursuit of two of these travellers, who lately left the noble lord to use his influence between the par- ton's committee, alluded to last Sunday, denying here for Sheffield. Mawson had on, when he left ties, expressing his regret that his own exertions had that he in any way originated the rumour of a secret home, dark fustian jacket, small black and white been unsuccessful. plaid waistcoat, dark fustian trousers, and round cloth cap. He is about five feet four inches in THE ARMSTRONG LIVER PILLS are recommended height, rather stout, light complexion, with a little colour, and hair rather flaxen. He has a mark across his nose, the effect of a wound, and is sixteen years of age. GLASGOW.-MEETING.-A public meeting of the electors of Glasgow was held in the Trades' Hall on Wednesday week, at one o'clock at noon, for the purpose of adopting a memorial to the Queen. requesting her not to prorogue Parliament until her present Ministers come to some resolution on the Ss. duty affair. A memorial was adopted.

Chartists who neglected to pay Mr. Busfield, the rector, his Easter Dues, have again been summoned by the benevolent man, to show cause why they refuse to comply with his demands. The reverend gentleman's claim upon the individuals for allowing them the liberty of wearing their own heads, and transacting business for them with St. Peter, appears to stagger them, although they declare they would pay, if he would only accommodate them with a list of the items in a tradesman-like manner. As the summonses contained no information of that kind, they wisely posted them in the public streets, to let the other inhabitants know the unreasonable nature of the gentleman's bills, and what they might expect in case he compelled them to pay.

Opp FELLows .- The anniversary of the above society took place on Monday last, when the members and friends sat down to an excellent dinner.

ing lime all day, and was very thirsty and hungry, the infernal skilly tub. and begged them to let him have something to eat and drink, they took pity on him, and let him have what he wanted, and charged for it. He then went away, and these kind people were brought up before the magisirates on Tuesday, and fined for selling ale at an improper hour to this fellow. He had been at a poor cottage house somewhere in the neighbourbood also, and by pitiful tales had induced the people of it to let him have a pot of beer, for which he paid them and then fined them for selling without a license. This will be enough to cause our unsuspecting neighbours to be aware of him in future : he generally goes by the name of Little Mick at home.

RICHMOND.-At the Petty Sessions held at by the officers of excise, with having in her possesthe cellar, and found five stone bottles and one of glass, containing about two gallons and a half of rum, and upwards of three gallons of British spirits. had it not been British oak, a blow sufficient to and finally settling the Committee's business. Whaston Green, near Richmond, a licensed beerhouse keeper, was charged, on the information of Mr. Snowden, police-officer, with opening his house for drinking on Sunday, the 5th of Sept. last, before one o'clock. Guilty. Fined £5 and costs, being the second offence.-Robert Garbutt, of Whaswn Green, a licensed beer-house keeper, was charged with keeping his house open for the sale of beer, on Sunday, the 19th of Sept. last, before one o'clock. Guilty. Fined 40s. and costs.

BRADFORD .- On Saturday last, a boy of the Messrs. Grissell and Pete, and endeavoured to pre- has rendered to the cause of democracy, and they that in future there would be no cause for complaint. and that the persons appointed meet at the Dispatch Woods and Forests, and endeavoured to prevail upon A letter was received from one of Mr. Hethering-

> as an Anti-bilious medicine, to every sufferer from bilious complaints and indigestion, or from an in-active liver, and are procurable at all Druggists, and at the Northern Star office. It is only necessary to see that the stamp has "Dr. John Armstrong's Liver Pills"-engraved on it in white letters, and to let no one put you off with any other pills. practice.

N.B.—The Pills in the boxes enclosed, in marbled paper, and marked B., are a very mild aperient, and are particularly and universally praised. They are admirably adapted for sportsmen, agriculturists, men of business, naval and military men; as they KEIGHLEY.—EASTER DUES.—Messrs. contain no mercury or calomel, and require neither Weatherhouse and Rhodes, the two obnoxious confinement to the house, nor restraint in diet.

> on Phrenology, to a crowded assembly, in the Guild- Social Institution. hall, on Monday. We are too throng to make a HARTLEPOOL .- A public meeting will be held here is all to the tune of Chartist Prosperity.

our patriot townsman, Wm. Ashton, on wholesome well-being of the country are requested to attend. food during the remaining period of his confinement CULLINGWOBTH (NEAR BINGLEY.)-A in " her Majesty's Royal College, at Wakefield," and CAUTION TO GOOD NATURED BEERSELLERS.—A per- to thereby prevent the powers that be, from Clayton-son in the village of Culling worth has just commenced ising him. Notwithstanding the dreadfully depressthe business of betraying beer-sellers and others ed state of the town, the people have come forward into a breach of the law, and then fining them for nobly upon the present occasion to support their doing so. He went over to Wilsden one night last Whig-dungeoned townsman, which clearly proves week, and called at a beer-shop kept by one Smith. that the spirit of democracy still pervades their UPPER WORTLEY .- Messrs. Hick and Parker will It was after the time at which beer is allowed to be breasts and prompts them to do their duty. Two preach out of doors, at Upper Wortley, on Sunday sold, but as he represented himself as a poor widower pounds have been sent him to provide himself with afternoon and evening, if the weather be fine. from Callingworth, and said that he had been slack- foo', and by this time he will have been a week off

			*****			*****	~
:	ю	THE	EDITOR	OF	THE	NORTHERN	STAR.

DEAR SIR,-By inserting the following in your valuable paper, you will oblige, Yours, very truly,

TO MR. MARK CRABIREE.

SIR,-I yesterday received a letter from Dewsbury, of which the following is a copy :---

" Dewsbury, Sept. 23, 1841.

friends in Dewsbury to lay the following statements | at seven o'clock. Richmond, for the divison of Gilling West, Mary before you : - After the district meeting on Sunday Ann Lewis, a girl about 17 years of age, whose last was over, a few delegates repaired as usual to parents live in Richmond, was brought before the Mr. Charles Armshaw's, to have a little conver-sitting magistrates, charged with obtaining at Haux sation, when Mark Crabtree, accompanied by a broname of Nelson, residing at Richmond. Guilty. along with Lord Ashley in an agitation for a Ten hood. Committed to the House of Correction at Northal- Hours' Bill? Our answer was, that we would join BR anma. committee; the council decided that no notice be taken of the subject. After the transaction, of considerable minor business, the council (adjourned. Mr. Ridley gave notice of a motion respecting the letter of Mr. O'Connor in the English Chartist Circular, calling upon the men of London to do that

Forthcoming Charlist Meetings.

BIRMINGHAM.-Mr. G. White will deliver a lecture at the the Domestic Coffee House, Henrietta-street, on Thursday evening next, at half-past seven.

WHITECHAPEL, LONDON.-A grand ball will be given in aid of the County Council funds, in the LEICESTER .- We have had another battle with Social Institution, 81, High-street, Whitechapel, on the Corn Law Repealers; but that, and all other Tuesday evening. Tickets, sixpence each, may be matters sink into trifles amidst the one absorbing had of the Committee, and of Mr. Drake, Charter feeling of solid delight at our prosperity. This Coffee House, 166, Brick-lane; Mr. Hover, 2, Greenweek we have already enrolled thirty new members: street, Bethnal-green ; Mr. Fox, 3, North-street, last week the entire increase was forty-four, the Whitechapel-road; Mr. Rouse, 3, Little Turner-week before forty-two, and the week preceding that street, Commercial-road; Mr. Finnett, 24, Hunt-sixty-two. Mr. Cooper preached twice in the Mar-street, Mile End, New Town; Mr. Newley, 12, ket-place to large audiences on Sanday, and lectured, White-street, Bethnal Green Road ; and at the longer song: we are singing but one just now, and it on Monday next, for the purpose of propagating the principles of Chartism. Delegates from Middlesbro' BARNSLEY .-- A committee has been formed and and Stockton will address the meeting on the above subscriptions opened for the purpose of supporting subject. All classes who take an interest in the > LEEDS .- Mr. Daffy will preach in Cheapside tomorrow evening.

HUNSLET.-Mr. T. B. Smith will preach at the Association Room, Hunslet, on Sunday evening, at the usual time. Mr. Duffy will lecture on Tuesday evening, to commence at eight o'clock.

DEWSBURY .- Mr. Duffy will lecture at Dewsbury, in the Market-place, on Wednesday evening, at eight o'clock.

LONDON.-A concert is to be held in the Associacareful to attend the meeting at the above rooms day evening to receive the money for the sale of to-morrow night, as business of importance is to be discussed.

LONDON.-Mr. Balls will preach next Sunday evening, in the Institute, 55, Old Bailey; and Mr. "MR. HARNEY, SIR,-I am instructed by your Wm. Carrier, the following Sunday. To commence

FINSBURY.-A general meeting for the nomination last was over, a few delegates repaired as usual to of the General Council, and election of a local Mr. Charles Armshaw's, to have a little conver- committee for the borough of Finsbury district, will sation, when Mark Crabtree, accompanied by a bro- take place on Monday evening next, at Hunt's Coffee well, certain articles of wearing apparel, and 1s. ther of his, came into the room, when, after a little House, Clerkenwell Green. The indefatigable and in mozey, under false pretences, stating that her chat on different subjects, he (Mark Crabtree) asked, zelaous old Radical proprietor of these rooms ought name was Mary Ann, daughter of a person of the if we, the Chartists of Dewsbury, would take part to be patronised by the Radicals of the neighbour-

TO THE EDITOR OF THE NORTHERN STAR. SIR,-You will much oblige me by acknowledging in the Star, this week, the receipt of the following

JNO. OGDEN. O'BRIEN FUND.

LEEDS .- Weekly contributions to the Unemployed Operatives' Enumeration Fund :-

which they had already carried into successful ... 6 16 11 Brought forward From Mr. Whitehead, donation ... 0 2 6 From 71 contributors, per J. Sanderson 25 ditto, per Joseph Thompson ... 0 26 ditto, per William Hoyle ... 0 16 ditto, per James Rattray ... 0 18 ditto, per William Cliff 0 1 38 ditto, per William Roberts ... 0 21 ditto, per Christopher Moxon ... 0 36 ditto, per William Robinson ... 0

	divide por william Robinson		U	3	- 63 1
43	ditto, per Henry Plumpfield	•••	0	3	7
18	ditto, per James Murnhy		Ō	ī	6
9	ditto non William Duchlan	•••	Õ	ō	9	ļ
13	ditto non loop Cum Juli-1	•••	Ŏ	ĭ	ĭ
18	ditto non Ioman Charlent	•••	ŏ	î	6	ľ
48	ditto non John Dime	•••	ŏ	â	ŏ
21	ditto, per Jonathan Woodcock	•••	ŏ	ĩ	9
14	ditto non Damid Dama		ŏ	î	2	1
12	ditto non M7:11/and Tables	•••	ŏ	î	õ
25	ditto non Tala Danad	•••	~	$\frac{1}{2}$
22	ditto man Man 191 TTTTT	• • •	0		1
66	ditto, per William Chipperdale	•••	0	1	10
24	ditto nor William Cilor		0	5	0
26	ditto, per William Giles	• • •	0	2	0
49	ditto, per John Constantine	• • •	0	3	0	ľ
244	ditto, per William Beaumont	•••	0	3	6	1
31 11	ditto, per Jacob Wood	•••	0	4	3
11	ditto, per Joseph Rose		0	0	11	l
40	ditto, per John Keighlev		0	4	- 0 -	L

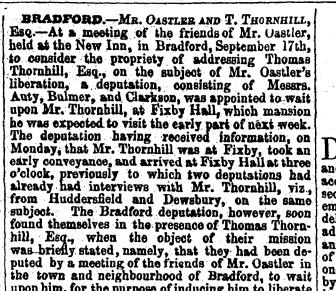

766 contributors Total £10 3 3 ...

O'CONNOR DEMONSTRATION .- At an adjourned meeting of the Demonstration Committee held on Thursday evening in the Chartist Room, Shambles, it was resolved that all friends engaged in obtaining subscriptions, or having tickets for the soirce on sale be respectfully requested to send in all monies received, along with the collecting books, without fail, to the Committee, sitting at the usual place, on Saturday evening next, not later than eight o'clock. It is indispensibly necessary that this arrangement be punctually attended to, so that the Committee may be enabled tion-rooms, Hit or Miss Tavern, 19, West-street, to proceed with business. As far as they have Globe-fields, on Monday evening, Oct. 11th, towards defraying the expences attending the public meeting bald up balder their labours, and they have no doubt of held in London, to welcome Feargus O'Connor on being able to accomplish their best desires in favour GEORGE JULIAN HARNEY. his liberation from York Castle; tickets threepence of the people's cause, by the contemplated rejoicings each. It is hoped also that all members will be of Tuesday next. The Committee will sit on Mon-> those tickets which may remain unsold on Saturday evening LECTURE.—On Tuesday evening last, Mr. Stone-house delivered an excellent lecture on Phrenology, after which an animated discussion took place.

MRETING.—On Monday evening the Chartists held their usual weekly meeting, when several new members were enrolled.

FEMALE CHARTISTS .- The female Chartists held their weekly meeting in the room, Fish-market Shambles, when it was resolved that they should walk in the procession in honour of Mr. O'Connor, on his entry into this town, on Tuesday next.

the town and neighbourhood of Bradford, to wait upon him, for the purpose of inducing him to liberate Mr. Oastler from the Fleet; believing, as they did, 6 that his services in Yorkshire at the the present time would be of essential service to his country; and thus they feared that, if Mr. Oastler was confined much longer, his health would be materially injured and his life shortened; and that they trusted that he had no desire to shorten the days or injure the health of his old steward. Mr. Thornhill. in reply, stated that he had no ill will towards Mr. Oastler whatever; that he had no wish to shorten his days or injure his life; that he had no doubt but | RICHARD ANthat Mr. Oastler might be of service to his country were he at large; that he should be glad to see him liberated: but, he felt that he would not be doing his duty to himself and to his family, were he to consent to his liberation, without security STRABO for the debt. The deputation discussed the sub-ject with Mr. Thornhill for upwards of an hour and Days, Wind permitting. a half, urging Mr. Oastler's claims upon him, believing, as they did, that he was suffering for his country's welfare, all of which Mr. Thornhill listened to with the greatest courtesy, and stated that an influential gentleman in London had called upon him a short time since on the same subject, and to whom he had returned the same answer Mr. Thornhill also kindly showed the deputation a letter he had lately received from one of his own counsel in the late action, Thornhill v. Oastler, Grain small. Old Wheat has been in fair demand, interceding in Mr. Oastler's behalf, but to which he and last week's prices fully supported; fine dry had not yet been able to reply. The deputation ex-pressed their gratitude for the interest which that rather lower and very difficult to quit. Very little learned gentleman had exhibited on Mr. Oastler's behalf. The deputation retired, regretting that Mr. Thornhill could not consent to liberate Mr. Oastler, but was glad to hear him express himself ready to Whe enter into an amicable arrangement for that purpose, and they would hope that the day is not far distant when Mr. Oastler will be again re-Qrs 1919

stored to his family and friends. £ s. d 357 PUBLIC MEETING .- A public meeting of the females

took place on Sunday evening last, in the room over the Chartist Provision Shop, Goodmansend, Mrs. Jackson in the chair, when the following resolution was unanimously adopted :--" That the members of the various Female Associations be requested to attend a meeting on Sunday, the 26th instant, to be holden at Mr. Carrodus's, North Tavern, Wapping, at half-past six o'clock, to arrange the order of procession on Mr. O'Connor's public entry into Desdicad '' Bradford."

members for this borough by a large majority on the shew of hands, has been subjected to frequent in-sults by many unprincipled and envious Whigs. During the recent election, these insults have been turned the recent election, these insults have been turned by of Beasts at the market to day has been larger into threats, and from threats to actual assault. lerion to hard labour for one month, as rogue and ragabond. Elizabeth Raisbeck, of Longthwaite, near Reeth, who keeps a beerhouse, was charged Charter. He (Mark Crabtree) then went on to say. lishman is entitled, he last week obtained a peace warrant against a person of the name of Moorhouse, a Whig constable of the township of Horton, Number of Cattle at market :-Beasts, 1632; who, in a state of intoxication, threatened to do Number of him some grievous bodily harm and who it is Sheep, 5788. feared but for the prompt and very proper interfer-ence of Mr. Ibbetson (who also happened to be a special constable) would have inflicted immediate the numbers, but indifferent as to quality. The same punishment. Moorhouse has since confessed his error, and on payment of the legal expences, Mr. Martin, with leave of the Magistrates, has with-must be reported as last week, whilst middling and inferior the marks apply to Sheep, whilst of Lambs the supply was limited. The prices for prime Beef and Mutton must be reported as last week, whilst middling and drawn the prosecution, his object being accomplished in bringing the offending party to a sense and of his misconduct.

5

C. GRIMSHAW AND CO.

14, GOREE, PIAZZAS, LIVERPOOL.

DESPATCH fine First-Class AMERICAN SHIPS, of large Tonnage, for NEW YORK and NEW ORLEANS, in which Passengers can be accommodated with comfortable berths in the Cabin, second Cabin, and Steerage. Persons about to emigrate may save themselves the expense and delay of waiting in Liverpool, by writing a Letter, addressed as above, which will be immediately answered, the exact day of sailing and the amount of Passage-money told them; and by remitting one Pound each of the Passage-money to Liverpool, by a Post Office order, Berths will be secured, and it will not be necessary for them to be in Liverpool till the day before sailing.

N.B. The Ship never finds provisions for Second Cabin or Steerage Passengers, and Emigrants are imposed upon by Agents agreeing to find them.

FOR NEW YORK.

Capt. Register. Burthen. To sail. Ship. Tons. Tons. INDEPENDENCE, 820 Nye 1400 25th Sept. DERSON, Bennett 600 1050 7th Oct. Cobb 1020 1600 13th Oct. SIDDONS, FOR NEW ORLEANS.

Shoof 420 750 1st. Oct. Will be despatched punctually on the appointed

Apply as above.

LOCAL MARKETS.

LEEDS CORN MARKET, TUESDAY, SEPT. 28.-There is a large arrival to this day's market, other kinds of alteration in Oats. Beans, heavy sale.

THE AVERAGE PRICES FOR THE WEEK ENDING SEP. 28, 1841.

at. 9.		Qrs.	Qrs.	Qrs,
d. 11	£ s. d.	 £ s. d.	£ 8. d.	£ s. d.

LEEDS CLOTH MARKET.-There still continues to be a fair share of business doing in the warehouses, but at the Cloth Halls, the demand for goods is very trifling. It would seem as if the merchants had almost ceased their purchases at the Halls ; indeed, goods are now more than ever carried direct from

RICHMOND, CORN MARKET, SEPT. 25 .- We had not so plentiful a supply of Grain in our market to-day as last week, which caused an advance of 9d, per MR. MARTIN.—Ever since the last general elec-tion, Mr. Wm. Martin, who was elected one of the sold from 7s. 6d. to 10s. ; New do., 6s. to 8s. ; Oats, ply of Beasts at the market to-day has been larger which there was an advance in price. The best whether Mutton, 71d. ; Ewes and inferior quality SALFORD CATTLE MARKET, WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 29. inferior were the turn lower. A few Beasts and Sheep of inferior quality unsold. Best Beef 6d. to 61d., inferior 5d. to 6d; best Mutton, 61d. to 7d., middling and inferior 6d. to 61d; Lamb, 7d. per lb. MANCHESTER CORN MARKET, SATURDAY, SEPT. 25. -At to-day's market we have a moderate comsumptive demand for each article at about the prices of this day week, and the appearance of the trade is George Calvert, the Bay Horse Inn, Otley. And on Wednesday last, the Dove Lodge, No. 5, of the same order, held its eighth anniversary, at the house of Mr. Rich. Wood, the Fleece Inn, Briggate, Leeds, when the officers of the order and members of the Lodge sat down to an excellent dinner, which gave great satisfaction. later districts of the United Kingdom. LIVERPOOL CORN MARKET, MONDAY, SEPr. 27 .--Our imports of British Grain, Flour, and Oatmeal, since this day se'nnight, have been light, from foreign states there are reported 7,823 qrs. of Wheat, and from Canada 4,699 barrels and 400 sacks of Flour, both admissible for home consumption at the lowest rates of duty : the import on the former has now advanced to 2s. 8d. per quarter. At our market on Tuesday there was a good demand for Wheat for consumption, and the decline noted in prices at the close of last week was recovered, the general runs of Lower Baltic red Wheat selling at 9s. 61. to 9s. 8d., up to 9s. 10d. to 9s. 11d. for fine Bostock ; American at 9s. 6d. to 9s. 9d.; Odessa at 8s. 10d. to 9s.; good fine mixed Danzig at 9s. 10d. to 10s. 3d. per 70 lbs. There has since been less animation in the trade, and any change in prices has been in favour of the buyer, without any disposition being shown on the part of holders, however, to press sales. A few small parcels of Irish new Wheat have appeared; public-house, Eastcheap, ou the person of Mr. Bour-den, the landlord of the above house, as well as an 8.81., whilst some fine kiln-dried has brought 93.3d. 45lbs. obtained for some very choice. No new at market this week. New Oatmeal has gone off somewhat more freely at 28s. to 28s 6d., but old has con-tinued dull of sale at 25s. to 25s. 6d. per 240lbs. For Barley, Beans, or Peas, there has been little more than a retail demand. Egyptian Beans have been sold free at 32s. to 33s. per 380lb., and Foreign Peas at 39s. to 41s. per quarter. At Manchester, extreme agitation depicted on his countenance, and on Saturday, a good business was done in United proceeded behind the bar, where the deceased was States sweet Flour, from this side, at 35s. 6d. to 36s. LONDON SMITHFIELD MARKET, MONDAY, SEPT. 27. -On account of there being a comparative falling which moved off briskly on quite as good terms as those noted on this day se'nnight. About 300 Lambs were brought forward, which commanded scarcely were suffering from the epidemic. LONDON CORN EXCHANGE, MONDAY.-There was a limited supply of Wheat this morning from Essex. Kent, and Suffolk, and only a moderate quantity of Barley, Beans, and Peas from all these counties, with a fair arrival of Oats, whilst the import of foreign Wheat was again very large, and tolerably good of Barley and Oats. Since last Wednesday much rain has fallen, and by this morning's letters this appears to have been pretty general throughout many farmers have wholly ceased to thrash, being dissatisfied with the prices of the new crop. There was a rather extensive sale for foreign Wheat, and fully as much money was made for all sorts, but particularly for choice Dantzie ; in some instances for such and for heavy red qualities rather higher prices were obtained. Town-made Flour was unaltered. Barley met a steady sale at full as much money. Beans and Peas brought last week's prices. From the coarse quality of the new Barley, choice Chevalier being worth 683. per quarter. There was no variation in the price of Oats, good Corn meeting a moderate sale, at late rates. NEWCASTLE CORN MARKET, SEPT. 25.-The weaneighbouring counties is now secured. We had a large show of Wheat at market to-day from the superior to last week, and was readily taken off by our millers at the same rates. There was more enquiry for foreign Wheat, and some extent of business done on the terms of this day week. The quantity of foreign Wheat entered for consumption here this week exceeds 90,000 grs. Rye is without alteration. Barley continues in good demand. In Beans and Peas no change. We had a fair supply of Oats this morning, almost entirely of the new growth, for which there was a fair demand, and we can note no alteration in the price of either new or old. Flour is 1s. per sack lower, and a dull sale. Our millers have made a further reduction to-day being now at 46s. per sack delivered. THIESK COEN MARKET, SEPT. 27 .- There was a CHURCH BUILDING SOCIETY .- Two excellent ser-Rev. J. Reade, M. A., Rector of Romaldkirk, and SPJ. at the chapel of the Holy Trinity, in the morning and afternoon, by the Rev. J. B. Birtwhistle, M.A., the incumbent. Collections were made after each service, amounting to £13 11s. 9d. in the Parish Church, and £6 6s. 7d. in the Holy Trinity, in aid of the fund of the Ripon Diocesan Church Building Society.

ARRIVAL .- The Earl and Countess of Zetland arrived at Aske last week, his Lordship's seat near Richmond.

MONET MARKET .- Extreme dullness pervades the at our meeting." money market; however, to enliven the drooping spirits of the jobbers, jews and money-changes, we give the following narrative of the BOTTLE MAIL, as given by a London cotemporary. "In the absence of anything of more gravity it may be mentioned that some diversion was created in certain City circles today, about the receipt of a letter from abroad at the cfice of a respectable wine-merchant by a novel kind of mail, mail packet, or sailing conveyance, to the evasion, scandalous or not as it may be variously construed, of her Majesty's Post-office, and in defi-ance of Lord Lowther and Mr. penny-postage Hill. The letter in question was thus introduced under cover to the notice of the party to whom addressed by the intermediary agent :-

" Scilly, Sept 20, 1841.

forwarded the enclosed letter, which I picked up on the classes." lith, I hope you will send me an answer.

" Yours, "PHILIP WILLIAM EDWARDS,

"Weaver, St. Mary's, Scilly." The enclosed letter runs thus :---

' Brig, Lord Saumarez, Sept. 9, 1541.

'MY DEAR COUSIN,-It is possible that you get this, although there are a hundred chances to one that you do not. I enclose it in a bottle with a request that the finder will forward it to you. We have had head winds almost the whole time since we left, but we are how 200 or 390, for the figures may read either: miles and defy you to prove it. south of Cape Clear-passed every ship or vessel that We met qr. got sight of. All well, fat and hearty. The Captain, Alexanderand Charles join in best respects. " My dear Cousin,

"Yours, &c. 'To -----, Esq., Old Broad-street."

The wine-merchant by whom this extraordinarily despatched missive was received, had not only the gratification of hearing most unexpectedly from his friends, but in the fact of the bottle emptied of the contents with which it went loaded brimful from his cellars recognises the symbolical intimation that the captain and his friends were lustily at work in lightening the vessel and throwing the "jolly marines" overboard, so as to make a clear hold for stowing away another cargo from his vaults on the return home of the good ship Saumarez, which, as the underwriters say, may God speed on her Toyage.

Captain Rous has been using his influence as a me- Cecretary to the County Council, at the Manor O'Brien to establish a newspaper press. diator between the masons who recently struck at House, Chelsea. A most efficient band attended. A the new Honses of Parliament, and Messrs. Grissell number of patriotic songs were sung, and the ball, will lecture to the Charust tailors, on Wednesday, at and Peto, with the humane effort of getting the men back to their work, but he has not been successful. was spiritedly kept up till the hour of closing, to the Having offered his services to them, a deputation great gratification of the company present, which, from their body waited upon the captain, and stated through the unfavourableness of the day and evening, that the principal foreman had acted in a hasty and was not nearly as numerous as could have been intemperate manner towards them; that he had wished and hoped for. committed acts of tyranny and oppression, and had made himself so obnoxions that they had been Ridley delivered a lecture here to a numerous and obliged, with pain to themselves, to adopt the unpleasant alternative of leaving their work. They further stated that they had in several instances addressed their employers by letter, and waited upon In act of injustice to a faithful servant, which they and Brighton, for the purpose of assisting the above the above rooms.

that the Chartists, or leading Chartists of Dewsion certain spirits and British compounds, she being bury, was a set of poor, mean, shabby humbugs; and MARYLEBONE.—Mr. G. Watkins will lecture at a person licensed to retail beer, &c., the room or this said he, is the opinion of William Martin, of the Working Men's Hall, Circus-street, New Road, Marylebone, on Sunday evening, at half-past seven for storing beer. It appeared from the evidence of behaved in a most shabby manner to poor Harney, o'clock. Mr. J. Hopkinson, an officer of Excise, said he; you paid him as your lecturer, a paltry THE LEEDS DEMONSTRATION COMMITTEE are parti-that on the 12th of May last, he entered thirty shillings per week, while I paid him five-and- cularly requested to meet in the Association Room. behaved in a most shabby manner to poor Harney, 0'clock. said he; you paid him as your lecturer, a paltry thirty shillings per week, while I paid him five-and-forty shillings per week during the late West Riding election. With this expression, he struck the table, for the purpose of auditing the treasurer's acounts.

Guilty. Penalty, £50; but mitigated to £12 los., shiver it. After this, Thomas Wass challenged him and the spirits forfeited.—Edward Stephenson, of to prove his assertion on the Market Cross next to prove his assertion on the Market Cross next morning at ten o'clock, and he (Thomas Wass) would at the same time engage to prove to a majoattended time and place, but the rascal had cut his of war !" stick and left the town.

and about Dewsbury that you should challenge next. him in the Northern Star to prove what he said, which, if he refuses, the Chartists of Dewsbury will then caution the Chartist body against this Torymons were preached in the Parish Church of Rich. paid scoundrel, as they consider Mark Crabtree as mond, on Sunday morning and evening last, by the permicious a character as Harrison, the notorious > is here contained are John Haigh, of Ossett; Joseph | eight o'clock in the evening. Atkinson, of Heckmondwike; Thomas Wass, of Dawgreen; and Benjamin Simpson. "The affair has been laid before a meeting of North-street. Chartists in Dewsbury; the opinion of which you will understand by the enclosed resolution.

"Signed on behalf of the Chartists of Dewsbury, " WM. MOSELEY, STOTT, Secretary."

"P.S. Enclosed you will find the resolution passed

The above letter is dated September 23rd, but bears the Dewsbury post-mark of September 27th. Perhaps Mr. Stott can explain this.

The following is a copy of the " resolution" alluded to in the postscript of the above :--

Moved by Adam Brander, seconded by James Newsome—" That we, the Chartists of Dewsbury, have every confidence in George Julian Harney, one of our late candidates for the West-Riding of the County of York, and we consider the assertion made by Mark Crabtree, of Dawgreen, which was to the effect that Mr. Harney, like himself, was in the pay attack upon the character of Mr. Harney, who we consider to be one of the most upright, bold, and un- | tives. flinching patriots that in our day has come forward

WM. MCSELEY STOTT, Chairman.

On this resolution I have only to remark that I operatives. return my thanks to the men of Dewsbury for the good opinion they have of me been pleased therein to express. I assure them they will find their confidence in Julian Harney has not been misplaced. Mr. Crabtree, I have copied the above letter verbatim as I received it. My answer shall be summary and to the point. Your statement (if that statement you made) that you paid me five and forty shillings per week during the late West Riding Election, is a wicked and calumnious lie; and I challenge

Sheffield, September 29, 1341. ~~~~

FROM OUR LONDON CORRESPONDENT.

London, Wednesday, Sept. 29.

SAINT PANCRAS .- At the last meeting of this body a letter was read from Feargus U'Connor, Esq. respecting the late meeting at the Archer's Rooms, and stating that he will attend at the St. Pancras Vestry Rooms, on Monday next, Oct. 4th, at eight o'clock in the evening. A resolution was passed declaratory of a want of confidence in Mr. H. B. Morley, in consequence of his having joined the Edinburgh, on Monday the 27th instant. "new more," and removing him from the General Council.

CHELSEA.-On Tuesday evening last, a ball and The STRIKE AT THE HOUSES OF PARLIAMENT. _____ concert was given, on behalf of Mr. Wheeler, the D'Areira to establish a normalized of Mr.

on the principles of the People's Charter.

cellar where the spirits were found, being entered Bradford and poor George Julian Harney. You Marylebone, on Sunday evening, at half-past seven election. With this expression, he struck the table, for the purpose of auditing the treasurer's accounts, usual business of the Association was gone into, and

LIDGET GREEN.-Mr. Joseph Alderson will preach at Lidget Green, on Sunday evening at six o'clock. SHEFFIELD.-Mr. Julian Harney will lecture in Cuffay in the chair. Several new members were rity of the inhabitants that Mark Crabtree was a the Large Room, Fig Tree Lane, on Sunday evening, enrolled; and it was agreed that Mr. Wheeler lying, two-faced political villain. Thomas Wass at seven o'clock.—Subject, "The crimes and horrors should lecture on the effects of class legislation on LAMBETH.-Mr. Fussell will lecture at the Fea-" In conclusion, it is the desire of your friends in thers, Warren-street, Fitzroy Square, on Sunday

> Tower HAMLEIS.—A ball and concert will be given at the Social Hall, Whitechapel, on Tuesday next, for the purpose of augmenting the funds of the County Council.

BRADFORD .-- On Monday next, Mr. Martin and * The persons ready to come forward to prove what Mr. Jeunings will lecture at Bradford Moor, at

Mr. Alderson will lecture on Sunday evening, at six o'clock, in the Council Room, North Tavern, wise reported th Hetherington and

Mr. Martin, will lecture at Bradford Moor, on reported that a get Monday evening, at eight o'clock.

DELPH HOLE .- Mr. Smyth will lecture at Delph an excellent violin to be raffled for the bei Hole, on Monday next, at eight o'clock in the evening. IDLE.-Mr. John Arran will lecture at Idle, on Monday evening, at eight o'clock. The Chartists of Idle are requested to make it as public as possible. Mr. Edwards will also lecture at the same place.

The Council in Bradford are requested to attend at ance Hotel, Paddock, at three o'clock in the afternoon.

of the Tories during the last election, to be a direct day of October, at three o'clock in the afternoon, journed. for the benefit of the Stockport unemployed opera-

MILN Row .- Mr. Edward Clayton, of Hudders-

3rd day of October, at three o'clock in the after- formed, and the co-operation of the various localities

MR. MORGAN'S ROUTE.-Mr. Morgan will preach ket; at Blue Quarries, on Monday the 4th, at seven an open air meeting, and to invite O'Connor. A o'clock; Grindstoke Quay, Telling Shore, on Tues- vote of confidence in Mr. A. Hogg was passed. day the 5th, at seven o'clock in the evening; Unsworth, ton, on Thursday the 3th, at seven o'clock; Bedling- Whitechapel-road. This locality is increasing in long room, on Sunday the 10th, at six o'clock.

lic as possible.

the latest. MANCHESTER .- Mr. James Bronterre O'Brien will deliver a lecture in the Carpenters' Hall, on Monday, lectured here on Saturday. On Sunday, Mr. Knowles

LONDON.-BERWICK-STREET, SOHO.-Mr. Fusell, points of the Charter.

see that Chartism was not dead in the town.

LONDON.-A lecture was delivered in the Bootmaker's Charter Association Room, Star Inn, Goldenseveral new members were enrolled.

THE TAILORS' National Charter Association met at the Three Loaves, Berwick-street, Soho, Mr. September 29th. After a vote of thanks to the Chairman, the meeting separated.

CHELSEA.—The Chartists of this place met on Monday, at the United Coffee house, George-street, Mr. Twyford in the chair. After the settlement of the usual weekly meeting, Mr. Wheeler read a letter from the Executive, when it was unanimously re-solved, "That the Secretary be instructed to immediately forward 10s. to Birmingham for the Executive; a levy of sixpence per member was unanimously agreed to, in order to meet the late heavy expences attached to Mr. O'Connor's visit to London. Secretary reported reported county council, and like-	Mr. Robe

he postponement of the expected	Ma Same
O Connor's discussion. Mr. Ford	A friand
entleman, favourable to the cause,	Walton N
gh him, a present to the society of	Walter N
n to be raffied for the benefit of the	Thomas I victims. The present was received, a vote of than given to the donor, and the subject referred to a committee, who are engaged in getting up a raffle for a pair of life-preservers given by Mr. Ford. A committee of six individuals was appointed to wait on all persons whose names were on the books to collect the levy, and to take such other steps as they might deem expedient for the good of the cause. A

The Council in Bradford are requested to attend at six o'clock in the evening, as business of importance will be brought before them. PADDOCK — Mr. William Cunningham will lecture on Sunday next, the 3rd of October, at the Temper-double tickets 1s. 6d. Tickets may be had of Mr. Cleave. Secretary explained the reason of Mr.

had made, through

LAMBETH.-A concert took place on Monday evening, at 1, Chelsea Walk, in aid of the funds. On Tuesday evening, Mr. Morron lectured on the 'SIR,-According to the request of the writer I have to advocate and demand the rights of the working field, will lecture at Miln Row, on Sunday next, the Suffrage. It was resolved that a benefit society be noon, for the benefit of the Stockport unemployed is solicited. The names of several new members were added.

FINSBURY .- The Chartists had an excellent meeta sermon on Sunday the 3rd. inst., at six o'clock in ing at Lunt's Coffee House, on Monday. Several the evening, in the Goat Inn long room, Cloth Mar- members were enrolled. It was determined to have attending to the customers ; the villain, without

WHITECHAPEL .- Mr. Ruffy Ridley lectured on on Wednesday the 6th, at seven o'clock; Wrecking-Sunday, at the Freemason's Arms, North-street,

ton, on Friday the 3th, at seven o'clock; Goat Inn | numbers and strength. CAMBERWELL.-On Thursday week, an overflowing NOTTINGHAM.- Un Sunday next, Oct. 3rd, a County meeting was held here, to welcome Feargus O'Connor, Delegate meeting will be held in the Democratic Esq. It was held in the long room at the Montpelier Chapel, Rice-place, Barker gate, at one o'clock; and | Tavern, and the men of Surrey did their duty. Mr. as Monday commences Goosefair, a greater number Brown presided, and the assembly were addressed by than usual of country delegates are expected to Mr. Ridley, Mr. Fussell, Mr. Parker, Mr. Nodder, and attend. On Sunday afternoon, Mr. Dean Taylor Mr. Ratcliffe, who moved and seconded a series of resowill preach on the Forest; in the evening, at six lutions, the first of which Mr. O'Connor responded to o'clock in the chapel, Rice-place. On Monday, Mr. in a thrilling speech of nearly two hours' duration, Taylor lectures at Carrington, Tuesday at Hucknall- interrupted only by the fervent cheering of the immense Torkard, Wednesday at Sutton, and Thursday at assembly, notwithstanding he was suffering under a Mansfield, each evening at six o'clock. The friends severe cold. The report of this meeting only reached at the above places are requested to make it as pub- us by post on Thursday morning, and by the same post we received more than sufficient of much later news

EDINBURGH.-A County Delegate Meeting, for to occupy all the remaining space of the paper. Mid-Lothian, will be held in the Whitfield Chapel, We ought to have had this on Tuesday morning at

SKIPTON.-Mr. Thomas Knowles, of Keighley, visited Embsay. His lectures have done good. October 4th. at eight o'clock in the evening. The

CALVERTON.-Mr. Dean Taylor lectured here

sTROUD.-The Chartists met here on Monday. thought nothing of the matter, neither did they from the small supply at market it appears that Thanks were given to Sharman Crawford and those | recognise the features of the individual so obtruding. CHELSEA.-Mr. Cleave lectures here on Monday who voted with him; the conduct of Roebuck and There is no doubt he was watching an opportunity Ward was censured. Thanks were also voted to the when the bar was clear of customers (which, alas, stonemasons of London, and the men of York, for so soon presented itself) to carry his horrid design their patriotic and spirited conduct on O'Connor's into effect. The name of the wretched man is Blex-liberation. ley and not Blakesley. His father is a highly respectable man, living in the City-road, and has DONCASTER.—The cause of Chartism is wich are requested to meet at a public meeting, to be held at No. 1, Collier-street, Deptford, on the 6th of Outber next, at the Association Room on Tuesday offices in Basinghall-street ; and owing to the pro-fligate life which his son had lived he determined, about twelve months since to discard him, since October next, at eight o'clock precisely, to pass the night, when we enrolled three new members and the deceased, who was formerly bar-maid to her season-made Malt commands high prices, selected two more were proposed. brother, and has been married to the murderer about STROUD.-The Chartists met here on Monday. three months. For a short time they lived at Seven and in the afternoon, at two o'clock, Mr. Williams, Thanks were given to Sharman Crawford and those Oaks, where the husband carried on the business of who voted with him ; the conduct of Roebuck and Ward was consured. Thanks were also voted to the a carcass-butcher, but being unsuccessful, he restonemasons of London, and the men of York, for turned to London, and made an appeal (through his ther has been more unfavourable this week for their patriotic and spirited conduct on O'Connor's wife) to his father for assistance, but was refused, harvest operations, but the bulk of the crops in the when his wife returned to her brother's at the King's liberation. Head, which circumstance seemed to prey upon his Wards them. The men then stated other griev-ances, and concluded by expressing their determina-tion, let the consequence be what it might, of not the inductive structure of the late meeting, returning to their work under the same foreman. and the localities expressive structure in the same foreman. and the localities expressive structure in the same foreman. and the localities expressive structure in the same foreman. and the localities expressive structure in the same foreman. and the localities expressive structure in the same foreman. and the localities expressive structure in the same foreman. and the localities expressive structure in the same foreman. and the localities expressive structure in the same foreman. and the localities expressive structure in the same foreman. and the localities expressive structure in the same foreman. and the localities expressive structure in the same foreman. and the localities expressive structure in the same foreman. and the localities expressive structure in the same foreman. mind. The knife was actually ground at the back, country, the quality and condition of which was

LEEDS .- INDEPENDENT ORDER OF THE ARK .- On Monday last, the officers of the Horsforth district opened the 139th Lodge of the above order, called Fawkes's Rose in the Dale," at the house of Mr. George Calvert, the Bay Horse Inn, Otley. And on Wednesday last, the Dove Lodge, No. 5, of the same

MR. DUFFY.-Received by Mr. Hick, on behall of Mr. Duffy :--

ike-	Mn Dohanta Taada				-
	Mr. Roberts, Leeds
JUDU	Mr Smeine de	•••		•••	•••
~	A Iriend from Dawsbur	'y			••• wove i	W GITON MONDIN			•••
y U1	Thomas Bayboy Loods	•••		•••
		Assoc	iation, l	Edinb	urgh
DKS	Other friends	•••		•••

THE PARLIAMENT .--- The House of Lords has not met since Monday. On Tuesday and Wednesday the Commons were occupied with business of very little importance, principally in preparation for the prorogation till the end of the year.

HORRIBLE MURDER IN EASTCHEAP.-On Tuesday night, at about ten minutes past ten o'clock, a most horrible murder was committed at the King's Head Fussell's non-attendance to lecture that evening, and attempt at the lives of two other persons, the sister per 70lbs. Old Oats have met a little more inquiry. ROCHDALE.-Mr. James Shaw, of Huddersfield, announced that Mr. Fussell would lecture on Mon-will lecture at Rochdale, on Sunday next, the 3rd day, the 27th instant. The meeting was then ad-horrid case, as far as we could learn, are as follows : money ; good mealing 3s. 1d. to 3s. 2d.: 3s. 3d. per At about three o'clock on Tuesday morning a person of the name of Blakesley accosted Sergeant Bradley, 503 of the City police, and inquired of him how he could obtain possession of his wife, whom he stated was staying at the above house; but after being advised to call in the afternoon, he went away. At about ten o'clock on Tuesday night he (Blakesley) went to the King's Head, with every appearance of sitting on a chair dosing, and his (Blakesley's) wife per barrel.

saying one word, drew from his pocket a butcher's knife, such as are used for killing sheep, and made a off in the supply of Beasts offering in our markets desperate thrust at his wife, wounding her in a to-day, and the large attendance of both London and dreadful manner. Her screams awoke Mr. Bourden, country dealers, the Beef trade was steady, at a who, while in the act of rising from his seat, was rise of about 2d. per 8ibs., and a clearance was stabbed in the stomach by Blakesley, the knife speedily effected. From Scotland 150 Beasts and penetrationg to the handle, and he fell at the bar-door in the passage, bleeding in a dreadful man-was a fair average number of Sheep on the market, ner. After making an attempt to strike Mrs. Bourden, the murderer stepped over the body of his victim, who was writhing in the agonies of death, were brought forward, which commanded scarcely and made his escape. Mr. Smith, of Gracechurch-street, was instantly sent for, who lost no time in brisk demand, at higher rates of currency. The sale attending, but ere he arrived poor Bourden had for Pigs was animated, on full terms. As to the expired. His attention was then directed to the un-fortunate woman, who had gone up stairs, leaving proved, and very few of either the Beasts or Sheep traces of her blood from the bar to her bed-room, and whom he found in a very dangerous state, having been severely wounded, but we could not ascertain whether mortally or not. At the time the murder was committed, there were several persons passing by, and taking the alarm, ran after the murderer, calling out "Stop him!" The direction he took was towards the Tower, down Thames-street, and was soon lost to his pursuers. Latest Particulars-The following additional particulars relative to the above awful murder have been obtained. Between nine and ten o'clock on Tuesday Wheat commanded last week's prices, but from the

GEORGE JULIAN HARNEY.

which consisted of country dances, quadrilles, &c., the Three Doves Inn, at eight in the evening.

LAMBETH.-On Tuesday evening last, Mr. Ruffy appreciating audience, at the Association Rooms. Lambeth Walk.

MIDDLESEX-London Delegate Meeting, Sunthem by deputation, representing the difficulties of day, Sept. 26th, Mr. Cuffey in the chair. Credentials their situation; pointing out the great inconvenience were received from Mr. Rowland, of Hackney, and which must arise to them by being obliged to leave. Mr. M'Angus, from a section of the tailors' body; their work, having brought their families to London a resolution was received from Finsbury, continuing on the faith of lengthened employment. That their Mr. Hogg, as a delegate, but recommending to their employers stated their entire satisfaction with the delegates a temperate line of conduct. Satisfactory ten, Mr. Binns will address the inhabitants of conduct and industry of the general body of the men, reports were received from the tailors, shoemakers, and also that they had great confidence in the ability masons, Hackney and other fresh localities, and de-following morning the gallant captain went to the played, and sufferings endured by James Bronterre office of the contractors, in York-road, Lambeth, and O'Brien, on behalf of the oppressed millions of this had an interview with Messrs. Peto and Grissell, country, and recommend to the various localities of a sermon on Sunday next, at half-past two o'clock in Works. Who stated most positively that the workmen's com- this metropolis, the necessity of appointing one or the afternoon, in the National Charter Association plaints were unfounded; that they were endeavour- more individuals a committee to act in conjuncevening. WANDSWORTH .- Mr. Ruffy Ridley lectures here to-morrow evening. Subject-Priestcraft. Timehalf-past seven.

DEPTFORD.-The Chartists of Deptford and Greenrules of the locality, and other important business. CRAMLINGTON.-On Sunday morning, at eleven, of Sunderland, will address the people of this place. SOUTHWICK .- On Sunday morning, at half-past Southwick.

SUNDERLAND.—On Sunday afternoon, at half-past evening, at half-past five o'clock.

Rooms, Salford, when a collection will be made for ing to tyrannise over them, and compel them to do tion with the committees already formed at Leeds the benefit of the Sunday School in connexion with agitate for nothing less than the whole Charter. A

ACLAND, THE "PLAGUE" AGITATOR, IN TROUBLE. -This notorious tramp, after his recent exhibition at Tamworth, proceeded to Lancaster to oppose the re-election of Lord Stanley for the Northern Dievening, at half-past five o'clock. SALFORD.—The Rev. W. V. Jackson will preach 93. 1d. from the operatives at the Stansfield Print conded, and had three hands held up in his favour ;

after which he departed, and, shortly after he left the court, he was taken into custody by the super-CHORLEY.-Mr. Charles Connor lectured here on Friday evening; after which, it was resolved to intendant of the police, by authority of a bench warrant granted at the last assizes, a true bill having been found against him for inciting the departed to meet a large body of the masons, at least that his resplendent powers may be secured to the 150 in number. He communicated the statement of people, and in testimony of the many services he beck to meet a large body of the masons, at least that his resplendent powers may be secured to the beck to meet a large body of the masons, at least that his resplendent powers may be secured to the beck to meet a large body of the masons, at least that his resplendent powers may be secured to the beck to meet a large body of the masons, at least that his resplendent powers may be secured to the beck to meet a large body of the masons, at least that his resplendent powers may be secured to the beck to meet a large body of the masons, at least that his resplendent powers may be secured to the beck to meet a large body of the masons, at least that his resplendent powers may be secured to the beck to meet a large body of the masons, at least that his resplendent powers may be secured to the beck to meet a large body of the masons, at least that his resplendent powers may be secured to the beck to meet a large body of the masons, at least that his resplendent powers may be secured to the beck to meet a large body of the masons, at least that his resplendent powers may be secured to the beck to meet a large body of the masons, at least that his resplendent powers may be secured to the beck to meet a large body of the masons, at least the late general election, and for a beck to the meet a large body of the masons, at least the late general election of Lan-beck to the masons, at least the late general election of Lan-beck to the masons the mason of Lan-beck to the masons the mason of Lan-beck to the mason of the masons, 49, to 59, per bushel. vote of thanks was passed to Sharman Crawford,

THE NORTHERN STAR.

Chartist Entelligence.

6

LANCASTER.

As Friday last was the termination of Mr. Bronterre O'Brien's eighteen month's incarceration, the friends of the people in Lancaster, and the admirers of a patrict

"Who dares be honest in the worst of times'

resolved upon giving a public demonstration of the grateful feelings they entertain towards him for the noble services which he has rendered to the cause of humanity and freedom, as well as to testify to him how deeply their hearts sympathise with him in the sufferings and wrongs which he has endured. Mr. Pilling's splendid room was engaged for the occasion, in which. previously to the more important business of the day being wone into, about a hundred of both sexes of the industrious classes partook of tea, &c. At halfmined upon baving these rights which the commands of God, as well as the dictates of reason, alike declare cught never to have been wrested from their possession. Lancaster Castle-(laughter)-I worked a dodge ano- none; and this will go on, so long as the people have On Mr. O'Brien's stepping upon the platform he was ther way. I issued my rescript to the principal inha- no share in the administration, producing riots, greeted with loud clapping of hands, which lasted for a bitants, but there was this difference between us-he, tumults, disturbances, insurrections, and rebellions, considerable time.

Mr. J. T. LUND, of Lancaster, being unanimously He said they had on that evening met to congratulate vised the people to arm. But still, if, 1 say, they have that town, wages always become lower, for they a gentleman, who was second to none in the cause of a right to arm, a man must keep his arms at home, who have entered the town must consent to take under stiention to what might be said-that they would refect upon what they heard; and not be disposed to country. That is what I call sound constitutional doc- do you stand in this predicament? It is because you dangerous and wrong upon the mere ipse dizit of those who were enemies to the rights of the people."

tion; he said he perfectly a priesced in the sentiments . embodied in it.

mations, and clapping of hands.

wills it !" by means of the Charter." (Hear, hear, and That's Middle classes ! make common cause with the indus true.) The working classes have now been robbed by tricus millions, and give freedom to your country." good friends of Lancaster, I am extremely sorry that both the Whig and Tory factions; and the working peolong transported beyond the seas for the term of Tom Styles is the most fit for the ballot-box, for Charter becomes the law of the land, indomitable, upon this occasion I feel so physically weak as to be " Equal rights and equal laws for all classes." their natural lives. (Hear, and cheers.) Alarm without any political knowledge he knows that such of her Majesty's subjects, indeed! Have not one man is wiser than another man. If your called leaders of the people with ronewed energies I as much right to alarm them, as they to make acts of wife or child be ill, without having studied materia and resolution. ple now come ferward and say, "all that we want is, unable te de you and myself that justice which your The memory of Emmett, and those who have died for kindness to me entitles from me at your hands. I the cause." "Frost, Williams, and Jones must be free." return you my mest sincere thanks for the honour you Parliament to alarm you and me. I mentioned this to medica, or phurmacopacia, you find out a good dector Sir Robert has succeeded Lord John. But let him the presentor, Mr. Dandas, and the judge, at New. from a quack. In this town, though a stranger, I could turn away with indifference at the presentation of the bloodsned-we do not turcaten violence. All that we have paid to me; and it delights me to behold the According to the arrangements of the Demonstration want is Universal Suffrage. (Hear, hear.) Yet, sympathy which, through me, you have shown for the those whose rights we wish to share, would, after all, Committee, the Manchester procession formed in Steven castle, and the counsel; but as they did not soon find out the good lawyer from the bad one, and people's petition for the Charter, and his downfall succeed there, they sent me over to Liverpool, and from the good master from the bad one. I could soon get in from that moment is doomed; and he and his party public cause. Your presence here to night fully conhave recourse to physical force rather than yield up any son's-square, where the different trades contributed working classes even of Lancaster: and that the threats i thence to Lancaster Castle, although no one ever went a list of the pinch-paupers, who would shave a mouse shall stink in the nostrils of men. From thence of their monopoly. They have thrown you upon your their numbers towards the immense throng which of their monopoly. They have thrown you upon your their numbers towards the immense throng which of the pinch-paupers, who would shave a mouse shall stink in the nostrils of men. From thence of their monopoly. They have thrown you upon your their numbers towards the immense throng which is the nostrils of men. From thence of the pinch-paupers, who would shave a mouse shall stink in the nostrils of men. From thence of the pinch-paupers, who would shave a mouse shall stink in the nostrils of men. From theorem away by away from any of my speeches alarmed; although no asleep and a cat awake, a cow-headed hog or a devil. Tories and Toryism are banished the Kingdom for own resources; and I suppose the workhouse is the moved by aroute laid down by the marshale and under vinces me that political knowledge has penetrated the breach of the peace ever occurred at them, or followed | (Cheers and laughter.) Some of you could furnish mo ever, whilst their very names shall become a bye-word next thing. (Hear.) They have picked the bones and whose direction they were led through the crowded your employers. (Applause.) It is a true gratification to me to see so great a body of honest men and women any of them-they went away under the impression with the list. You know who are the clever men. Now and scorn amongst men. then they say that the Chartists may come in and pick streets. About two o'clack, the procession met the them-just a day after the fair. (Laughter.) God has one from Eccles at the Crescent, Salford. The scene that they had heard right principles, entitled to weight you think me clever among the Chartists; but I am ready, in spite of them, to do this great act of public left us sufficient for our wants, if all of you had what | was here almost without parallel in the history of Manfrom every thinking man in the community. But Mr. 1 not so: but supposing I am, then you know many justice. I am not vain enough to suppose that it is , justice. I am not vain enough to suppose that it is, not so is an and in the community. But un, not so is supposing I am, then you know many merely to do me all possible honour that you are here; Dundas, said I, if I did alarm a few rogues, had I not things which I don't know; yet if opposed to pinch belongs to you, I mean common justice and honesty; 'chester, both for denseness and enthusiasm. The GRAND to-night- I cannot think so vainly of myself, and I will as much right to make a speech to alarm them, as you pauper-a Poor-Law scoundrel, you would choose me and in advocating which, there are not many who have demonstrators, on catching a glimpse of either Mr. suffered more than myself. (No, no.) But we must O'Connor or Mr. O'Brien, wormed their way to the carnot think so meanly of you. I feel that you are present have to make one to alarm me, for I never was so instead of him-not for my sake, but your own. You CHARTIST DEMONSTRATIONS. all be br ef. I have got to speak again to day : I have | riago as fast as they could ; and greeted alarmed in all my life as I was by your opening world be great fools if you did not. As want of to-night to tell the Government that instead of having ; also to add the people of Manchester, Leeds, and with warm and fervid congratulations. Nor where the your support of their recent conduct, they have speeches. Never was an article in the Times, against howledge does not prevent you from finding out a Sheffield ; and therefore I'd better save my breath to fair ones behind the sterner sex in their anxiety to tender the Whig Government, when in Downing-street, the good doctor, the not knowing how to draw out Acts of your unqualified andiscuised, detestation of their oppres-O'CONNOR AT MANCHESTER. cool my porridge with there. (Laughter) Besides, their tribute of partiality, and respect, and confidence there are chers who wish to say something to you, in in the wearer of the suit of fustian, and his equally con-Whig Lord Chancellor, the ten Whig judges, or the "rliament would not prevent you from selecting a sive proceedings. (Cheers) Many of you may be three Whig ambassadors, without slarming them, - ever man as your representative. The moment you In the last week's Star we reported at great ignorant of the real circumstances why myself and others respect to the address. As for myself, the assembly I sistent compatriot O'Brien. The presentation of several (laughter.)-and still more would they have been clect me for Lancaster, if you should do so, I will stand | length the interesting proceedings of the Chartists have undergone imprisonment during the last two years. see befor. 11.0, will, if I have been at all short, propel young Feargusts to the devoted leader, by their enthualarmed if they knew that they were to have been by you, and would go up to the House and face those of Birmingham in doing honour to the man of the I will tell you what mine was for, and it will then me to greater exertions. I advise you to look to the stastic parents was no less amusing than interesting taken up and prosecuted on a charge of wrongfully half hypocritical scoundrels who reject a Ten Hours' people's choice—Feargus O'Conner. This week we pocketting the public money. Is it not monstrous Factory Bill, and in the next breath tell you to go to have a repetition of his triumphant progress, if posbe for you to say if you ever heard of so corn and the chaff, and to getrid of the chaff as soon as and the congratulatory part of the business was conatrocious a piece of injustice before. I was incarcerated muy be. You all know about slippery Bobby. Weil; siderably heightened by the oft repeated and cordial now, we would not take the Russell purgo, and I am cheering which sprung from different parts of the Manthen, that such men abould have the power of making Unurch and believe all that the parson says. (Laughter.) sible, on a greatly extended scale at Mancheseighteen months on the felon's side of Lancaster criminals of others, when they themselves should have 'Then again look at those setting up to instruct the ter; in fact, the oldest man living remembers not a Castle; having been accused of having made a good sure you will never swallow the Peel elixir. (Cneers chester procession. The processions having united. been placed in the dock. It is the same case now; country, Brougham, Birkbeck, and Knight. The doc- scene even in that important town equal to what was speech. (Cries of Shame and laughter.) In the body and laughter.) When I was in the House of Commons they proceeded on their prescribed route towards Manthere is no difference between Whig and Tory. They ter talks about the increase of the capital of the coun- presented on Monday last. In proceeding to narof the indictment were set forth sundry charges against the other day, I thought I never saw such a set-iegular | chester; and in its progress, was like a snowball. have made a law proclaiming trial by jury, and that try. He says. " the more the stock in the country, the rate the occurrences of the day we must begin at me. But it was for nothing more than appearing nincompoops-considerably worse than those who sat in which gathered by its motion, until the numbers were the House when I was a member. (Hear.) Peel knows to us absolutely incalculable, and its length may be imano man shall be tried but by a jury of his peers; and more the capital"-the more means he should have said the beginning, and not omit due hononr to even a before an assemblage of my countrymen at Manchester yet, by the law, keeping a working man from being a to increase the despots of the country. He tells the country village, occupying, as it did on that day, the by invitation, precisely in the same manner as I appear very well that although he may bully the Whigs; that | gined when we state that it occupied twenty-five juror. They had no right to make such a law; I was people, too, in a letter, when there is a greater demand post of pioneer to one of the most glorious demonbefore you on the present occasion : so that if they it is of no use bullying us. We are not made of that minutes in passing a certain point, a great number of not tried by a jury of my peers; but by a jury for labour than can be supplied, for them to go out of strations over held; and proceeding thus, wo first were conspirators then, you are conspirators now; and sort of stuff. It is a remarkable fact, and to the credit vehicles bringing up the rear. It was indeed a noble of that class, the tools of that odions and despised, the labour, and turn capitalists ! recommends men, notice the if I were a conspirator then, so am I now; for I am of the Chartists be it spoken, that out of nearly 500 sight to behold; and worthy of such a cause. Even administration, the members of which, during the last who have not a penny to buy a red herring with, to here again, as you see, in precisely the same capacity as persons incarcerated by the Whigs for advocating the the balconies, turrets, windows, and house-tops were PUBLIC BREAKFAST AT ECCLES. nine years, have cast into prison more of their fellow- turn capitalists !! (Great laughter.) Another dissemi-I was then: as that meeting, in its character, was People's Charter, we have not had a single traitor. all crowded with persons anxious to satisfy themcreatures than any other. I was tried by twelve rich ination of intelligence is the Penny Magazine, and what literally and identically the same as your own. The Mr. O'CONNOR was met at Eccles at ten o'clock Will not this convince them of the righteousness of our selves of the bona fide existence of the patriots, after men; not by those who toil. " neither do they toil. does that consist of? How high is the ball of St. sentiments which I shall deliver to-night, are exactly in the morning, at which place he arrived by rail- cause. But we see plenty of traitors both amongst the so long a period of incarceration in gleomy dungeons neither do they spin," yet they make others for them, Paul's in London, and how much higher is the dome of those which I delivered then: for none shall escape way-train, by hundreds of the brave lads of that Tory and Whig factions-(hear)-yes, Wakley, the and as the tributary applauses reached the ears of those " gather into barns." (Applause.) Now, my friends of St. Peters at Rome-what's the extent of the parish of from me this evening which are not in strict accordance village. The bridge at the railway station was Coroner, has turned traitor. We Chartists do not gentlemen in the carriage, Mr. O'Connor, in his usual Lancaster, so long as the people have no voice in mak- Laguanain Jamaica-what's the distance from the base to with those for which I was imprisoned. (Cheers) crowded to excess, and no sooner was the well- intend to commit suicide, so that we shall not want the courteous manner, acknowledged the compliment very ing the laws, and no share in administering the lass; the top of the Andes-what was the difference between From the framing of that indictment many have been known form of the noble patriot recognised, than a services of Mr. Wakley for an inquest; but both the frequently, with So long as they have no power over the magistrates who a camel and a dromedary : how the first had got two taught to believe that I was tried for something like shout which rent the air was raised; the cheering Whig and Tory factions may commit self destruction deal out those laws, they never, never, never will, humps on its back, and the latter but one? It stated as a class, be possessed of any property. In this cound how spiders had been lately discovered making diving a Cato-street plot-for something done in the dark-for was continued throughout his entire route to the and therefore may require Wakley, the Coroner. "A spirit yet unquelled and high, That claims and keeps ascendency." Hare and Hounds Inp, in the most enthusiastic (Applause and hear.) We have turned out the Whigs, some secret disbolical act, where the magistrates could try, England, Ireland, and Scotland, according, to the bells in the sea in fine weather-how the kangaroo manner, and it was indeed a sight calculated to in- and the Tories have succeeded them until we have an not come to take cognizance of it. Aye, and if the The procession moved along Salford, over Victoriacensus just taken, there are twenty-seven millions of hopped on its hind legs, and in time of danger took spire the coldest heart, when O'Connor, surrounded | opportunity of turning them out also. (Hear.) Our Government of the country, and the magistrates of bridge, by the Exchange, up Market-street, through people. Out of these, there are full twenty millions its young into its paunch-how a catervillar before Lancashire could again lay hold of me to-morrow, upon : by a host of the recently liberated patriots, was struggle is the cause of the suffering millions-it is the Piccadilly, London-road, up Travis-street, down Anwhose property, when gathered together, after all their ; changing had eighteen logs, but that when it became a whose property, when gathered to jetter, after all their changing has eighted legs, out that there is the cloverness of halled as the head of all. All excellent band of cause of right against might; it is the cause of the music was in attendance which struck up the air, blistered hands, the fustian jackets, and the unshorn as much as would pay for a lawyer's wig. Now, if out writers they cannot discover what becomes of the "See the conquering hero comes," and the whole chins. (Cheers.) You have only to be determined—to hailed as the head of all. An excellent band of cause of right against might; it is the cause of the the same fabricated pretext of having made a speech cotes-lane, and Lever-street, into Stevenson's-square. in Lancaster tending to rouse you, its loyal inhabitants, Of the number of those amongst the flags and emblems as much as would pay for a lawyer's wig. Now, if out, writers they chilled theorem what becomes of these twenty-seven millions, twenty millions make other six. Now, is it not enough to make a quaker all the property, the devil's in it if they have not been thick his mother, or a parson swear like a trooper at such banners and music. to routs, riots, tumults, insurrection, and rebellion borne by the " blistered hands," were the following :---Emblem of unity-A bundle of sticks. against the peace of our Sovereign Lady the Queen, as the big-headed lawyer said (such being some of the Three national flags-The harp, rose, and thistle. most egregiously humbugged by some one. (Cheers and) trumpery trash. (Rears of laughter,) And, this too, words in the indictment), they would most gladly do A green silk banner of the calico printers. laughter.) Now, no one will be a beggar, if he can help called educating the people. (Hear.) Why Chartism! The breakfast was provided by Mr. Catterall, the wherever you go, I will go with you. (Hear, hear.) Ec. Neither do I doubt that they would have any is; no one will work for another if he can help it; no has only made a partial way in enlightening the people worthy host of the Haro and Hounds, upon whom it That I suppose is all you want, and I will go for bearing the motto, " Union is strength ;" difficulty in finding twelve of the shopocracy ready Reverse :--- " United we stand : divided we fall." one will grow poor if he can help it. The governmentsays in true political knowledge, has been through want of reflected not only credit but absolute honour. It was whatever you want. We want the Charter for every to find me guilty upon the testimony of a poor the people have not sufficient knowledge to be entrusted union in the leaders. [After having gone thus far at a most substantial repast, and was served up in a male of sound mind, at the age of 21. This is what Another green silk flag :--reporter; who, upon the trial confessed to me, that he with political power. The Scriptures say, "The people full length, necessity forces a generalization.] Mr. style, which fow even of the first-rate houses could we want, and we will not give way one single inch. Motto,-" Labour is the source of all wealth." was only learning reporting. (Laughter.) Now it is a Beneath which was painted, die because of their want of knowledge." How does the O'Brien, in proceeding, stated that he could have been excel, and all without the slightest confusion. The United, together we stand-divided we fall. (Cheers.) very curious thing that it never occurred to this big-The rose, shamrock, and thistle. British Government offer to teach the people ? By a elected at Newcastle by 11,000 against either of the humber of tickets sold amounted to nearly two hun- My brother Chartists, there are other individuals headed lawyer, who has £2000 a year for prosecuting Reverse side :- " Liberty and equality process of crooked ways. I wanted to make them present members if he had the necessary qualification : dred and the discussion of the good things occupied named in the address, and therefore I must retire and the people, that I have addressed upwards of two Large green silk banner, bearing the bricklayer's equal to their rulers themselves by straightforward that either of them just as much represented the men the party nearly two hours. make room for them. So my friends, I must conclude ; millions of my countrymen, at meetings consisting of means. My place, therefore, was in the House of of Newcastle as he did the Great Mogul. It was not During this time, the band paraded the village, but before doing so I must again congratulate you that Commons, amongst the "Honourable Gentlemen," and till the reign of Henry VI. that any property qualification and a commodious hustings having been created, for woon them (Henry and humph). We have now got our coat of arms. but before doing so I must again congratulate you that from 50 to 100,000, without either rout, riot, tumult, Bricklayers four-a-breast Another large and splendid banner representing insurrection, or rebellion against the peace of our Sovenot in Lancaster Castle among thieves. (Loud clap- tion was introduced; and there was never any going thousands were assembled to hear O'Connor's ad- feet upon them. (Hear, and hurrah.) We have proreign Lady the Queen being produced amongst them, man falling from a scaffolding of a building, over ging of hands) I have referred to Acts of Parliament to the poll, unless the show of hands was so nearly dress. It had rained heavily during the night, but vided their coffins and laid them decently in ; at any and without the least tendency to any such a thing which was written on political economy to see what the landed interest balanced that a prepondurating majority could not be the day was beautifully fine and the scene exhilarate they cannot now get into our pockets. (Hear and likely to be produced. To judge of a man's acts ought "The accidental burial society." derive from the land. Were I to offer to enter into dctermined on. and then they went to the poll; that was rating. laughter.) But mind what I say; the Chartists will to be from the tendency which arises from them. (Hear, The Chorlton-upon-Medlock Band. also put down the Tories. We will then put them details now, I should keep you four times twenty-four to count heads. As to Mr. Ord (said Mr. O'Brien), Mr. O'Brien arrived at half-past eleven o'clock under the Whigs, and if the weight of the Whigs hear, hear.) If no breach of the peace did take place; White flag-" May they who make the chains hours. But if you will just go back for eighty years although not a bad hearted man, was amply different in by the train from Preston; the appearance of the won't keep even the d-1 down, why then I am no if every meeting was as quiet and peaceable as any that of slavery ever want employment,' you will find that rents were not then one-fourth of the head. In the House he was called the silent memschoolmaster" once more "abroad," called forth judge. (Much laughter, which was succeeded by ever was held within four walls; if those present sancsurmounted by a cap of liberty. what they are now. At present the amount is sixty ber; and, as Sir Robert Peel had said of the late Chanrenewed plaudits. We were sorry to observe that reiterated hurrahs, amidst which Mr. O'Connor retired. tioned every sentiment which I uttered; if I appeared Men four-a-breast. millions. You will find, in like manner, that the cellor, if he attempted to look for brains, or ideas for there only at their own request; is it not monstrous he was in a very delicate state of health, and had a Splendid green silk velvet banner, white border, amount of funded property has increased fourfold, a speech, he would find himself fishing in a bottomless Mr. BENBOW was received with loud cheers. He that a crown lawyer, living on the taxes wrung from "Fustian cutters," large gold letters. care-worn appearance; his spirit, however, is unduring the last forty years. The taxes in the eighty sea of deficiency. There was one most important point thanked them cordially for the proof of their affection Motto-" Improvement association ; the people without their consent, should make me a broken, and his scholars are threatened with the years have been quadrupled; whilst in the same period | upon which Mr. O'Brien most anxiously dwelt, consiterrors of his tongue, if they do not progress rapidly in their education. The fault will be none of his, if they do not know how to agitate for their rights. conveyed in the address which had been just read, and conspirator upon the evidence of a silly Whig reporter United we conquer, divided we fall." the funded debt has been seven times increased. The dering it the very life-breath of Chartism. He wanted hoped ever to marit their confidence. In the course of belonging to a silly Whig newspaper? That this fellow, A stage was erected upon a cart to bear this banner. funded property increasing is only through the increase four hundred of the best men in the country to be a few brief but excellent observations, Mr. Benbow who was a notorious Whig hack, should have been Large green silk flagof the produce of your inbour-so also with regard to elected as the representatives : then for them to meet contrasted the condition of the mass of the people with allowed to have given evidence against me : that of six At twolve o'clock, Mr. O'Connor and the other " For a nation to be free it is sufficient rents; for each is the abstraction of what should be; in some central place, such as Manchester, being in the original the control of that or their oppressors, and noise exposed the iniquity that she wills it." your funds; so with labour, your taxes increase, for visted with full plenipotentiary powers to act on patriots, accompanied the Eccles Chartists to the of class legislation, to the existence of which the evil Splendid highly-executed painting, representing the thousand persons ready to have come forward to depose to what I uttered should go for nothing-that this conhustings, and Mr. Wm. Norris was unanimously was mainly to be ascribed. The rich oppressor enjoyed temptible fellow should point out a conspirator against three Welsh Patriots in full length, bearing selves, and more soldiers to put you down, if, after tions to the House of Commons as times should called to the chair. everything in abundance, while the poor oppressed, the Queen, her crown and dignity, in direct opposition their names in gold letters. The CHAIRMAN said he would not detain them from | who toiled and produced everything, were clothed with listening to their splies sent out to entrap you, you are call forth. If five hundred thousand of the people to that which actually took place? If this is the re-Reverse, the Six Points of the Charter. unfortunately led into outrages, such as at Bristol and would then stand by them, they could speak out a good the pleasure of hearing the addresses of those patriots rags, and were on the very verge of starvation. But ward for fighting the battles of your rights and liberties Large scarlet flag of the Royal Arms of England. Nottingham, and into other "riote, tumults, insurrec- old-fashioned constitutional language to the different who were about to speak, further than to congratulate the day was not far distant when Englishmen would be for so many months, is it to be wondered at by your tions, rebellions," and so forth. (Applause.) Then i members. If it were thought not necessary for so many them upon the glorious rise and progress of the prin- free. They had already been taught how they were to blue banner of the operative dyers of Salford and enemies that you should feel for those who, on that sgain, the more wealthy the rich, so many more game- to go, the project would be given up, and the business ciples of Chartism in Eccles, and on the numbers then obtain their liberties, and, with God's blessing on the Beautiful green silk flag, gold letters,-National Charter account, have been imprisoned for so many months. keepers and tenters do they keep to administer solely be transacted by a petitioning body. He was of opinion assembled in honour of the brave O Connor and his means, they would not long be deprived of their enjoy-(Cheers.) Let me tell you the character of my speeches, to their own gratifications and sport. There are eight, that all other labour ought to be given up to look worthy compatriots. Association. ment. (Cheers.) If the working classes were not even according to the evidence of this Whig reporter, This was succeeded by an elegant flig from Glossop, thousand keepers, each computed to have two tenters, after so great a national regeneration. If the Chartists Mr. GEORGE LINDSAY said he was happy to have happy it was their own faults; they alono were to rather than reply to them to-night. The doctrine which to secure that game to the aristocracy, which was followed this will-o'-the-wisp the opportunity of meeting so goodly an assembly as blame if they became indifferent to their own rights bearing the following inscription :--I laid down was "The Charter, the bul wark of English liberty." formeriy any body's property, and food for any body. -- if their leaders were not indissolubly united, what-That every man has as good a right as every other God Almighty had given it as such. But the aristo-ever exertions were made, or plans had down, they were met to do honour to those who had sacrificed their did not work out their own political redemption. On the reverse :--man to the protection of the state in which he lives, cracy made a law, saying that no one should kill it but would never succeed. Mr. O'Brien then described his liberty in defence of their principles which (Cheers.) The time was not distant when they must " Freedom's battle once begun, themselves; and they gave the ugly name of "poacher" imprisonment, as he sat upon a three-legged stool, made the hoped all present were determined to assist in car- have a national holiday; but it must be general, not and of which he forms a part Bequeathed from bleeding sire to son. That every member of a community called upon to | to any poor fellow for merely doing that which they of part of a gallows, and his cell was the one in which they of part of a gallows, and his cell was the one in which they of part of a gallows and his cell was the one in which they of part of a gallows and his cell was the one in which they of part of a gallows and his cell was the one in which they of part of a gallows and his cell was the one in which they of part of a gallows and his cell was the one in which they of part of a gallows and his cell was the one in which they of part of a gallows and his cell was the one in which they of part of a gallows and his cell was the one in which they of part of a gallows and his cell was the one in which they of part of a gallows and his cell was the one in which they of part of a gallows and his cell was the one in which they of part of a gallows and his cell was the one in which they of part of a gallows and his cell was the one in which they of part of a gallows and his cell was the one in which they of part of a gallow at lanchester the the one of the one o Though baffled oft, is ever won." pay taxes to a state, becomes rightfully entitled to his did: is under that epithet a poor fellow was brought up, convicted murderers used to be placed. He then ability to do justice to the merits of and Eccles, but throughout the whole land, from the Blue silk banner, carried in a cart, have of equal protection from that state. That every man, called upon to obey a law, has a ter that man ever got, as sure as God made Moses, bane. He was able to prove that under a just sistem of he was surrounded; but though he was at a loss for a stheir happiness was involved in the issue, and he was surrounded. share of equal protection from that state. Prosperity to the productive classes, the foundation of a nation's greatness." the magistrates would transport him. (Lond sp. laws, such as the people would make for themselves, words to express his feelings, he would yield to no man called on them to make their voices heard. He asked right to have a voice in making that law. Ancient Foresters' band. That every man, who paid taxes to support a plause and hughter.) Then, again, there was the pre- every man could get the comforts of life by fair and in zeal and determination in the promotion of that them if they were prepared to go with him, to heip Banner-" Frost, Williams, and Jones." ventive service to keep the poor man from tasting a memorate labour. He complained of monopolies, espe-foreign luxury. The local rates have increased four cially of railroads, which would be a tax of ten per which they all felt so warm an interest. (Cheers.) He universal liberty. If they were determined to a war Government, should have a share in forming that Reverse-"Universal Suffrage, Annual Parliaments, Government. Government. Above all— That if any class of men ought to be excluded from relief of the point, the rest goes to retain persons shut protected by Act of Parliament, only certain persons privileges, it ought not to be the class more useful then up in workboass, while, with all his excitions, the were benefitted by them. If they pay the Companies cution and prosecution for the sake of the cause; and the foreign luxury. The local rates have increased four (claip of raineads, which would be a day of con per times what they used to be—whilst less goes to the cent. upon the country. Since the proprietors were hoped that all would see the propriety of uniting heart he, but he would not work with a traitor; they must he would not work with a traitor; they must have none of them. If they were willing to help him in this, he called upon them to held up their hands. and Vote by Billot." Men-four abreast. Droylsden band. Green silk banner, bearing the Six Points of the Such are the doctrines which I advocated at Manchester, lord gives nothing as a quid pro quo. He does not give and then all classes would have been benefitted. He in obtaining the Charter. (Cheers.) They would then thanked them for that; he sincerely and heartily they see the sons of industry prosperous and free. the soldiers are not called out by begged of no one to go away under the init have no cause for further agitation-the way would be thanked them not only for the address which they had On the reverse-" Universal Suffrage and the other for not only is the class of the people the most useful, him to defend you, but oftener to shoot you. (Hear.) pression that he wished to say or even to paved for good government, and equal justice to each presented to him, but for their determination to be free. but ten times the most numerous. Then why should As the land is limited in extent, the landlord can insinuate that they had a right, to take away a and to all. An address had been prepared to present points of the Charter." that class (the useful and numerous in all countries: be make it what rent he likes; he can give it out in allot- man's property, even by law. (Hear, hear.) He to the patriots, the adoption of which he had great Mr. Benbow retired amidet loud cheers. A variety of small banners. prevented, by the idle and few, from forming a portion mints, taking from the little farmers, whom he thus advocated no Agrarianism. If he had the assisting in pleasure in moving, and which he read, as follows :-The Rev. Mr. JACKSON, of Manchester, was next an-Manchester concert band. nounced, and was received with great cheering. He A young Feargus on horseback, carrying a small 133, of the Government which they labour to support, and drives out of the country, to consolidate several small making laws as to property the richest man in the said that along with the preceding speakers he thanked of assisting in framing the nature of the laws by which ones into one large one, and small farmers are thus; country should remain in undisturbed possession of his MOST NOBLE AND UNDAUNTED PATRIOTS,-We, with the names o : Feargus O'Connor, Frost, and they are to be governed? Lond clapping of hands is sent into the towns to compete with your labouring, wealth: bat as seen as his breath was out of his body, the Chartists of Eccles and surrounding districts, meet his name was associated. He agreed with his friend who is it, I ask, who builds the bridges, cuts the manufacturers, and this increases the lundierds group of his control his body, the bridges of the active bould be brown to fail and the bridges of the active bould be brown to fail the bridges of a general national holiday, them cordially and sincerely for the address in which other patriots. Large flag, commemorating the deeds at Peterloo. canals, lays the railways, forms the roads, raises rental. for, as the consequence of his sending the shall should be brought into the market to be sold. His of gratitude and esteem for having the moral courage and hoped they would never class their agitation till Feargus O'Connor, with Henry Hunt pointing from the the braves in the lower. heirs should get for the property what in the market it to brave storms and persecutions of Whig the Charter became the law of the land. The createst storms and persecutions of Whig, the Charter became the law of the land. The greatest the houses, plants the garden, rears the nower, sows parameters, and address the law of the land. The greatest the seed, reaps the field, mans the navy, recruits the ing of wayes, he makes manufactures cheaper; and thus would brand; but it (the property itself should go to tyranny, with that spirit of fortitude, zeal, and deter-enemies against which they had to contend were the clouds, and giving him the following chargearmy, and fights the battles of our country, but the he gets out of that cheapened produce of your lebour, an government. By his plan every man in the community mination, which becomes you as honest and disinterested Welcome, Feargus ! thou hast been found faithful; ministers of the Gospel ;- (hear, hear,)-and to bring PEOPLE-tize poor shused, despised, despised, despised, despised PEOPLE increase to his income, by oblaining the same quantity of would be confortable-no trich he would shew men philanthropists. now lead my people on to victory." them to, he advised them to stop the supplies, and they Yet, for a locating their rights, the knows of a Whig golds for much less money, or a much measur quantity how to get bread by honest means, without grinding It is not our intention of pointing out the many Reverse-" National Charter Association." reporter swore that I was advocating routs, riots, for the same money, than he did forty years ago. This is their fellow-men down. He was willing to protest that proofs of your sincerity and attachment in advocating led to join the ranks of the people. (Hear, hear.) He Large banner. tomaits, insurrection and rebellion, against the peace the case with muslins and calicos, silks, and cottons, they who have all the wealth, he cared not how dis-of our soverign hady the Queen, her Crown and dignity if the farmer, the tenant, gives them the same rent, the ignated whicher as money in the funds, bank stock, or every lower of his species, and which would take Motto-" Universal Suffrage and no surrender." called upon them to units as one man. He had come Reverse-"We have set our lives upon the cast; and out to advocate the Charter, and he was prepared, if -but nothing of the kind was likely to occur, any andlord's income, by the depreciation in the price of whatever it might be called, (though there was no such volumes to do justice to your worth. Suffice it to say. we will stand the bazard of the die." necessary, to lay down his life in the cause. The more than it is now. There is one thing which has i manufactured articles, will be increased ten-fold. It is things in ancient times, for the Pope would have ex- that you have nobly and manfully defended our rights, Large green flag. speaker retired amidst great cheering. more than it is now. There is one thing which has included crucics, while be included our rights, something extremely contemptible about it. It is the the same with other articles in Birningham, Sheffield, communicated the possessors for usury) should keep it; and for so doing, have suffered. Whig vengeance and pretext of which the Government availed themselves, and other places; so that not only is the income of the but he should not be allowed to add any more to it. persecution unparalleled in the history of this our Motto-" The husbandman that laboureth shall be first Mr. JOHN BARKER cordially thanked them for inpartaker of the fruits; and he that will not cluding his name in the list of patriots. in their projection of me." It was said that my landlerds, but also that of the fundlords increased-as At present, a person having £10,000 stock in Thread- oppressed country. While your bodies were entombed work neither shall he eat. The Charter Mr. WHEELER, the aged veteran of Manchester. speeches were seditions and violent-that I advised the taxes have likewise increased; the more you, the pro- needie-street, receives it back again every twenty years. in the loathsome and silent dungeon, your spirits soared returned thanks on behalf of his son-in-law, John : Reverse-" Down with every faction that is opposed to people to arm ; but I was no party concerned in such ducers, have to pay, consigning the poorer you must The national debt was one hundred and forty years old, alof: to commune with those of former ages, in order Livesey, who, though present was so very modest become in such was no party concerned in such and only is to his income increa-become. The flux he do not only us to his income increa-bet as to arming—the scoundred who gave evidence the landlord, not only us to his income increa-become incre the rights and liberties of the people. that he dare not show his face. (Loud cheers and Here followed a variety of small flags and banners, acainst me, forgot to tell the jury that, for two years sing, but also as to the value of that income. bringing back the originial sum every twenty years; so loges which God gave to man in the beginning, as a bearing appropriate inscriptions." Mr. DAVID MORRISON, after a few brief remarks. previous, the country had become familiar with the In 1812, if an individual held stock in the Three per that what was borrowed one hundred and forty years punishment for his disobedience. Flag-" More pigs and less parsons." previous, the country had become fainhing what the in ters, if an instruction here stock in the fine sport and the sold out ago has been paid seven times over! and this toos by a Yes! noble patriots, you have sucrificed everything had stated that to arm was the people's constitutional the same stock now, he could get £00 for it, so that government borrowing money without the consent of dear to your physical enjoyments in the search after proposed the following resolution :--Large highly finished oil painting of Bronterre O'Brien, "That this meeting is of opinion that justice will with his name in letters of gold, represented had stated that to arm was the people's constitutional the same stock now, he could get 200 for it, so that so that better and a hold for it. But the people. It was not until Henry VIII'ths time that comforts to the human family; but, thank God I you never be done to this country until the whole people sitting in his library, with "The Poor Man's called upon to protect life and property; but they never no laws against usury; so it appeared that are now amongst us once more, to cheer us on in the be faithfully represented in the Commons' House of Guardian" in his hand. On the reverse was-"I called upon to protect life and property; but they never act only that, that money is increased twoold. Why there were no laws against using, so is appeared that are now amongst is once more, to cheer us on in the advised them to arm to destroy life and property. They because your labour has become cheaper, so that he can i if one Parliament made a law, it was not inviolable but good work of human redemption. merely said "We are menaced by tyranny; it is right, buy more of it for less money. This is property in that another might alter it. In conclusion, with We, therefore, heartily congratulate you on your therefore, that every man in England should arm in creased in one way, whilst Government increases it in glowing animation Mr. O'Brien said, "Although for return to breathe the fresh air of heaven; hoping you Parliament; and that we pludge ourselves never to cling to this transitory life only through my love cease agitating in the glorious work we have begun of country and my thirst for justice. The more until our exertions have been crowned with success, eager the monster to terminate my career here therefore, that every man in England should arm in crossed in one way, whilst Government increases it in a Government inght turn to the show is return to oreate the tress are or neaven; noping you self defence; the law of England entities him to have another. These are the things which I want to show wishing that a ruffian Parliament might turn to the will live to enjoy many happy days under the Charter by the Charter, the whole Charter, and nothing less below, the stronger do I feel the necessity of filling self defence; the law of fregland entities him to have another. These are the things which I want to show whomig that is a taking the laws of God, and the cause of tree of liberty, and succerely thanking you for your past of England compelled him to have them, when the only stating to you things into which, at some more common sense, I have been sent to Lancaster Castle. services, having full confidence in your future course, than the Charter becoming the law of the land." up every hour that remains to me with actions useful to my fellow creatures." Mr. SHEARER seconded the resolution, and said, Constitution was much more pure than it is now. Atourable time I hope I shall have an oppor- No Government, however, shall put me down, nor we are determined, at all hazards, to give you our un- that had there been more time he had intended to · (Continued in our seventh page.)

James Bronterre O'Brien never did advise the people tunity of entering fully into all the minutize. make me bend the knee at the shrine of Mammon. divided support in all your constitutional endeavours, have administered a little wholesome advice to their to arm. I was much more anxious to fill their minds with (Hear.) As machinery has increased, the Govern- Cruel tyrants may prosecute, and base traitors be sent until the whole Charter, and nothing less than the Charpolitical knowledge; but I did not tell them not to ment, by granting Acts of Parliament, has increased to corrupt, but virtue and courage protect themselves. ter, crowns us with success. arm. In such matters I was but a silent spectator of causis, railreads, mines, and so forth, without the (Loud cheers). My kind friends of Lancaster, for I CONGRATULATORY MEETING ON THE charge should have been brought against Lord John Would that have been, had they had a share in making night sweeps away from my mind the verdict of the LIBERATION OF JAMES BRONTERRE O'BRIEN, ESQ., FROM TYRANNIC WHIG IMPRISONMENT IN LANCASTER CAS-TLE. TLE.

clamations are not law)-he commenced a system of of one of fifty, which everybody knows. Large rejoicingly, to overshadow our land with her snow white persecution, he commenced a system of spying, and farmers employ as few hands as possible : and wings." After thanking the company, Mr. O Brien sat sending persons into their houses in search of arms, will throw their land into pasture for beeves, down amidst dealening cheers and clapping of hands. which was certain to make them desperate; he also exen, sheep, and so forth. But if the 500 acre farm Mr. JOHN HARRISON moved the seconded the reso-called upon the Lord Lientenants of the counties to was divided into smaller ones, more would necessa-lution:

issue their rescripts, and call upon certain of the in- | rily be produced than now, as more hands would be

"It is the opinion of this meeting that the misery, habitants to arm to defend life and property; and he employed in their cultivation; consequently there "It is the opinion of this meeting that the misery, would find them with arms. Mind, if Lord John would be a greater demand for your labour; and then destitution, poverty, and slavery endured by the indus-Russell had then advised them to arm; every man has you will have better opportunities of making more trious millions of this country is caused by class legisa right to arm-for no man has more right to do so than favourable terms for yourselves with your employers. Intion ; and the only effectual means of removing these another. I hope that there is not a man nor a woman | If a thousand persons out of Manchester, Bolton, or | evils from amongst us, is, by making the principles in this room, who will not be ready to sacrifice life and Blackburn were on farms, they would be increasing contained in the People's Charter the law of the land; limb before any class of men in this country shall have | food. But this chauce for them has been knocked ou | and that the thanks of this meeting are due, and hereby the exclusive right of arming. I knew that it was the head by the monopolist, and this great evil is given to Feargus O'Connor, Esq., the dungeon-proof Peel, the Prime Minister of England. (Hear.) He every man's right to have arms to defend life and pro- increased by the money-monger. Speak of these things patriot, and all the other brave men who have suffered is only a quack called in by a faction to oure their perty, and I knew that that was the law when I saw | to the great farmer, it is nothing to him: through it, imprisonment for advocating the the cause of the poor Lord John Russell making these invitations to those he supports his farm, for he aids in the great deadly oppressed; and we pledge ourselves to give them all past seven o'clock, Mr. O'Brien entered the room, certain classes to arm; making no such invitation to competition in the towns; and thus will the evil con- the assistance in our power until the principles of of Eccles to cure their disorders. (Laughter.) Now, accompanied by a number of friends, who, with hands another class more useful and numerous-telling them tinue increasing till you are completely ground down. universal liberty be firmly established as the laws of without saying one word about the sacrifices which I willing to labour for their livelihood, have hearts deter- that he would find them with arms for that which never could have taken place, if a portion of you the British nation." purpose, although they had the least likelihood to get had been upon the land. It is the interest of every purpose, although they had the least inclinious to get that been upon the main in the inclusion of every Air. WM. FOTHI them. When I found out this 'dodge,' as they say in man who has money to keep down him who has by accianmation. Mr. WM. FOTHERGILL seconded it, and it was carried

tion, and said that he would rather go to the bottommeant his to the drones, I meant mine to the bees, until the poor man is as rotten as Mark Anthony. (Applause and laughter.) The Attorney-General did; (Hear.) If 200 men out of employment go into called to the chair, briefly opened the proceedings pot tell the Jury that the Government there had ad. a town, where 200 men are employed bolonging to send into Parliament, sooner than vote for a Tory. No principles of democracy. (Hear.) I listened to a porhumanity, upon his liberation from a long and infamous unless when opposed to tyrants should he ever be wages, before they who have money in their pockets liberation from a long and infamous unless when opposed to tyrants should he ever be wages, before they who have money in their pockets liberation from a long and infamous unless when opposed to tyrants should he ever be wages, before they who have money in their pockets liberation from a long and infamous unless when opposed to tyrants should he ever be wages, before they who have money in their pockets liberation from a long and infamous unless when opposed to tyrants should he ever be wages, before they who have money in their pockets liberation from a long and infamous unless when opposed to tyrants should he ever be wages, before they woo have money in their pockets liberation from a long and infamous unless when opposed to tyrants should he ever be wages, before they woo have money in their pockets points of the land, that we should have been prepared for them by the Manchester friends, points of the Charter, with the principles of which the principles of the Charter with the principles of which the principles of which the principles of which the principles of which the principles of the princi ever party in policies they might belong, would pay then of every man to carry his masket out of his house; deep-rooted interest in cheapening labour, consequently readers of the Charter is passed, every man will become a headed by the Eccles band of music, towards Man. when called upon, to drive his enemies out of the ! in cheapening whatever labour can produce, and why receive any thing which might appear extraordinary trine-(a voice in the crowd, so do 1);-and here any have no power in making the laws, that you have no frequently during his very excellent speech.

I, after an eighteen months' imprisonment, for its ad- property. What a damning piece of impudence then Mr. O'BRIEN then arose, and most feelingly ex-vocacy, ready to advocate the same doctrine sgain. It is for the secondrel money-mongers to say "you horted the Chartists not to be entrapped into overt Mr. JAMES MAWSON rose to move the first resolu-Loud clapping of hands) "But, O!" cries the Whig shall have no voice in the legislation, because you have kicn; he said he perfectly a priesced in the sentiments spy, "Mr. O'Brien's language was sufficient to alarm no property." That beats Bannagan, as Bannagan her Majesty's peaceable subjects. (The tone of voice) beats the devil. (Cheers and laughter.) The right of Mr. JOHN PARKINSON seconded the resolution, in which 'peaceable' was pronounced produced roars of the people to vote is admitted, but then the Govern-fiends, to lead the people into outrage, so that a prewhich was carried amidst the most enthusiastic accla- laughter.) Nothing of the kind; I made them all as ment anys they have not intelligence enough to be text might be given for butchering them, whilst gagging it from the Eccles side, and fall back upon some of the merry as sky-larks. "Oh! but you did slarm some entrusted with that power. Why, from the oppres- bills, and other measures, were passed to enslave

"That, in the opinion of this meeting, the practice persons," they say. No doubt of it at all-every rogue sion of the laws you are left little enough to obtain food them. of rersecuting men for their political principles is not in the country. (Continued hughter.) If a farmer goes to est, much less to have any wherewith to educate Thanks being given to Mr. Lund, for his able cononly inconsistent with justice, but a manifestation of out with his gun loaded with powder and shot to drive, your children. (Applause.) But then if you become duct in the chair, the meeting broke up. the worst species of tyranny; we, therefore, hail with away the rooks stealing his crop, is the farmer to possessed of a certain amount of property, however | The room throughout the proceedings was crowded delight the liberation of Mr. Bronterre O Brien, from whom the field belongs to drive away those rooks, or uneducated you are, you can vote. I deuy the right of almost to sufficiation.

a cruel and unjust imprisonment of eighteen months, they are to drive away him-(universal laughter)?-and property to qualify a man to vote. The most ignorant Although long confinement has evidently much dea crael and unjust impresentent of eighteen months, they are to drive away main-(universal isughter)?—and (property to quality a main to vote). The mass ignorant (and universal isughter)?—and (property to quality a main to vote). The mass ignorant (and universal isughter)?—and (property to quality a main to vote). The mass ignorant (and universal isughter)?—and (property to quality a main to vote). The mass ignorant (and universal isoghter)?—and (property to quality a main to vote). The mass ignorant (and universal isoghter)?—and (property to quality a main to vote). The mass ignorant (and universal isoghter)? (and the vote) is a greater of the noble uncom-part of the people of this country." (because forward, when the is a great deal wiser main than I am. (Re-provising patriot will be glad to hear that his spirits (because forward, when the newed laughter.) Well, then, if I did alarm any por-tereming was long and longly resumed. He said, my of them that portion of them which should have been (be point for whom he intended to a mind seemingly, if possible, more active; and his de-good friends of Lancaster, I am extremely sorry that (be the pole is the work of the mass is the work of the people's the pole is the pole is

Noble Patriots, Yours, in the cause of freedom. In behalf of the National Charter Association, (Signed) GEORGE LINDSAY. Sub-Secretary.

The address was beautifully written on an embossed sheet of paper, and was neatly edged, with green ribbon and decoroted with the portraits of O'Connor and

O'Brien. Mr. DAVID MORRISON, in a few words, seconded the address, which was put by the Chairman, and carried unanimously amidst tremendous cheering, The Chairman said that Feargus O'Connor, the celebrated advocate of the people's rights and popular liberty, would next address the meeting.

Mr. O'CONNOR, in coming forward, was received with entliusiastic cheering. On its subsiding, he said, Mr. Chairman and brother Chartists of Eccles, I think I now stand in a better position than does Sir Rubert disorders; but I stand here with my diploma-[exhibiting the Eccles address]-and called in by the men have made, as stated in the address, which I deny ; but if I had, the expressions in this document is my best reward. (Hear.) When I came amongst you'at first, I found very few adults advocating the principles of Mr. BEAGLEY, delegate from Accrington, then spoke the Charter, but that you were split into sections and very effectively. He condemned the Torles to perdi- factions; but what did I find this morning?-not only the congregation of men grown grey in the good cause, Frost, Williams, and Jones, and, after a few observaless pit, to rake up one of the vilest of its imps, to but a youth, a mere strippling, addressing you upon the corrupt Government should ever put him down, for he tion of his observations with some interest; and to one would stand up the advocate of liberty, universal thing I beg to differ, which was, that when the Charter that it is not necessary to follow the worthy delegate. sort of national soldier, and the sons of place chester. The Eccles men had provided several banners, He was loudly cheered at the conclusion, as well as men and statesmen would receive promotion ac- which were carried in the procession, the men walking according to their merits - (hear), -and that policemen four abreast, and extending a considerable length. The would be the first to promote the peace of their coun- curiosity of all classes on the road was very great, and try instead of breaking it. (Hear, hear.) It is one of the patriots were everywhere received with the greatest the tactics of a good general, before he storms a gar- courtesy. Amongst the mottos on the Eccles flags we rison, to get possession of the outposts; and really, if Manchester was backward in the good cause, which, thank God, is not the case, why, I should certainly take other villages near thereabouts. (Cheering.) In those villages fortunately for us the enemy has not got so valuable a footing even with the aid of their splendid houses. There are plenty of huts; and may be they will pass into one of those huts, and from thence into the workhouse yet. (Laughter and hear.) But they begin to smell a rat. They have no objections to the Charter. (Hear.) "Oh no," they say, "we have no objection to the Charter, not we, indeed, provided we can derive more benefit from the working classes, than

dear friends, the middle classes, particularly some of the publicans, who reviled the Chartists, and applied to them all kinds of opprobrious epithets, making them thieves and firebrands. If, however, they would come forward and meet him, he would endeavour to convince them, by fair argument, that the Chartists were in the right. (Hear and cheers.) He congratulated them on their noble position, and hoped they were determined to join hand in hand, and stand side by side until they obtained the Charter. (Cheers.)

Mr. O'BRIEN, who had only arrived a short time pefore, here came forward; evidently labouring under declining health. He was received with tremendous cheers, and addressed the assembly in very few words. expressive of his pleasure at meeting them; first, because it was a proof that he was not a prisoner; second, because he saw they were glad to see him; and thirdly, because he saw before him so many happy faces-a sight to which he had long been a stranger, as within the dungeon walls there were few happy faces to be seen. He rejoiced in the opportunity which was afforded to him of returning thanks for the excellent address which had been presented, and congratulated them on the noble position they had in so short a time attained, and which he had no doubt they would improve. He retired amidst cheers.

Mr. WM. GUIHRIE propesed that the thanks of the meeting be given to the joint friends of Manchester and Salford, for the assistance they had given, and the attention they had paid to the interests of the Eccles Chartists, since they had formed their Association. The resolution was seconded by Mr. Shearer, and unanimously carried.

Three times three hearty cheers were then given for tions from Mr. Bond, of Chester, thanks were proposed to the Chairman, and the meeting broke up.

Mr. O'Connor, Mr. O'Brien, Mr. Benbow, and the Rev Mr. Jackson, then entered an open carriage, which had noticed the following :---

" More pigs and less parsons."

The People's Charter ; it is built upon justice, and against which the gates of hell and the world shall never prevail."

Universal Suffrage, Annual Parliaments, and Equitable Adjustment :"

And on the obverse side---"Repeal of the New Poor Law Bill."

" Down, down with class legislation,

Wherever it reigns it's a curse to the nation." "For a nation to be free, it is sufficient that she temple of Chartism ;

For they are damned if they rise."

MANCHESTER DEMONSTRATION. Continued from our sixth page.

portrait of Feargus O'Connor, Esg. the Champion of the people's rights." Reverse-" A mation should have courage to achieve its liberty, with power to defend it, wisdom to secure it, and generosity to communicate it."

Band of Music.

at this part of the procession. Green silk flag, with " Feargus O'C. Bnor, the champion of the people's rights ;" from Miles Platting.

union.' Banner.

wants of the people ought not to exist" Portraits of Feargus O'Connor and Dr. M'Douall, decorated with resettes. Oil painting of Mr. Benbow, with appropriate mottos. Cheering, and waving of hats, which lasted for some posed the following resolution.

Brown-street white flag.

"Liberation of Feargus O'Conner, Esq., the unflinching myself, nor to show you to break the law; and thereadvocate of the people's rights." Oil painting of Dr. M'Douall. Motto-M'Douall is our friend."

" Manchester Political Union."

Banner. Motto-"The People's Charter; and Repeal of the Union.

Obverse-"The producers of wealth should be the first cause for the last two years, and in speaking of the consumers." Green silk fing. "The Salford Branch Association." Banner.

" Manchester Political Union-Peace, Law, and Order."

The number of pedestrians, who walked four and six abreast, was beyond calculation, and to these followed band or to the left, the strength which our imbacility a long line of vehicles filled with people of both would give to our opponents, and enable them to Se I de newieldy quickened mass towards Stevenson's Square ! reason, my friends, for giving and for counselling On passing the Informary, the crowd was so great that to give, fair opposition in the way of argument to every people were carried along with the pressure, the whole i clap-trap question which is proposed for your amelioralength of the street being lined to suffocation. On tion while it is accomplished, would but tend to their arrival at the place of destination, the Square strengthen the hands of the enemy in the resistance to was so crammed, that it was with very great difficulty the general principle of universal justice. (Loud cheera.) the carriage could effect an approach to a situation What! am I to look around and see before me that where the speakers could be heard Great inconvenience striking, and almost speaking portrait of Frost, Wilwas evidently submitted to; and, to prevent an acci. liams, and Jones, asking you, in dumb eloquence, to dent, the vehicle was stopped, when Mr. O'Connor, at restore them to their families, to their country, and to half-past six o'clock, in order to arrest attention, at their homes. (Loud cheers) Aye, don't cheer us;

you have no sympathy for them. This night's festival once commensed speaking. Mr. O'CONNOR presented himself. The cheering was was not made for them; and we now enjoy something immense. He said it would be folly to go through the like liberty, while they are pining in a penal colonyformality of appointing a chairman to preside convicted upon the false onth of a Government officer, over such a multitude; therefore, according to his and upon the affirmation of hired (byernment spies. custom, he would go forward at once. (Hear.) He (Great sensation, and cries of Shame, shame.) Well. said, I am particularly happy to be present here to- that was the Whigs. (Cheers, and "It was.") I fought day, for two reasons; and let no man hiss, hoot, or hard for the Dorchester Labourers. (Cheers, and "You groan, while I am explaining one of those enermities did.") I never saw them. I fought hard for the which will create a sensation of horror in every breast. Glasgow Cotton Spinners, and I had not seen Firstly, I rejeice at the overpowering multitude met them until they were arraigned. I have not rein the celebrated spot, Stephenson-square; and I I am happy to be present because it proves that I am not to be dismayed even by the threats of the assassin. (Hear and cheers) You all surely reprodute the and it the fact of being the best of Mayors-the best of nience, it was thought desirable and prudent that the Irishman and a Repealer; and in that letter I am told his person, and I know him well, were centred all was advertised that that if I dare come to Manchester, that I should be those excellent qualities which constitute the man, the assassinated, though thousands of lives were lost in the patriot, and the Christian. (Loud and long-continued) with the announcement, "We're Irish, we're Irish; who would dare do it." Mr. O'Connor continued. No; in a dingy transport ship, and one of the first hundreds of other applicants. The Hall is capable of and those state dependants, high and low, are taught, no Irishman would dare do it. My body guard into acts under a Charter Government would be, holding about 2,500 persons, including the gallery, during any excitement, either to uphold their support, Manchester from Eccles, a distance of four miles, con- to charter a Government man-of-war-hear)-and The party holding tickets, the sexes being nearly in or to join in resistance against us. They are told that sisted almost exclusively of Irishmen. (Cheers.) And bring the convicts home in triumph to their native equal numbers, were accommodated at three sittings, revolution must follow our agitation, and that their I believe I have shaken hands with nobody else land. Lond and long-continued cheering.) Here Mr. up wards of 500 taking tea at same time, the others oc. ruin must follow revolution. (Cheers.) Hitherto the to day. But although you would not sanction it, O'Connor made an allusion to a tall gentleman, who cupying the galleries and dancing room respectively. license of the shopkeeper to gamble in duties, customs, yet if the assassin had succeeded in the threat—and stood on the platform immediately under a splendid Considerable, though unavoidable, delay therefore excise, and all indirect taxes, has effectually bound them if I was capable of being dismayed and intimidated - full-length striking likeness of Frost, Williams and 'arose before the tables were clear, and it was eleven to the State: but that link the State itself has snapped the same threat would only have to be repeated Jones. and who, Mr. O'Connor was informed was the o'clock before the chair was taken, at which hour because the state has drained their customers and left in order to prevent my attendance at public meetings, son of Mr. Frost. He said "behold the living son, the intellectual part of the affair commenced. Great them full shops. empty tills, protested bills, ugly wives, (Hear, hear, and cheers.) But I am not dismayed : I standing under the father's picture, supplicating God praise is due to the procurateurs; and satisfaction, am here ; where is the assassin ? (Lond cheers: Let' to lock them once more in one fend and affectionate order, and the utmost good feeling prevailed through. | cold bastile as the result of their mis-placed confidence him strike. Where are the heroes who are to put me embrace." Every eye was directed towards the indivi- out the immense audience. down ? (Cheers and laughter.) Let not the Irishmen dual, and was followed by waving of hats and cheering. here mistake me; I would not allow my countrymen which lested several minutes. At this moment the poked themselves into office, and power, and rewards, and heard her moans, all caused by the want of that their side, and the Whigs would yet become Chartists ped it in the winding sheet-he would have buried in in awe of such a thing as himself. Howas put in mind inscribed, "National Charter Association." In addi-Charter which I look for as a healing balm for all her and oppose the Tories, in which case the Charter must when he thought the that it was near one o'clock; he certainly did intend tion to the tickets which were issued for the back and thought the that it was near one o'clock; he certainly did intend to the back and thought the back and the back and the back and the back and thought wounds. And where, now, are these virtuous ones who prevail, and although both Whigs and Tories combine; monster was dead like Rip Van Winkle it to have addressed them at some length; but he would public were admitted as spectators into the boxes and every seat Another large, well-finished, full-length, oil-painted so copiously abused me? Where now are all those who the cause of Chartier must prevail. (Hear.) With was bat entrainced, and like Rip Van Winkle not do then, because he knew they had their domestic gallery, on payment of a trifling sum, and every seat called me Tory, because I directed my fire upon the these remarks he would close, having also to speak in upon awaking from its slumbers, so powerful became enemy immediately before me and in power-where I the course of the evening, in the cause of liberty, free its strength, that it was at a loss to recognise its own ask are they ? Where is their great course in giving dom, and universal happiness. (Applause.). The Rev. JAMES SCHOFIELD was happy to see them to that Heaven born minister the opposition with which he sought to be met upon the very threshold of office. on the present occasion, and proud to see in their ranks which was dug for Chartism ; over it we will place the (Lond cheers) I have been a month at large, and during the old bainers of freedom, which had for some months | dead body of Toryism, and over both we will erect the that time, show me the man of any class who has back been lowered. They were again unfurled in the Four large tri-coloured flags, which had a good effect opposed and registered his determination to oppose my glorious cause, and their colours could not be unfuried friends the Tories as I have done? Not that I think on a more honourable occasion. (Hear.) He could not them much worse than the Whigs-not allow that opportunity to pass away without making that I think they would resort to more base one observation on an occasion set apart to welcome the Reverse-" May there henceforth be but one law, that or tyrannical means for represing my principles, or patriots home to their friends and familles. (Hear.) of nature; but one code, that of reason; one for killing me, than the Whigs have; but because He was, however, sorry to see that the very head of threne, that of justice; and one altar, that of they are in immediate possession of power which I their body was somewhat poorly and looked indisposed, consider unconstitutional. (Cheera.) On my route and he was really afraid that the people would not here to-day, a fine bold-looking working man said to allow him that rest and hepose from his labours which heavier of the innocent mirth. He while you; he appeared so much in want of. (Hear.) "A Government that neglects the physical and moral me, "Well, Feargus, the Whigs havn't killed you; he appeared so much in want of. (Hear.) hat by G-d, Bobby will" (Scouts of laughter, and Mr. BEESLEY, of Accrington, in returning his This, Sir, under the state of things which we seek to And society had come to that pitch, that almost every stances, he thought it his duty to at once state that

Very large green silk banner, with white border. time.) And 141 ten you why, because 1 and dots 1 and dots 1 and this meeting places the atmost connected attack is made upon me, it Feargus O'Connor, Esq., and hails with pleasure and the people-the foundation-the source of all power." mined that if a second attack is made upon me, it Feargus O'Connor, Esq., and hails with pleasure and shall be upon form and not upon law, as the last delight inexpressible the reappearance of that goutlewas; and I am resolved neither to break the law man, together with J. B. O'Brien, Benbow, Jackson, and the other suffering patriots, again amongst us, confore I believe there is sufficient honest intention, moral sidering them to be the undaunted, unflinching, and courage, and stern determination in the people never | consistent advocates of the rights and liberties of the to resist an illegal attack against a political enemy. starving millions, and for their perseverance and late (Loud cheers.) Suppose, as the working man said. suffering on our behalf, place our unbounded confidence that Bobby did kill me, how funny all the Teries at in them, not only for their labours, but for their great Manchester would look when the news arrived. (Hear.) : sacrifices, and hope and trust they will receive the ma-Mr. O'Connor then entered into a review of the Chartist nifestations of gratitude and esteem tendered this day by us, the working men of Manchester, as an indica-Corn Law said, will you just think of a parcel of fellows : tion of such. We therefore hope that it will stimulate who think all the houses, large and small, too little them forward in their patriotic and glorious career. for themselves, and yet talk of giving you a large They and we joined in one firm bond of union until losf. (Cheers and laughter) Well, then, am I to our efforts are crowned with success: the liberty of the people, and the restoration to their country and their suffering millions, the close of the debate was anxiously join them? (No, no.) No! and are you to join them? No, certainly not; and I'll tell you why. Beaffectionate families, those suffering exiles, Frost, Wil-

cause if we go a hair's breadth either to the right liams, and Jones." Mr. M'CARTHY, of Liverpool, seconded the motion in a few words and deprecated the opinion, circulated for throw us backwards, while they had wholly annihilated

In this order did the procession move on with its the people and their cause. (Cheera) That's my culumnious purposes, that the English portion of the country (Ireland). The resolution on being put, was carried by tremendous applause. the day, with his apprentices, and sixteen reporters, in FEARGUS O'CONNOR, Esq., briefly replied to the resolution, in the name of his friend Frost. The conduct of the people was beyond all praise. The "blue bottles" were marshalled in Lever-street; but the Chartists would not be swerved nor intimi- tation of the heaven-born Minister, Sir Robert Peel, and military force.

down to the defence of the present Tory Government, The whole of the proceedings were conducted in the and the refutation of the existence of the distress best temper, and each man exerted his interest to deduced from the draws from, and deposits in, the mitigate the excessive annoyance arising from the vast savings' banks for the last four months, as used by the greater probability of its becoming the law of the land, concourse in the Square being propelled onwards by latter, and who, be it observed, says that his Govern- it was doubly so then. (Cheers.) John Edward Taylor those in the rear who could not get in at all. This was ment possesses the entire confidence of the people. an argumentative lesson to the enemies of the Charter. Let us see how the principles of the first union of the Chartists, for he said that a great deal of the success of

" Leave pomps to those who need 'em, Adorn but man with freedom, And proud he braves The gaudiest slaves That crawl where monarche lead 'em.'

The pressure upon the carriage, however, at length interfere with my duty to Frost. (Loud cheers) become very great, and the density of the crowd was Now "Billy Pitt" bound almost every man, whether What should merit expatriation to a penal colony ? Is not unattended with danger. To remedy the inconve. possessing land, connected with trade, expectants from patronage, recipients from public bounties, nonymous invitation which you saw placarded upon 'magistrates-the best of Poor Law Guardians-the best business should here close; and the proceedings in and all that tribe of beggars to the State. tions be speedily crowned with success." your walls. But what will you say when I inform you, of fathers-the best of husbands-the best of friends Stevenson's square terminated, providentially without That was the heavy game, and it was left that I received a letter-not an anonymous one-but -the best of citizens, and the best of subjects? If so, a single accident. The postilions were then desired, for the pigmies who followed him to try their hands at one bearing the signature of a man calling himself an Frost was guilty; Frost should have suffered, for in to drive to the Hall of Science, Camp field, where it a "little go" of chicken hazard. This was effected by the establishment of Savings' Banks and the appropriation of the deposits to what they call national purposes. That was another link which bound another struggle. Here a forest of Irish hands were hold up, cheers.) Well, what is the Charter to do for Frost, would be held at seven o'clock, and to which 1650 class immediately above the people to the State. Williams, and Jones ? Why, they were expatriated tickets had been issued, with the necessity of refusing (Cheers.) Thus have our ranks heen always thinned affairs to attend. There was one thing which caught | in these places was occupied. his attention, when Mr. O'Connor was addressing the The arrangements were excellent, and reflected identity. (Loud cheers.) But, Sir, the biter was bitten. meeting. In soliciting their attention, in order to sup- credit on those by whom the entertainment was We have placed the corpse of Whiggery in the grave port their cause, he seemed to forget that it was very managed. simple, which was merely that they wanted to be represented in the House of Commons." He then showed the inconsistency of the "League" in agitating for a "And then they will both be still if they are wise (Langhter and cheers.) Sir, I have been now after a hard and fatiguing day's work, a mere spectator of the social happiness which I have seen around me for more than five hours, while this immense building was being join them, the Chartists. (Cheers.) The Whigs had cacy of the cause, and for the especial purpose of given them the Reform Bill which had set the middle hearing addresses from two of those-namely, Mr. four times replenished with those who crowded to the Nay, he weint i No, I believe you; at least if he acknowledgments to the men of Manchester, for their establish, should not be a thing of accident, or of an man considers or looks upon nearly every other man on that occasion they would only have the pleasure of does it will be a dear purchase. Lend and long noble exertions in the cause of universal liberty, pro-theoring, and waving of hats, which lasted for some posed the following resolution. the year after a reasonable day's work. (Cheers.) This cious Whigs, or those more atrocious, if possible, the had taken any unfair advantage, he was instructed very room, Sir, and such buildings are auxiliaries, and Tories, and had let them see that a spirit of liberty was to say that were any persons present disappointed, and not mean ones in the cause of Chartism. Hear we mest still living in their bosoms. Mr. O'Connor had told wishful to retire, they would have their money returned. -here we commune together-here we interchange them of a union-but he (Mr. Benbow) wished to know He then explained the circumstances under which Mr. opinions here, by admiring virtue and decrying vice; | what sort of a union he meant ; he wished him to be | O'Connor had entered into the arrangement to attend at we place bounds to poverty is beautiful contrast with distinct and definite. There was such a thing as a black Liverpeol, and read the following letter which he had idleness and consummate profligacy. (Loud cheers.) Union-a union of perjury and infamy. He for his just had put into his hands :--This proves your power when you combine; this part, hoped he would always have sufficient resois the work of your own hands, and I am told that the lution to resist being united with a traiter-and if they same parties are now engaged in the erection of a simi- would do that, they would defy any kind of men in lar edifice at Stockport. Let these be encouraged. They are seminaries where knowledge can be diffused, before which the mist of ignorance will very speedily their side, would soon arrive at the haven of freedom.

A TEA PARTY

the world from injuring them-if so, they would become respectable--if so, they having truth and justice on be dissipated. (Loud cheers.) Sir, I was in the House He would recommend them not to follow any man but the of Commons on Friday night last,-(laughter,)-and cause, and, like the disciples of Jesns Christ, have a such a House man or beast was never in before. If a single eye. No, no, he would not be deluded, he would man rose by chance to throw in a word en behalf of the keepa single eye fixed upon the man whom he considered to be a traitor. After making several other remarks, he sought, and the means resorted to for its accomsaid that he was an old Repealer of the Union-he complishment were most logical, conclusive, and conjoined Daniel O'Connell in order to get a Repeal of the vincing. They began and ended with Bor ! Bor ! Bor ! Union, because he conceived it would be a benefit not divide, divide, divide, boo, boo, boo, and such like only to the sons of the sister Isle, but for the working powerful reasoning. (Shame, shame.) I fear, Sir, that men of England also. He hoped however, in conclumy excellent follow labourer, Christopher Doyle, who sion, that they would make justice and equity their population were opposed to the rights of his native spoke so ably to the first sentiment, the people has polar star. He would not keep them any longer, but made a mistake in his calculation of that body. I be- would give ample time for Mr. R. Jackson to give them lieve, Sir, in Parliamentary phrase, the Minister of four or five hours if he thought proper. (Cheera) Mr. JACKSON was next introduced, amid vociferous

galleries in the House of Commons, are intended, go- cheering. He said that was the third time that day he vernmentally, to represent the suffering people. (Cheers.) had been brought before them, and he feit highly Let us, Sir, take a brief review from the days of the honoured : if ever he felt proud, or felt willing to make a sacrifice in behalf of the Charter, it was that night | having Mr. O'Connor amongst them at a free meeting. heaven-born statesman, Billy Pitt down to the resusci-It had been said that he had left the cause of the dated, nor frightened by any such a formidable civil- let us see from the funding system of the former Charter, and was about to units with a man who was not a Chartist. Heaven forbid ! It had no foundation in truth ; for he believed that if ever there was a time when it was necessary to labour for the Charter, and a was compelled to acknowledge the influence of the the Tories gaining power was owing to the services rendered by the Chartists; although at other times he ministers, and how the present heaven-born one makes would assert that they were only the rabble. After use of the last link of this golden union, in order to touching upon many other subjects in his usual lively prove who the people are, how the people are, and and eloquent strain, he sat down, by thanking them for the honour conferred upon him, and retired amidst loud applause.

Air-" England for ever, and the land we live in." Mr. DUNAVAN rose amid loud cheers. He felt fa- the people? The producers of all wealth-the workvoured to have the pleasure of responding to that toast, ing classes. (Hear.) And there was another question, because it showed that he, an Irishman from Cork, "Why do you toast the people?" to which he replied too, (smiles from Feargus,) possessed their confidence, that they sere indeed the legitimate source of all and went on to prove that the working men of Eng. power. The working classes were admitted to have land were not hostile to the working men of Ireland. (Cheers.) However, as to the toast, the country had manifested their power, and that very lately too, by elected the Executive, and reposing great confidence in taking, as they had been advised to do, the them, appointed them to direct the movement which power into their own hands of managing their was then going on, in the achievement of which the own affairs They had manifested their power, interests of Irishmen were involved. Those men he also, in the recent electioneering struggles, when knew personally himself, and he believed them to be | they had stepped in amongst the candidates and offered sincere, honest, and persevering men in the cause of themselves to be the representatives of their own redemption. After exhorting his hearers to renewed body; and in doing so they had acted most manfully, exertions, having brighter prospects before them, as a and had given utterance to sentiments which, though sure token of which, they had only to witness the de-unpalatable, were nevertheless true, and were expressed monstration of that day as unparrelleled by anything in language not to be misunderstood. (Cheers.) He naked children, broken hearts, and the prospect of a ever attempted in England before. (Cheers.) He sat | toasted the people because they now proclaimed that down by thanking them for their repeated expressions | war should be no more, and because they had deterof applause. The next toast given was " the exiled and imprisoned | a new kind, and should be of a nature far superior to patriots, and may they soon be restored to their coun- any that had ever been offered to them. (Hear, hear.) try and their homes."

The tea equipage having been removed, On the motion of Mr. AMBLER.

Mr. LLOYD was unanimously called to the chair, and measure which did not go to the root of the evil, and in opening the business of the meeting, he said he even if it would, they were not sincere in their advocacy | trusted that by their kindness he should be enabled to of Repeal, whilst the Chartists on the other hand were shew to them how well' a working man could preside asking for that which God and nature designed them to over a meeting composed of working men and women. possess. It was not right, honest or just that the Char- The meeting had been got up to do honour to those tists should join them, but it was right that they should | noble patriots who had been imprisoned for their advo-

" Mosley Arms' Hotel, Manchester, Sunday night.

" SIR,-I feel assured that you will give me credit for the sincere regret which I feel at not having it in my newer to attend at your festival to-morrrow night intended to honour my excellent and much valued friend O'Brien. It was my intention to have made one of your party, nor was I aware till after my arrival at Manchester, that their arrangements would debar me of the pleasure. However, your own good sense will point out the impossibility of both O'Brien and myself absenting ourselves from an entertainment got up at much expense. Of all men living, there is not one of whose public worth and private virtues I have a greater opinion than James B. O'Brien, and therefore, do I feel the disappointment more fully. However, he and you, will, I am sure, take the will for the deed, and receive my apology perhaps with less sorrow than I experience in making it.

"Your faithful friend.

"FEARGUS O'CONNOR."

Under these circumstances, he trusted the Committee would be exonerated from all blame, and that at some future and not distant day they would be gratified by (Great cheering.)

The CHAIRMAN then proposed, as the first sentiment of the evening-"The people, the only legitimate source of all power." (Three times three.)

Mr. AMBLER responded to the toast. He was sure that nothing could give him more pleasure than speaking to such a toast, on such a convivial occasion, and in the presence of one who had suffered in the cause of the people. (Hear.) There was such a war of words between parties at the present day, that it was a difficulty to discover who were the people; but he thought it might be discovered by referring to the utility of the parties. (Hear, hear.) He repudiated any ill-feeling against the lady who now held the sceptre of these lands, but in his opinion there was no necessity for such a personage. (Cheers.) It was necessary, certainly The CHAIRMAN then gave "The Executive Council of to have a presiding head over all assmblies; but while the National Charter Association; and may their exer- he admitted that, he considered that a person holding such office should be selected for his filness, and for his talent : but under the present system. a child or a fool might fill the office. (Hear and cheers.) But who are manifester: their power in various ways; they had mined that the institutions of the country should be of He teasted them because of their knowledge, as manifested in their inventions, which were of such a nature as to be capable of making the people such a people touching and affecting manuer, having been called upon several times before on such occasions, he was quite at the people because of a long-neglected and downtrodden portion of that people, the brawny and industrious sons of old Ireland. (Cheers.) Some other observations occupied the remainder of the speaker's time; and, after congratulating them on their taste for meeting together for mutual improvements, he sat down amidst great cheering.

wherefore the people are, friendly to his administration.

anti-popular party, created by the heaven-born Pitt, has been followed up by all succeeding heaven-born

yon. (Cheers.) They shall not then want any opponent, its height, and to go bail for me, when others would the platform. publicly. I have no occasion to give up the recom-mendation of physical force, as I all along denounced shall not depart. (Hear, hear, from Mr. Schuld). The CHAILMAN opened the proceedings by stating dissolution of the late bad Cabinet of bad men was countrymen. Hear me, then, Englishmen, Irishmer, and me : I am fortunately placed in circumstances to of applause. and Scotchmen, if it is to take away the pretext for render me independent of your support. He is not. The band-Marsellaise Hymn. disunion and to gratify Irishmen, I pledge myself not The advantage is mine, but the fault not his. (Cheers.) Mr. DOYLE, after addressing the Chairman and the ness in the interest which they conjointly have in lookeven to mention the name of Mr. Daniel O Connell, so You must, then, counteract the fault. He is going to numerous audience, said, that there was not perhaps a long as he abstains from abusing Chartists and the establish a newspaper-that newspaper is to be his toast or a sentence in the English language than the one Charter. I give him carte b'anche to make me his daily bread, and to be another portion of your know- he had been called upon to respond to that had been whole stock-in-trade. Loud cheers) I am not afraid ledge. The compliment between you will be recipro- bandid about by pariles who, when properly tested, of Irishmen. If 10,600 were here to assassing me, cal. You must support him-let me shift for masself. were against extending political power to the working $30,000 would be ready to arrest the assassins' blow. Put him upon his legs; he has been well tried -- classes. It was must true that the people were the Here again, a forest of hands were holden up, and cheers -and do not allow your apathy to effect that legitimate source of all power; yet they were, collecimmense cheering followed.) What, in God's name, which Whig tyranny has fulled to accomplish. Cleere.) tirely an't politically speaking, slaves, which he could said Mr. O'Conner, can there be different in the interests After some more observations, Mr. O'Conner sat down, show, had he time, but it could not be expected that he of an English working man, and an Irish working amid thunders of applause. man? and how can it be that all Englishmen see : Mr. BENBOW said that this day, it would be admitted time of five minutes. However, he conceived that the necessity of making the Charter the basis by our enemies, had indeed been a clorious day in be- every man should be in possession of such power as the possession of a House of Commons based upon the has been a most splendid demonstration. He was of capital; that every man who has an quarter's return, of the first quarter's reign of Toryism, the platform, was met by several vociferous rounds of legislation, while Irishmen are taught to look upon half of the Charter. Both factions must say that this would proteet himself and his labour against the very principle which we all seek to destroy as the only opinion that had a similar manifestation of opinion interest in society, and he trusted the working man thing worth contending for. The Repeal of the Union and sympathy been made formeriy, they would long who produced everything valuable in society would be without the Charter was a mere cuckoo cry. (Hear, ago have stopped the monsters from their wicked deeds considered to have a material interest as to its welfare, hear, and cheers) If the Irish wished for a Parlia- of blood-he meant as far as the Charter was concerned, should be protected. The Whigs have made use of ment in Ireland, and if the whole magic was in the Hear. He was alraid that few could hear what he the toast, and the Tories too, considerally, yet both rame of Parliament. we would make them a present of them said, such was the state of pressure from the would do all they could to prevent them, the people, joint-stock hells. (Cheers.) But yet I have not done Mr. O Connor and the voteran Wheeler, the latter ours, ready cut and dry; box and dice, and all. Hear, crowd; be should, therefore, pressure from the would do all they could be prevent them, the people, joint-stock hells. (Cheers.) But yet I have not done Mr. O Connor and the voteran Wheeler, the latter would do all they could be prevent them, the people, joint-stock hells. (Cheers.) But yet I have not done Mr. O Connor and the voteran Wheeler, the latter with this financial sophistry, which passed current right before his time, and the former putting him How was the honesty of the advocates of the justice his friend, the Rev. Mr. Jackson, to follow him. He, more happy than he had done that day in witnessing principle to be tested ? by their promises or their per- however, returned them his sincere thanks for that such a glorious d-monstration, and to see such a large, formances? What he had done was before them mark of their sympathy; but hoped he would be orderly, and respectable assembly met to do honour to What he promised to do was to get 4,000,000 of signor allowed just to tell them that at some fature day, honest and upright Charlists; and in doing which they, tures, which would cast him 21 000, demanding a when they might be wanted, that they would come out the working paper, had done honour to themselves. repeal of the Legislative Union. Lond and long-con- in the same numerous and social manner that they had (Hear, hear.) Sir John Campbell has stated that Chartinned cheering. How, give me leave to ask you, can sthat day monifested towards Mr. Feargus O Conner. , tism was dead; but he wished he had been there that you test down the trouny of the Irish landlords with himself, and others, and then most assuredly both night to see its resurrection. After making a few other the present franchise? - Cheers - How can you con- Whig and Tory would die as factions- (k.ar and cheers - pointed remarks, he retired amid loud cheering. tend against the oppression of the Law Church, with : -- and the Charter would become the law of the land. its enormous representative powers, and the standing Hear.) The factions would rather that the kingdom army to back it? Hear, hear, and loud cheering.) were a Solom and Gomorrah, than you should enjoy How, I ask, can you do these things without altering your freedom. (Hear.) It was by such demonstrations as the principle of representation, which has led to the those simultaneously in that and other towns, that the aggressions of both ! (Hear, hear, Aye, my beloved people of this country could alone hope to become free. Air-" Scots wha hae wi' Wallace bled." connirgmen, you have annoyed me much, and annoyed Are you ready to become free? : Yes, we are. He (Loud cheering,) which was renewed by the Chairman me long. Hear, hear, and cheers. But I have more wished they were. An old man on his left hand said | calling upon Mr. Bailey to respond to it.

THE SOIREE

in a trafficing oligarchy and a gambling government. (Loud and long continued cheering.) But, Sir, to come more minutely to this question of the Savings' Banks, that he would have found the result to be similar to quence to risk their stakes and have off's at the great other deductions from the admitted fact of the deposits exceeding the demands at any period. Is it not, have fixed incomes; I mean domestic servants, and small shopkeepers, and a few of the better employed of

to wage so unequal a war as a few thousands scainst Rev. Mr. Schofield reached the carriage, from which Was formally opened by the Rev. James Schofield being let us, by this financial measure, tost the financial hundreds of thousands. If they want to assassinate , Mr. O Connor was speaking, when he turned to called to preside, Mr. Feargus O'Connor, Mr. W. V. powers of that heaven-born Minister, who is to perme, they have only to unite with the enemy; and him and said-"In the person and in the attendance Jackson, Mr. Benbow, Mr. Livesey, and Mr. Barker, petuate in bruss the union which his predecessor estacome and be killed, unless you can disprove any and of the Rev. Gentleman, we have the man who was with their immediate friends, and the Committee of blished in gold. (Loud cheers and laughter.) Now, I every charge which any or every man can bring against brave enough to defy prejudice when tyranny was at Management, or Demonstration Committee, occupying | pray you to follow me through the reasoning of the sophist. In answer to the prevailing distress which is for I will go in the dead of night sgainst them, and feel shame to have done the deed " (Loud cheers) This At the lower part of the room, immediately beneath admitted by every man, woman, and child, save the them alone, wheresoever I should be led. Loud gentieman's presence, at all events, provas my consis- the gallery, were suspended two full-length representa- very parties to whom we are to look for its correction,-cheers) I was requested this day at Eccles, by an | tency, because he is the very man who took the chair and tions of the invincible friend of the people, Feargus | (cheers)-what does he present as a satisfactory answer Irishman, who walked four miles to see me, to give up presided over the first meeting, now six years ago, which : O'Connor, Esq., and another, bearing also full length to this cry of stalking poverty and nakednees? Why, he the recommendation of physical force, and the at using I attended at Manchester. I trust that he will assure ' paintings of Frost, Williams, and Jones. They are shows us the returns for the last four months from the Saof Diniel O'Conneil, and they would all join me in a you that the very principles which I then propounded, well executed and highly finished portraits, and were vings' Banks, and ingeniously selects from the manufacbody. To that I gave no answer; but I now do it and my determination to agitate for nothing less, are the the same borne in the Manchester procession, and excited turing districts his answer as to their present condition

it (Lond cheers, and "You did.") But the very men Mr. O Conner then entered into striking arguments that he was in a peculiar situation, in consequence of doubtful, that the amounts drawn out considerably who put the Lord Mayor's chain upon their neck, why and wherefore the several trades of Manchester the appointment they had given him. He hardly knew exceeded the deposits; he then goes on to show that had so nobly swelled the ranks that day by their name, how to address them, whether as brother and sister the elections in July having proved that the trade-wind by blustering about physical force, even cut of the bers and strengthened the cause by their countenance. Chartists or not, he being one as well as themselves ; of Toryism had set in, produced a large excess of depocannon's mouth; and because I would not desert, thrust | He said he did not think that it was within the power; he would call them brethren in the cause is its over the amounts drawn out. The same results, he me in in their stead. (Hear, hear.) When I invite you and scope of possibility, in the present state of general of Chartism. (Cheers.) He felt great pleasure in thus build the produced to a greater extent in the month of -by buying cheap and selling dear,-(cheers.) he his development of the present of the you hear of me joining in any secret movement, such countless thousands, with such a magnificent should be able to discharge his duty with satisfaction to then brings his returns down to the 11th of the present then desert me; because you may rely upon it that I display of splendid flags. (Loui clicers.) One word those over whom he was called upon to preside. He month, although he could have had them to namely, the Slar, the advocate of the rights of labour. should either be the paid tool of a faction, or shall be for a friend, and I have done. O'Brien, another Irish- was a working man like themselves, and at times wore the 22nd.; and the triumph of even the eleven preparing you for suction. (Loud cheers.) I need not, man, my friend and colleague,-cheers.-is another fustian; and he considered that the character of a days of that month he offers as proof that his admisay more of physical force: and now as to Mr. Daniel proof that the English do not hate the Irish. (Cheers.) labouring man was the greatest honour he could possess. Inistration commands the confidence of the O'Connell; let us see who makes the opposition; and He was here to-day; but the immensity of your Cheers. After making a few preliminary remarks, whole people. ("Oh! oh'! and laughter.) Now, Sir, test, at all events, my desire to conciliate my country. Procession having postponed to a late hour he said he would give the first toast upon the list, each let me see if an ignorant Chartist can do that which the men by the answer which I shall give. I care not for cur trrival on the spot, and the necessity of speaker being aware that their time would be short, 'English House of Commons either were ignorant of or personal abused man in the world. I am abused by both him of the plensure of thanking you in person. I do would like to trip it on the light funtastic toe. He go to the principle; and though by no means a friend Whigs, Tories, and Repealers. (Cheers and cries of it for him, and l'it tell you more. It is in your power then gave—"The severeign people, the legitimate to the Whigs, I auswer his first assertion thus; that sumption in him to thus eulogise the Star, but such not by Repealers. My answer, then is, that I should be to make him doubly useful to the cause, and it is your source of all power," and called upon Mr. Doyle to upon any sudden change or fluctuation of political was the case that it made the people independent of justly chargeable with a desire to preserve dissension daily to do so. [Cheers.] He is about to enter into his 'respond to it, who, on coming forward, was greeted power from the hands of one party to another party, werel to refuse even a greater request made by my natural element. There is this difference between him with lond cheers, clapping of hands, and other marks the same result will be produced. (Cheers.) Confidence He had weathered the storm in and out of danger, is paralysed for the moment, and the Tory-stakeholder,

c. uld justice to such an important toast in the limited also knew that the succeeding months were a period and the Ludies generally."

The CHAIRMAN rese, and said the next toast was-"The Coarter, the only medium through which the labouring classes also contribute. (Loud cheers, and prosperity and real happiness can ever be attained by | " that's it.") Well, but I have not done: for now I the toiling millions."

over production, and a consequent dimunition in the than once told you that I was not to be irritated from that he was ready. He wished most sincerery that a Mr. BAILEY said, it was an honour to have to respond price of their produces, places all servants with fixed

Air-" Exile of Erin."

Mr. CARTLEDGE responded to this in his usual home, and shewed plainly his ability and willingness to the cause to do justice to this important toast. The CHAIRMAN in a very flattering manner gave "the Chartist press."

Air-" Bonny breast knots."

Responded to by Mr. GRIFFIN, reporter to the Northern Star, who returned thanks for the manner in which the Chairman had introduced the toast, likewise his of the British Empire." sincere thanks for the merry manner in which the band had played the air, and for the enthusiastic manner in which the crowded assembly had received it, because it convinced him that though he was pointed at by the finger of scorn, by those who live out of the people's labour | had to regret that a want of experience might render of Manchester much valued the paper referred to, (Loud cheering.) He would likewise take that opportunity of thanking them for the glorious and triumphant | which he should be incapable of. (Cheers.) He looked manner, and for their tokens of respect to F. Connor, Esq., who established the Northern Star, which had done more to bring the people to a general understanding with each other, and had done more to spread instruction amongst the working millions; than all the other press put together besides. It might appear prethe proprietor himself.-(Hear, hear, from O'Connor.) neither turning to the right nor to the left,-(loud cheers,)-advocating the rights, liberties, and immuniand the Chartist-stakeholder, merge their distinctiveties of the millions. In order to be short, having great ing to their own properties. That neither Whig, Tory, respect for the ladies, he would there and then or Chartist, upon a change of Government, would long pledge himself to, as far as his abilities would permit. hesitate to withdraw their deposits, whatever might be both with tongue and pen, defend right against might, the effect upon their political party. (Cheers.) So the weak agaist the strong, justice against injustice, much for that: and now for the facts. Didnt this truth against falsehood, exposing tyranny and corrupcunning gentleman know, that June was a quartition, until freedom, happiness, and contentment were ter-day, and that the demands for rents, met the lot of the industrious yet starving millions of the by checks upon the saving bank, are at that kingdom. (Loud cheers.)

period, as sure as death. (Loud cheers.) He The CHAIRMAN then gave "The Female Chartists. when deposits were made to meet the coming quarter, | Responded to by Mr. WHEELER, who kept the au-and which is now: and I pledge myself that if the dience in convulsive laughter. Right Hon. Gentleman had waited for the whole Mr. O'CONNOR then rose, and when advancing to

of cheering, waving of scarfs, hats, and handkerchiefs, that in the last quarter of Whiggery, namely, an excess clapping, cheering, and stamping, which beggars dein demand over deposits. (Loud cheers, and "true.") scription. When it abated, he moved Mr. Schofield Why, Sir, does not the very name tell us that it is the do leave the chair, and that Mr. Wheeler take his stock-purse fo those who are not of sufficient conse- place.

Here a little familiar sparring took place between with this financial sophistry, which passed current rising before his time, and the former putting him in the House of Commons. Now, Sir, I will draw down again, and pulling each other by the coat tail, which excited roars of laughter. Mr. O'CONNOR then, in a very flattering manner.

then, matter of notoriety that but few day labourers make moved a vote of thanks to the Chairman. He did it deposits in the S.vings' Banks. (Hear, hear.) Is it not only because he was an esteemed personal friend not a fact that the principal amount is made up by the of his, but as a public friend to them, hearing of his deposits of the newly created class who may be said to good services on behalf of the public. (Cheers.) Mr. JACKSON rose and seconded the motion, and giving three times three for each. The cheers were persons having small annuities? Little tradesmen, when put, was carried with long, loud, and enthu- given with great enthusiasm.

siastic cheering. Mr. SCHOFIELD responded.

Thus ended the oratorical part of the proceedings, come to use the Rt. Hon. Baronet's sword against himit being about two o'clock. Mr. O'Connor, the Chairself-and what do I prove? Why, upon a small scale, man, and a number of the good and true, left the what I have ever asserted as an undeniable proposition, Hall, highly delighted and elevated by the glorious is this: that the poverty of the people, produced by | and orderly display of the day.

The band then struck up, the forms were sided, the his right cheek and jaws. Musson was conveyed to price of their produce, places all servants with fixed dancing masters came to their post, and the females, the General Rospital, near Nottingham. A con-incomes—be they high, or be they great, or be they about five hundred in number, took their turns in the stable apprehended the woman on the spot. On his small—in a better position. Those household servants

The CHAIRMAN then gave the next toast-"The People's Charter, and may it speedily become the law

The toast was drank amidst the most enthusiastic cheering.

Mr. WILLIAM JONES responded to the toast. He said, in coming forward to speak on that occasion, he observations he should make, he should not trespass upon their patience, while he would leave to the gentleman who had to follow him to supply that definition upon Universal Suffrage as the chief point of the Charter, and without which it would be a dead letter. and not worth the attention of any real Reformer (Hear, and cheers.) He did not recognise the accidental circumstance which gave to one man a vote, while it reduced another to the level of the brute. (Hear.) So long as the working classes could boast of having produced from their ranks a Paine, a Franklin. a Burns. and a Bloomfield, so long would they be capable of exercising the rights of freemen, and claimed for him that distinction which raised him above the fool and the brute. (Hear, and cheers.) True, it was that a frightful mass of vice and depravity existed, but it was also true that a vast mass of misery and want were abroad, created by class législation. (Hear.) The Government depended in a great measure for its support on the vices and immorality of the age, and so ong as this existed-so long as the younger branches of the aristocracy were dependent for their existence on the professions, and the elder branches had the priviloge of the entail, so long would the present anomalous state of things exist. (Cheers.) Mr. Jones went on at very great length, and with much eloquence, to expose the fallacy of the present system of class legislation, to which source he clearly traced the evils under which the nation groaned, and for which the Charter alone would provide an efficient remedy. His speech occupied above an hour in the delivery, and was frequently interrupted by the hearty cheers of the company.

The CHAIRMAN said the next toast is, or was intended to have been, "The Guests;" but, as only one of these gentlemen was present, it placed him in a difficult position. He thought, however, there would be no impropriety in giving "The health of James Bronterre O'Brien," and in associating with him the name of O'Connor, with best wishes for their future welfare and presperity, he went into a detail of the services rendered by the two patriots, dwelling upon the merits of both in a highly enlogistic style, and said that as they were so much indebted to them, he should call upon the meeting to repay part of the debt by

(Continued in our Eighth page.

On Sunday morning week, a woman named Musson, living at Carlton, near Nottingham, finding her husband in bed with another woman, fired at him with a guu, and shot away a large portion of duty, neither am I to be turned from my course by con- similar feeling prevailed in all the lowrs; if it did, to such a toast, for he was sure if it was fully carried tumely, slander, and threats of assassing to us all. The toast to small-in a better position. Those household servants, amusement, which lasted till nearly five o'clock, and arrival at the hospital, it became necessary to perhear, and bud cheers What now is it, coupled with become the law of the land. (Appianse.) He again, which he had the honour to respond, stated " that the and persons with small manufes, and those who even then the mirth was so profitable, that had it not form an operation, and Mr. William Wright, surthe requise of ven one of my countrymen, that I re- thanked the meeting for the mark of their syn pathy quire in return? It is to watch me and been too soon. And thus ended one of upper and lower jaws, which had been broken by the Mr. (Cornel and respond, are now by the working men's produce, are now by the working men's produce produ Mr. O'Conneil, and to judge for themselves. Not to for the testimony of approbation at any rate, lions." (Hear.) The state of society in which we now poverty enabled to purchase the same annual amount the most numerous, splendid, and enthusiastic disallow in interested rartisan to judge for them, but that they had paid him. Tea is ready. A voice had live did not, politically speaking, give us prosperity; of clothes and other manufactured articles for one half plays ever held in Manchester, and, in the opinion recover if lock jaw does not come on ; at present he to judge for themselves, whether he or I take the reminded him that tea was ready, he would consequently, an' the state in which we ought to live would give us their former price; the other haif, consequently, be- of many, unequalled-and which reflects a lasting is not out of danger. Incredit upon the committee of lake the reminder min matter as ready, ne would concerning, and the state in which we ought to hve would give us interformer price; the other man, consequencity, us of many, unequalica-and which remeats a lasting of many, unequality. He hoped, however, that they comes a depest in the savings' bank, but is lodged in credit upon the Committee of Management, the Destructive Fire Near Woolwich.-On Thurs-the name of the privileged Unionist, instead of being females, the blistered hands, unshorn chins, and day morning, between one and two, a firebroke out in a state of being day morning the the working millions having the the working millions having the the state of being of the privileged Unionist, instead of being of the privileged unionist, instead of being of the privileged union of the privileged union of the privileged union of the privileged union of a state of the privileged union of the privile the meeting would teach the acting millions having the working millions having the complish the possession of their rights and privileges; placed to the credit of the plundered operative. (Loud fustion jackets of this great emporium of commerce. a cottage on Plunstead-common, occupied by Fir. fustion jackets of this great emporium of commerce. a cottage on Plunstead-common, occupied by Fir. fustion jackets of this great emporium of commerce. a cottage on Plunstead-common, occupied by Fir. fustion jackets of this great emporium of commerce. a cottage on Plunstead-common, occupied by Fir. fustion jackets of this great emporium of commerce. a cottage on Plunstead-common, occupied by Fir. fustion jackets of this great emporium of commerce. a cottage on Plunstead-common, occupied by Fir. fustion jackets of this great emporium of commerce. a cottage on Plunstead-common, occupied by Fir. fustion jackets of this great emporium of commerce. a cottage on Plunstead-common, occupied by Fir. fustion jackets of this great emporium of commerce. a cottage on Plunstead-common, occupied by Fir. fustion jackets of this great emporium of commerce. a cottage on Plunstead-common, occupied by Fir. fustion jackets of this great emporium of commerce. a cottage on Plunstead-common, occupied by Fir. fustion jackets of this great emporium of commerce. a cottage on Plunstead-common, occupied by Fir. fustion jackets of this great emporium of commerce. a cottage on Plunstead-common, occupied by Fir. fustion jackets of this great emporium of commerce. and expe- pawer in their own hards for their political emancipation and be felt assured that peace and plenty would then and uprove of the commerce diency should give way to humanity and principle, and tion, were determined to exercise that power in the length and breadth of the land. Laws to-morrow, and machinery will make a drug of that each, forgetting himself in the general want which cause of freedom and justice. (Much cheering.)

prevails, should now put his shoulders to the wheel, The Rev. W. V. JACKSON said, on coming before and try and shove conwards the only remedy for generally the people on that occasion, he could not sufficiently prevailing distress? Loud cheers.) When we look express his gratitude to Almighty God that Mr. Feargus the names of the guests of the evening. Messrs. "Setting the "large loaf," and buying your produce at round, and see the untenanted houses, the cottages i O'Connor, Mr. Benbow, himself, and the rest of their Feargus O'Connor, J. B. O'Brien, Wm. Benbow, W. a drug price, and making "deposits" of the surplus to halled up, and the cellers teeming with the unhealthy! friends, were once more found amongst them advocatforms of half-buried ghosts, who are suffering living ing the glorious, the mighty cause of freedom. (Hear.) labour, and the other patriotic guests who have sufdeath by thousands, stalking abroad in ackedness, and The last time they were together for the dissemination in the midst of warehouses filled with the produce of of similar principles, and at the time when Mr. Ben- most enthusiastic cheering, followed by volleys of "consolidated" into blood money, person money, spy their industry-where, I ask, can be the heart of the bow was addressing the people in favour of those prin- clapping. The applause was quite deafering. man who would, by any means, either assist in ciples, he (Mr. Jackson) and others were being chained upholding the system that has led to such hand in hand and conveyed to Kirkdale House of Cora state of things, or withhold his assistance rection. (SLame.) How very different on the present from the establishment of a system which is to destroy occasion-(hear)-and how different the feelings and it [Lord cheers] Why am I hated by the aristocracy number of the people. That day their friends were waving their handkerchiefs and bats, and cheering for the minister as an answer to our demand for relief. in Ireland? Because I had the bodies of the murdered taken from their beds long before day-light, and conexhined, when they came wrongfully by their death, signed to dark and dreary durgeons. (Shame.) But ! Mr. O'CONNOE said, Sir, it is a characteristic of and had inquests held over them; because I attended thank God, they were assembled together in greater Irishnen, that even after death they are attached to the i at Reiheormac, and there sought satisfaction for the power and strength than on any provious occasion. very appearance of the departed, and nothing more conblood of my Catholic countrymen, shed by the thrant (Hear, hear.) We are yet unconguered-(great) solatory to his heart, than that the corpse shall present hard of the surpliced ruffians of the law-church, backed applause)-but the Whigs are dead never to rise again ; : a good appearance, and as I may be truly said, to be

(Hear.) If such principles were worth struggling your produce, which the foreigner may or may not for. such principles were worth dying for. (Cheers.) take for the promised food, as he pleases, and those The CHAIRMAN introduced, in complimentary terms, with fixed incomes will have the double advantage of V. Jackson, the unflinching advocates of the rights of the amount of millions upon millions a-year as long as fered in the same cause, which was received with the ever at the command of the oligarchical unionists to be Air-" Auld lang syne."

When Mr. O'Connor came in front of the platform, death. (Loud and long continued cheering.) This is the whole company rose simultaneously, and remained one of your greatest causes of complaint presented by columns of our space. Our readers will therefore see that the demand for Liverpool, Leeds, and Sheffield, doing justice to Mr. O'Connor without doing injustice to others. 7 people.

LIVERPOOL

cient of a public procession, and confined to a soiree, alarm was given the Royal Artillery engines and was nevertheless of a most soul stirring character. parties of mon arrived, but could not obtain a suffici-For some time an active committee had been formed, | eut supply of water ; the entire building was burnt who have been indefatigable in their exertions to give effect to the arrangements, and by their endeavours, money, in cash and notes, were consumed. money, and commission money ; to shoot you, to pray backed by the spirited conduct of the men and women MURDEROUS ATTACK ON THE POLICE .- Friday. you, to swear you, or in some shape to consign you to of Liverpool, an entertamment was got up worthy of about one o'clock, a policoman named Berry, while the cause, and worthy of the patriots. The soirce was soizing a fellow who was climbing over a garden the cause, and worthy of the particles. The source was solving a ferrow who was officiating over a garden held in the Queen's Theatre, Christian-street, the inte-rior of which was adorned and decorated in most beautiful style; the stage was devoted to a cross table and stabled in several parts of the body by the ruf-[The remainder of Mr. O'Connor's speech, which was most rapturously cheered, would occupy more than five for the chairman, the guests, and the speakers ; the pit | fian and two of his companions. The ruffians left was floored over, and throughout its length were placed | him apparently dead on the ground, and made their all coming upon us at once, precludes the possibility of six tables, at which were accommodated upwards of escape across the fields. Subsequently, Sergeant six tables, at which were accommodated upwards of escape across, the holds. Subsequently, Sergeant five hundred persons, of both sexes. In front of the callery was suspended a large and handsome flag, on which was inscribed, "The speedy return of the and they immediately procured a stretcher and con-

originated, but it is supposed the chimney must have been ignited and communicated to some of the wood work, of which the building was principally constructed. Mr. Carrington and his family, who had The demonstration in this town, on Monday last, in honour of Mr. O'Brien and Mr. O'Connor, though defi-their night clothes. Within a short period after the to the ground, and almost all the furniture and by the size power which the present system of repre- and though the Torics are in power, we will convince, one of the parents of Chartism, and being an Irishman a station gives to the corporate and infide? Christians, them that the Chartism must ultimately become the law must it not be balm and consolation to me, to see Mr. BENBOW was next introduced as an old and conexiled patriots to their hones, and to their kindred;" veved him to the station-house. A surgeon was sent portraits of the patriots, particularly O'Brien and for, avery assistance was afforded him, and he was Loud and long continued cheering.) Well, does man, of the land. (Cheers) For himself he promised defunct Chartism presenting this night, so comely a sistent Radical, whe rose amid loud applause, and said or above all things does an irishman change his nature, the people that although be had been summund, corpse, after having its nose pulled, and being laid out that he was once more in a position in which he could be had been summund. O'Connor, and of the exiled Frost, in handsome restored to his senses, and carried to his residence in frames, were hung around the front of the boxes; and Wynyatt Street, Clerkenwell, where he is now lying or forget the land of his birth when in a fortign clime ? in the dangeons, he was determined to exert in the most approved order by the Whig undertaker; speak to them freely and openly. To be sure he had No; why then should I less love Ireland now, though himself more than ever in the cause of freedom. (Hear) plain John Campbell. (Tremendaya cheers and laught always; spoken freely, fearlessly, and openly, for he frames, were hung around the front of the boxes; and Wynyatt Street, Clerkenwell, where he is now absent from her shores than when I was on her greenlands. God was on their side, and public opinion was also en | ter.) He would have wrap. (would " sooner be a dog and bay the moon" than stand in front of the proscenium was a lengthy banner, in a dangerous states to be a dog and bay the moon" than stand in front of the proscenium was a lengthy banner, in a dangerous states to be a dog and bay the moon" than stand in front of the proscenium was a lengthy banner, in a dangerous states to be a dog and bay the moon" than stand in front of the proscenium was a lengthy banner, in a dangerous states to be a dog and bay the moon" than stand in front of the proscenium was a lengthy banner, in a dangerous states to be a dog and bay the moon" than stand in front of the proscenium was a lengthy banner, in a dangerous states to be a dog and bay the moon" than stand in front of the proscenium was a lengthy banner, in a dangerous states to be a dog and bay the moon" than stand in front of the proscenium was a lengthy banner, in a dangerous states to be a dog and bay the moon" than stand in front of the proscenium was a lengthy banner, in a dangerous states to be a dog and bay the moon" than stand in front of the proscenium was a lengthy banner, in a dangerous states to be a dog and bay the moon" than stand in front of the prostates the states to be a dog and bay the moon" than stand in front of the prostates the states to be a dog and bay the moon" than states the states to be a dog and bay the moon" than states to be a dog and bay the moon" that states the states to be a dog and bay the moon" that states to be a dog and bay the moon bar and bay the moon bas a dog and bay the moon bar and bay the moon bas a dog and bay t

LIVERPOOL DEMONSTRATION.

(Concluded from our sevenih page.)

8

Mr. O'BRIEN, who was received with tremendous cheers and waving of handkerchiefs on his rising asked leave, on account of the delicate state of his health, to be allowed to advance more into the centre of the meeting, and to occupy a standing on one of the tables. This was at once conceded, and he proceeded with his address, which occupied nearly two hoars in the delivery. He addressed them as men and women of Liverpool, and hoped they would not be offended, because he did not know a more honourable title in existence than that of man. nor did he think the females would frown because he had not styled them ladies. He liked to be among the people-among those with whom he was always the most happy, and he was glad to see them there for a great variety of reasons. He referred to the imprisonment he had undergone, and to the unsuccessful efforts which had been made for his liberation, although the influence of Tom Potter, the Mayor of Manchester, had been successful in the case of the Rev. Mr. Jackson. He mentioned this to contrast the influence of wealth with that of the working classes, for while two millions of signatures could not procure his release, one man liberated Mr. Jackson. When he first went to Lancaster Castle, it was attempted not only to place him in the felon's ward, but to compel him to wear the criminal's uniform, both of which pieces of tyranny he had resisted and had overcome; but he was thus thrown upon his own resources, and while compelled to provide his own maintenance, was debarred the means of earning five pounds weekly, which he had had offered for writing for two newspapers. (Hear.) He had had much bad health, but had been enabled to weather out the storm; and all the time he had been in prison he had never set his foot on a board, -nothing but the damp stone floor, besides having only one seat, and that a three-legged stool. After he had been in some time, by the interposition of some of his wife's friends. Col. Yorke had waited upon the Marquis of Normanby, and remonstrated with him on the hardship to which he was subjected, particularly in being de-prived of earning a livelihood by his pen; to which his Lordship replied, "Why, this O'Brien you speak of, is the most dangerous man in the whole partydecidedly the most dangerons. (Langhter and cheers.) He then referred to the crime for which he had been Sentenced, and glanced, in the course of his long and excellent speech at the form of his indictment-the recognizances he had had to enter into previous to his liberation-the class legislation which was the foundation of all the bad Government-the economy and retrenchment of the Whigs for the ten years they had been in office-his return as the member for Newcastle, and a hint or two for Mr. Ord-his own lack of bodily strength-his exertions since his liberation, which, though it only took place four days ago, had seen him address no fewer than six public meetings. He told them what he had never tole tore, that he was put down by one of his own friends-(hear, hear)-it was quite true that he owed his prosecution to the rascality of one of the leaders of his own party-(hear)-he would not mention names, though he could do so, but such was the fact; he had fallen a sacrifice to a jealous feeling among those with whom he had acted. He then went on rapidly to glance at the proceedings of the late convention-explained his conduct on the national holiday-referred to the proceedings at the

Duffy had volunteered a song. This he sung in good style; it is his own composition, and is as follows :---MR. O'CONNOR'S WELCOME TO LEEDS. COMPOSED AND SUNG BY MR. J. DUFFY, AT THE

SOIREE.

Tune-" Rob Roy Macgregor, 0 !" WELCOME, from thy living grave,

Brave, bold O'Connor, O! The suffering millions come to save : Brave, bold O'Connor. O ! Thrice welcome here, thou best of men,

The widows' hope, the orphan's frien', Our country's pride, from hill and glen, We welcome brave O'Connor, O !

Tyrants sought, but sought in vain, Brave, bold O'Connor, O ! Thy great and noble soul to chain : Brave, bold O'Connor, O !

Say, have they tam'd the lion's rage? Or chang'd him in their Whiggish cage ? No, faith, they've not; I will engage, For brave, bold O'Connor, O!

Long may he live to take his stand. Brave, bold O'Connor, O ! Among the "workies" of the land :

Brave, bold O'Connor, O ! May Heaven bless the sacred cause. And crown his efforts with applause, And gain us just and equal laws.

Brave, bold O'Connor, O ! The prince of patriots is here, Brave bold O'Connor, O ! Brother Chartists rise and cheer Brave bold O'Connor, O ! Cheer him as an honest man, Despite of Whig or Tory clan, "My dear" Ray or "royal" Dan, We welcome bold O'Connor, O!

The conclusion of this song called forth much applause, which having subsided,

THE NORTHERN STAR.

sompany.

tremendous cheering.

Mr. O'CONNOR was greeted with the most vociferous to give them a large loaf, have eaten up both large received similar letters from Leeds and from Sheffield, cheers on rising. When the applause had subsided, he loaf and small; they have not only eaten up the public and from other places which I might propose to visit, said—Who would not go to York Castle for sixteen resources, but have thrown themselves upon the public and thus there would have been an end to the Chartist months? (Cheers.) If that experiment which the also. If this system be much further pursued, the cause. (Hear, hear, and cheers.) And now hear what Whigs so hopelessly have tried in vain, and if the public will help themselves; for hunger will break was the result. We had a very numerous tea-Tories have in store for me a similar punishment for through stone walls, and men cannot be kept honest by drinking which lasted from six o'clock till what I am doing, I only trust that a similar result Act of Parliament. (Hear.) But this Corn Law ques. near midnight, for the tables were replenished with upon my return to the people will await me. (Cheers.) tion is that upon which the Whigs will seek to elevate guests more than three times over. We had manufac-Sir, before I make any observations upon the senti- themselves, and keep out the Tories. It is hard to turers there, middle-class men, and shopkeepers, for ment which has been so enthusiastically responded to deal with the sophistries of those who advocate the by all present, allow me, in the first place, to return repeal of these laws. I wish I had some of them here; an answer to those addresses that have been presented I never can get hold of one; they are like pigs with And what was the consequence of my refusal to attend The CHAIRMAN introduced Mr. WESTLAKE, who to me. To that which came from the associated Char- soaped tails, I never can catch one. (Laughter.) I to this intimidation? Why, a deputation from the presented an address from the associated Chartists of Leeds and its vicinity; and Mr. Ww. HICK, who presented another from the Charter Total Abstinence Society, from whom also a large and beautiful rosette, suspended by a broad green belt, was placed round his neck by two of the females. It was inscribed, " Universal Suffrage, and no surrender." An ad-dress was afterwards presented from Hebden Bridge. The following are copies :that coming from the men of Leeds-(cheers)-there- entire quantity, and that the want of that two millions delight. What! you, the "ensmise of the Irish working. TO FEARGUS O'CONNOR, ESQUIRE. Honoured Sire,—With feelings of delight and exultation for the adequate expression of which and that as it has hitherto (through the very worst our powers fail us, the Chartists of your own more agitation, for I consider that the most difficult part of that those two millions are introduced from some foreign not the men who support the power of the law church? peculiarly adopted locality, the town and neigh- our work has been accomplished; for I have dragged state, we not only reduce the price of the home grown (We have no power.) Well; that is the very answer bourhood of Leeds, respectfully, heartily, and sin- the Charter through the mire, even in rotten Leeds) corn, but to the same extent we make ourselves worse that I have been giving for the last ten years; that you cerely welcome you to the renewal of that personal I trust that in future my conduct shall also meet their consumers of the products of our own trade than we have no power to do anything; and that if you had, it the Chartist Teetotallers, I receive it with not less that air and approaches of a province. After some further observations on Irish

Permit us to express our grateful thanks for your pleasure. It gives me great delight and satisfaction ters; but instead of doing that give me half a million topics, Mr. O Connor reverted to the subject of Antilong-tried, faithful, and ever ready services in the to find that I have been driven from the place where I of acres of land at home, and I will produce you the Corn Law Agitation, which he said had been set on long-tried, faithful, and ever ready services in the cause of freedom, and to renew the expression of our confidence that those services will be still con-tinued; that you will still battle for the cause which you have so long, so powerfully and so nobly advo-cated—the cause of right, of freedom, and of justice for the working man. The prove has done its worst upon it: but the for the working man. Tyranny has done its worst upon it; but the ing a terror to the drunken factions of Whig and Tory. Ball Ring at Birmingham—explained his conduct With regard to the advice which he was said to have good Providence of God has guarded you. Your (Cheers.) If I could connect the principles of temper-with regard to the land and an increase in the number of would has all he would have for the time of the sould have been reduced. (Hear.) It is would have all he would have for the time of would have all he would have for the time of would have all he would have for the time is the time of would have all he would have for the time is the tis time is the ti life has been spared; your fetters are now broken; ance and moderation, I may say, although not belong-more detailed report of his speech here, did not a of the bold; and so invigorate the whole, that factious baneful effects of moderation. Few men know how loads of your goods, new engines would be set up, and pended on the land. In conclusion he said—My friends, tenced, it might be, to a day or two's solitary

more detailed report of his speech nere, did not a want of room, and of time, prevent us from doing that justice to it which its merits demand. [Our Reporter attended the soirce, and found when be got there that the committee, not expecting him, had engaged a Reporter at Liverpool to furnish an account to the Star: being unwilling to deprive uin account to the star account to the star account to the star account to the star accoun account to the Star; being unwilling to deprive uim tinued union. We renew our covenant with you - saw me tipsy since the day I was born. (Cheers) wanting a day's meal? Do you see Mr. Marshall wanting fraction of one fractional part of the whole principles state that this was no fancy-drawn picture; of this engagement; an arrangement was made that a covenant of mutual service and reward. Yours Having thus alluded to these two addresses, let me next a large loaf? the man who, by reducing his wages from contained in the People's Charter. (Loud and continued it was one in which he had himself formed he should send a full report of Mr.O'Brien's speech, be the service of struggling for our rights-your turn for a moment to the ladies who have done me the 15s. to 14s. a week, can save £26,000 a year indepen- applause.) which, on Thursday afternoon, we had not received, reward the proud consciousness of patriotism-our honour to hang my principles round my neck. (Cheers.) dent of the advantage arising from speculation purheartfelt gratitude-our children's blessings: ours Whether it was that I was not prepared for so great an chases of the raw material! That is owing to the want The next toast was—"The ladies : may they become be the task to uphold and strengthen you. Thus honour or so gentle a touch, or whether it was that I of the Charter, and that is a fact which must be impres-good instructors of the rising generation," which was shall our march be irresistible. The flag of liberty had had for sixteen months the gallows always within my unfurled shall wave over the ashes of tyranny, and sight-(laughter)-or whether it was that I remembered matter what specious promises the Whigs may make in the prediction of the Birmingham Advertiser, which order to captivate the popular feeling and to get back said that I had mounted a ladder to a again to office; no matter what they may do, unless you Leeds and its vicinity, triumphal car, but that perhaps it was not have extensive organic changes, farewell to every hope the pleasantest evening he had ever spent in his life, J. STONEHOUSE, Secretary. the last time I should have to mount a of redemption for the working class. (Hear.) We are and he rejoiced that he had travelled to Leeds to be a ladder-I don't know; but I confess to you now in a position that we never were before. I have witness to their devotion to the principles of the that I did not like to feel anything so close to my neck. dragged this question through the mire. Every politi. People's Charter. He was delighted for two reasons-(Cheers and laughter.) However, when I turned round cal measure has to undergo its own share of slander and to witness their enthusiasm, and personally to repay HONOURED SIR,-The Chartist Total Abstinence and saw the hands who placed this there-(holding up disapprobation. I admit that I was scoffed at and spat the compliment to his eloquent countryman for the the rosette)-and the mosto inscribed on it, "Universal upon when I carried the little offspring under my coat eloquent manner in which he had ever advocated the Suffrage, and no surrender,"-(loud cheers)-I said, in the dead of night; and my excellent friend, Mr. | people's rights. He had been imprisoned for his printhere is to be a suspension, but not of my body. That Duffy, who has to-night entertained you to the best of ciples, and he could assure them that his opinions had suspension is to be of all the factious opposition which his ability, will bear in mind that six years ago, at not been in the least changed by his imprisonment of success, and they feel your exhilarating presence to has heretofore been arrayed, by the poor little creatures Sheffield, they cried "Hurrough Pat, what brings an but he stood before them a better Chartist, if possible calling themselves middle classes, and upper classes, Irishman here?" Have | not then lived down prejudice? than he was before he entered the dungeon's and shopkeepers, and Whigs and Tories, against the I go to-morrow to Sheffield, where, I can tell you. the gloom. (Tremendous cheering.) Since his liberation same men who cried "Hurrcguh Pat," in 1835, will be he had visited his native country ; that visit had not mighty power of a mighty people. (Hear.) That opposition must cease. And why? Because having beaten | among the foremest to say "Welcome Irishman." the one faction who thought themselves sufficiently (Cheers.) I started with reminding you of the great nounce to them that the great principles of the Charter powerful, by their union, still to hold the reins of Go- strength which the Whigs and Tories derived from the were steadily progressing throughout Ireland. (Tremen-vernment, we have now brought them into our ranks; system of delusion they were enabled to practice upon dous cheers.) He had stood before a meeting of Char-Praying that the time may speedily arrive, when and depend upon it that they will not adhere so much to their former principles, as to the means by which Mercury has not given up its old and flagitious practice. they themselves may be restored to office. (Cheera.) Yesterday, you had, I am told, from 1,200 to 1,400 There are many of you present who will recollect my persons assembled in the Cloth Hall Yard to petition first appearance as a politician upon the Leeds stage; on the subject of the Corn Laws; and, you may depend and it was not too much to say that with such a union you will recollect my after appearance among you ; and upon it, that we shall have that cried up on Saturday, how, upon each successive visit, the Whigs told us that as a great demonstration, the numbers being increased that the spread of their principles could be put a stop indeed the source of all power, and that they were of all our hopes-the establishment of the throne in Chartism was losing ground, that the Radicals were in geometrical progression like the nails in the horse's among themselves divided, and that from their opposi- shoe; and if the gentlemen from that office to whom which fully corroborated these statements, and which surely then worthy of their best concern to consider tion no danger was to be anticipated. How do they I have before referred, will do me the honour to said that let what influence soever be exercised, it was how the real power of the people could be best and Signed on behalf of the Leeds Chartist treat us now? If they find us strong they say attend, I will dictate leading articles for next Sa. not in the power of any party to stop the advance of most efficiently exercised for their own benefit. In that the Chartists are a weak, a divided, an turday's paper, both as to that meeting and the that little band. (Cheers.) He would not detain them the absence of legislative means, which they had insignificant, powerless body, but if they want an present. (Cheers, and laughter.) Now, I will venture further than to assure them that what he was, that supposed to be filched from them, there was no lever excuse for their own bad deeds they say, it is not the to assert that I shall either be booked for a prophet, would he remain, and that under no circumstances so effective in the hands of the masses as a sterling dewant of the confidence of the people in the Whigs or shall drive the Mercury out of its intention. You could a change be made in his sentiments. (Great mooratic press-and while this existed, and was rightly which restored the Tories to power, but it was the will see in the Mercury all the speeches, with the Chartists. (Laughter and cheers.) See what a thing the cheers, and something more, at the Monday's meeting ; acquisition of this great power has become ; is it a thing and, besides that, a long leading article, approving of appointed our delegate to represent us at Leeds, on | to be abused by a divided, inconsistent, and worthless | the spirit of the resolutions, and telling the faction that Tuesday next, to assure F. O'Connor, Esq., of party? My friends, they should not have told us our the proposer of the amendment was to be commended own strength. Their great strength for years has con- for having seen the necessity of sinking minor difsisted in the manner in which, through their organs, ferences, and consenting to sail in the same boat. And manner of his entry, to marshal the procession, and the glorious cause of democracy. And we hereby they have been enabled to persuade you of your ewn you will have another article about the procession toweakness, What was my first step in promoting this day; for, if my eye did not deceive me, I saw some one principles. proving to a demonstration that they were people had now learned to estimate the value of the which has become the universal cause of the people? in the cocklost of the Mercury Office, counting the It was to overcome that power which the press had : to numbers as they passed. They had a man who counted their affairs into their own hands. (Cheers) He was Northern Star should be by them placed at the head shew the men of Glasgow that the men of Leeds the whole people who came to the Kersal Moor meeting, proud, certainly, to see the honour which was paid to of that press, he would seek it not so much in any were with them in spirit; to shew the men of although they arrived by thirty-seven different roads! Nottingham, of Sheffield, of Huddersfield, of Bir-and he made the number to be just 3,339! and I have mingham, of London, of Dublin-(hear)-of Bath, and no doubt but that in the next Mercury our procesall those of the same class in the other towns through- sion to-day will be set down as consisting out the united kingdom, that among the working of 920 persons, twenty or thirty of whom were classes there could be only one view, that for their sal. women. (Laughter.) And thus they seek to deceive vation there could be only one object worth contending you. But presently the day will arrive when the for. (Hear.) Year after year we saw the Whigs, hosts of the Mercury will rise up in judgment against the while in power, obliged to feed their young by taxation, deceiver, and say, had it not been for your falsehoods, by commissions, and by places, and augmenting taxa- we should have wedded the people to our cause ; but tion according as the paupers belonging to the you persuade us, by lying and falsehood to wait till the their principles, and who would be chosen on the and upon these grounds he claimed for it a continu-Whigs increased, as the law of primogeniture did not time for something like union has well nigh passed by. allow them to be otherwise provided for; while the law That amiable, good-tempered, orderly, saintly. quintof population still went on augmenting the paupers in escence of gentility and good-breeding, Mr. Edward number. From that period to the present, what has been Baines, says that the Tories let me out of York -but men who would legislate for the whole country, eousness. the result? You had no King-that is, no monarch, living Castle for the assistance I had rendered to them : in London nine or ten years ago. You had no such but the Morning Herald says that the Whigs libedifferent opinion, and laid the blame on something person as William the Fourth reigning here in Leeds ; rated Feargus O'Connor to let him loose at the Tories: you were under the guidance and governance of King and the Leeds Mercury says that it is quite a shameful Baines-he was the monarch of Leeds. (Loud laughter thing that Mr. O'Connor should now agitate against the the people as stepping stones for their own aggrandise- would be brief, as after he had done, the band would tion. (Hear, and cheers.) They said it originated and cheers.) He was the monarch of Leeds, and it repeal of the Corn Laws, when he voted and speke was almost dangerous for the monarch in London to against them seven years ago. In that, however, the the few, and not for the many ;- in the fact that give his assent to, or withhold his assent from, any. Mercury is quite mistaken. Now that the Whigs are of it for themselves. (Hear, hear, and loud cheers.) toast was received with much cheering. thing that the King of Leeds thought proper to say. out of power, their first move will be, and it is import-(Renewed laughter.) In fact, punishment did not ant to know it, to' join in the suppression of Chartism. to them that which they had been so unjustly robbed, after which thanks were voted to the Chairman, and posed to repeal the Corn Laws; but, whatever always fall immediately upon the aggressor; but if King It may be said that the Whigs are dead; but they are of. (Great cheering.) The speaker then, went on to the proceedings terminated at nearly two o'clock in the William did wrong, the Queen was threatened with the only dead to themselves as a party, they are not dead say that there was more land than was required to morning. change of her sex : she was put into breeches. (In-) for mischief. They would rather see a majority of 200 health and prosperity to the country. (Cheers.) And creased laughter.) I am now shewing you how it is Tories in the House of Commons to-morrow than see which he argued that were the labouring classes treated forgotten, and the salutary effects of which must be this, he was proud to say, the people were becoming that this local rule of tyranny has been so long kept thirty men of my principles amongst them. (Hear.) and employed as they would be so far feit to the latest period of time, in the influence which daily more and more determined to have. (Cheers.) up. I am now endeavouring to shew to you that in We have still much labour before us; and I believe He congratulated them that they were met to wel- each locality there was a petty tyrant who told the much of the onerous labour will fall on my shoulders ; occupied in agriculture, as would render it unnecessary which are for the benefit of the whole human race. lane, up Lowerhead-row, down Briggste, along come an unbought and unpurchaseable advocate of people that the passing of the Reform Bill was quite and thank God, they are broad (cheers); and that females and children should any longer labour in Commercial-street, and down Albion-street to the their glorious cause-that they had any come an unbought and unpurchaseable advocate of people that the passing of the Reform Bill was quite and thank God. I am of those degrading rattle-traps, the factories, because the their glorious cause-that they had met to do honour sufficient to redress all their grievances. From that thank God they are strong ; and, thank God, I am of those dograding rattle-traps, the factories, because the Music Hall, the windows and house tops were crowded with persons, particularly ladies, by whom (cheers)—and though they had a great deal to con-Bill is a delusion, you began to waver in your alle-dread the oppressors' threats nor the great man's scorn. her effspring. He could not endure that women should be any of the father would support the mother and be any of the father would support the mother and that constitution, conformation and form, that I neither that constitution and form, that I neither that constitution and form and form, that I neither that constitution and form that constitution and form a

After an air by the band, Mr. Duffy was again an. of putting the amendment and the resolution, the of justice. At the Manchester demonstration, Chartists ; and paid a high compliment to the Northern nounced to deliver a resitation. He said he had been one of those who had been imprisoned, and consequently it carried. That chairman, an alderman, and a very All the trades came out under their own banners; such those who had been incarcerated would have been he knew what the sufferings of the incarcerated were; singular man, though a Goodman too, also put the a procession was never seen there since Manchester was much more severe, and, like Clayton, they might have but how severe soever his own had been, it was no resolution afterwards, and declared that both had been built; and such a scence will never again be witnessed been murdered. His blood still cried out for ven. matter; he was amply repaid by being present at the carried. (Hear.) I mention this to you in order to until I carry them the abstract of the Charter as the geance, and vengeance it would yet have. He thanked demonstration of that day, to congratulate in person the show you the next experiment that will be tried to law of the land. (Loud cheers.) But what were the them for the patience with which he had been heard. "uncaged" lion of all lions-the incorruptible patriot of break up the Chartist ranks. Now that the Whigs circumstances attending this demonstration? Why, and congratulated them on their numbers and bear. "uncaged" lion of all lions-the incorruptible patriot of break up the Unartist ranks. Now that the wings circumstances attending this demonstration is why, and congratulated them on their minuters and bear. all patriots. He was about to recite to them a little have lost their power, by their own trickery, by their some days ago I received a letter from a repealer, saydoggerel of his own composition ; it was composed in own deceit, and their own villany, they will endeavour ing, that in case I went to Manchester, I should be pressed on their minds, and that they would go home prison, where he was denied the use of pen, ink, and to hurl us once more into an agitation which will have assassinated, even if 6009 Irishmen fell in the strug- with a determination to come forward and join their paper, and it was suggested by having read some "cheap bread" and "high wages" for its object. I have splendid cantos of Byron's Don Juan, and by the cir-cumstances of a robin visiting his cell every morning, to narrate of the same of the servery morning, their speeches read prettily in Mr. Baines's paper, and the farewell to the servery point of the servery point of the servery point of the servery pill in Yorkshire. to partake of the crumbs of black bread which com- who is very ably represented here by a gentleman who letters, "who incited the people of Leeds to assassinate posed his food. He begged that they would excuse, therefore any inaccuracies in the composition, and take the will for the deed. Mr. Duffy then gave, in a feeling cury that whenever Feargus O'Connor presents himself, with standing this, the working men of Manchester met manner, an excellent poem of eighteen stanzas, which we always meet him fairly and fight the question out; in thousands to welcome O'Connor in Stevenson'sreceived, as it merited, the applause of the numerous but whenever Feargus O'Connor is present I never see square. And sure enough O'Connor was there to sompany. The CHAIRMAN then rose and said, that had he been bled from God knows where. (Laughter.) I never pocket, nobody had heard of it till I had got into Slevenin company of a party of either Whigs or Tories, he hear any of the rhapsodies of those gentlemen who son's-square; and when I arrived there, I stood up and might have felt great difficulty in fulfilling the task declaim so feelingly upon the advantages of the "large asked for the assassin. (Loud cheers.) But there which had been committed to him in proposing the loaf," and "high wages," and "plenty to do." Now they was no assassin at hand. I knew that no Irishman next toast, and in calling upon them to respond heartily may leave out that last point, for it is unfortunately a could be brought to perform so vile a deed. to the sentiments it contained; but in the present com- part of the portion of the poor man that he has I did not more shew my courage in going there than I pany, knowing that they had got Feargus O'Connor too much to do. (Hear, hear, and loud cheers.) In showed the opinion that I held of my countrymen. amongst them-(loud cheers)-he had no such diffi- an address presented to me from Hebden Bridge, and And who were the parties that flocked round the carculty. He gave them, therefore, "The health of which has not been read, they say, "We are deter-Feargus O'Connor, Esq. the unpaid, the untiring, and mined never to rest till the Charter becomes the law of a word of English; it was all Irish. (Hear.) But the unflinching advocate of the people, and justice to the land." I tell them that they can't, because there mark the moral. If I have escaped whom have I to Ireland, by a speedy repeal of the union." Drank with is no rest for the wicked. I tell them that they are thank? But if I had shrunk from going what would system-made wicked men; for those who profess a desire have been the consequence? Why, that I should have

"A fellow feeling makes us wondrous kind." presented an address from the associated Chartists tists of Leeds, and was presented first, allow me to say, have, in every shape, laid this question bare in all its Repealers, saying that they agreed with every word given (but which he denied) to the people to arm-and went through the various topics discussed in his speech which in some measure renders unnecessary a more detailed report of his speech here, did not a

Mr. Martin sat down amidst great cheering.

The CHAIRMAN next proposed " The speedy return of Frost, Williams, and Jones."

Mr. Skevingron, being called upon to respond to the toast, said—That after the achievement of the people's rights, by the establishment of the princi-ples of the Charter, the object nearest his heart was the desire to see those expatriated patriots restored to their country, their families, and friends. Personally he was unacquainted with Williams and Jones, yet, through the medium of the press, he had learned sufficient of their characters to entitle them to his most strenuous exertions on their behalf. Of Mr. Frost he knew much : he had been a co-worker with him in the cause of political redemption-he had fought with him, side by side, in the campaign against despotism, and he ever found him a man of sound principle and sterling integrity. Mr. S., after passing a high eulogium upon the public character of the exiled patriot and urging upon the audience the necessity of exerting themselves to obtain the full and immediate remission of the unjust sentence passed upon the three patriots, concluded by informing the men and women of Leeds, that being ap-pointed lecturer of the East Riding with which the Chartists of Leeds had identified themselves, he should have frequent opportunities of addressing them, and that as the time allowed for each speaker on the present occasion, was limited to five minutes, he would enter more fully into the subject at some early period. Mr. Skevington's address was well received throughout, and he sat down amid loud and long continued cheers.

The CHAIRMAN gave as the next toast-" The line ration of all incarcerated Chartists."

Mr. DUFFY was extremely happy both for his own sake and that of the meeting, that his time was limited to five minutes. He was little used to address meetings like that ; but his soul must have been indeed dead if, with the promptings of his) own experience he could hesitate but one moment to reci-procate the sentiment embodied in the toast. They temporary overbalance for the sufferings and privations which they habitually endured; but let him conduct them for a moment from that splen. did saloen to the hells of Wakefield, Northallerton. and Beverley, where their brethren were languishing. What was the condition of the Chartist captive in those abodes of misery at that present moment? He and were thus thrown on our own resources.]

drank with cheering.

Mr. AMBLER, in a few observations, acknowledged prosperity shall wait on justice. the tossi on behalf of the ladies, and regretted that at so late an hour a question of so much importance could not have proper justice done to it. He enlogised the duties they were called upon to fulfil, and hoped the day was not distant when their influence and importance in society would be felt and acknowledged.

The CHAIBMAN announced that he had been reminded of the object for which the meeting had been called, by having received from Mr. Ellis, the auctioneer, a sovereign for the press which it was intended to present to Mr. O'Brien.

Mr. O'BRIEN protested against the meeting being converted to one of a pecuniary nature to himself; it would detract from the pleasure he had experienced. He had come there to receive honour, and honour he had received.

The CHAIRMAN then dissolved the meeting, and chair, the meeting separated at near midnight.

Mr. O'CONNOR made his public entry into Leeds on Tuesday; he arrived from Manchester at five o'clock, and was met on Holbeck-moor by such numbers as scarcely ever before followed in the train of hero or statesman. In fact, at no previous period have the principles of which he is the advocate been so triumphantly-so enthusiastically honoured as on the present occasion. The arrival of the patriot called forth a burst of cheering which made the neighbourhood echo; while the joyous greetings with which he was individually hailed, stopped the formation of the procession to the town, and delayed its arrival for some time.

they were, proving, as at all other places where the becomes the law of the land. " fustians" begin in right earnest, that they lack not intelligence to manage their own affairs ; but where all are determined to do their best, the management of even so large a party becomes pretty easy. This does not, however, detract in the slightest degree from the merit due to the committee; for if the fying result.

So soon as the enthusiasm at the Moor somewhat abated, and the people had fallen back from the carriage in which Mr. O'Connor had taken his seat, then the procession was formed, and the trumpet sounded the advance-the head of the column being about half a mile before the carriage, and a dense mass occupying the entire road, the pace was slow, and the approach to the town was delayed beyond the appointed hour. The procession was accompanied by two bands of music, and a large number of flags and banners, bearing the usual inscriptions; and hundreds of persons were decorated with green rosettes. There were numbers of well-dressed females, also, whose presence seemed to furnish greater inducement to order in the rougher sex.

At the time the procession moved there were not fewer than from fifteen to twenty thousand persons present ; but these numbers formed no comparison with those by which it was afterwards actually accompanied through the town, while all along the route, namely, along Meadow-lane, over Leeds bridge, up Briggate, down Kirkgate, along Vicarof handkerchiels, green ribbons, &c. The progress Whigs doing all they can to dispossess them of it, found he held out hopes and promises that he was would join with you at a general election, and court ing overlookers, or that children should have to endure through the town was triumphant in the extreme ; the Whigs had all shut themselves in back roomsleader and chieftain of Chartist principles-repaying him richly for the sufferings he had endured, and compelling him to the adoption of still greater exertions, for the obtainment of still greater conquests. After the procession had arrived in Albion-street. which was so densely crowded as to be completely blocked up. Mr. O'Connor addressed a few words Soiree were to take place.

Signed on behalf of the Chartists of Leeds and its vicinity,

TO FEARGUS O'CONNOR, ESQ.

Society desire to express their unmingled satisfaction at again beholding you free, unmanacled, and nothing daunted in your glorious zeal for liberty. They hail your reappearance among us as an carnest brace the nerves of their determination, and to urge them onward to increased exertion. We beg you, as an earnest of our love, as a testimony of our gratitude, and as a pledge of our attachment, to accept this simple emblem of liberty and thanks having been voted to him for his conduct in the purity, which we are satisfied must always be coeval.

> your glorious efforts shall issue in the establishment, upon a legislative basis, of the Charter of our rights, and pledging ourselves to unceasing and continuous struggle, while we express an unreserved confidence in your gallant leadership, which has already done much, we look forward to the speedy accomplishment righteousness, and the universal prevalence of prosperity and peace.

> > Total Abstinence Society.

TO FEARGUS O'CONNOR, ESQ.

MY DEAB SIR,-At a meeting of the National Charter Association of Hebden Bridge, on Monday the 20th inst., Robert Sutcliffe was unanimously A committee had been appointed to arrange the our unabated confidence in him, as our political leader, and of our firm determination to persevere in to get up the soirce; and a very effective committee pledge ourselves never to rest until the Charter

Yours truly. On behalf of the National Charter Association of Hebden Bridge, HENRY BARRITT, Sub. Sec.

The CHAIRMAN then rose and said, they were well management became easy to them their entire ar- met on a most gloriously triumphant occasion, an rangements were nevertheless of such a nature as occasion on which Leeds had shown its power-had under any circumstances, to have produced a grati- proved to the factions that nothing less than their just rights would satisfy them,-that they were determined to have the Charter and nothing less. (Hear, and cheers.) All parties were ready enough to admit the existence of great distress-to admit that distress unparalleled prevailed at the present time, but they were not of the same opinion as to the source from whence such distress sprung. Some of them blamed the Corn Laws, and said they were the source of all the ills under which the nation was sinking-(hear, hear)-whilst others had a else. But the Chartists traced the evil to its proper source, and they said it originated in class legislain all laws being passed for the exclusive benefit of every thing is protected except labour. (Cheers.) To remedy this universal distress, one party promight be others' opinions, their opinion was, that the Charter, and nothing less, could ever restore!

the approach of Mr. O'Conner was halled by waving tend against with the Tories in power, and the giance to King Edward, and that mainly because you (Loud cheers.) Some persons of my position in society be any longer subjected to the brutalities of over-bear.

The CHAIRMAN said the next toast did not require nny comment to recommend it. It was, "The Charter, and may it speedily become the law of the land." (Great cheering.)

Mr. PETER HOEY, of Barnsley, was received with cheers, and responded to the toast. This was, he said, disappointed him; nay he was delighted to have to anpersons in different localities ; and even yet the Leeds | tists at Dublin, and he could assure them that were there no other society but that in all Ireland, it was enough to Radicalise the whole of the towns in Ireland. (Cheers.) They were united-they used their influence- | but a simple acknowledgement of fact. If the sen and such powers as they possessed, it was impossible to. (Cheers.) He had received a letter since his return | 50 was a truism universally acknowledged; it was cheering.)

at the late general election." (Loud cheers.)

```
Mr. WM. MARTIN, of Bradford, was called upon to communicate freely the results of their cogitations, respond to the toast. He said he was proud of being there was ever an amount of intellectual power in present on that occasion, not because Mr. O'Connor was the people to devise the means of effectuating their there, but because the men and women of Leeds had redemption from enthralment. He hailed it, then, that day shown so bold a front in favour of their own as one of the best tokens of the times, that the determined to shake off both the factions, and to take democratic press. If there was any reason why the his countryman, -- (applause)-because in honouring him particular individual talent, or energy employed they had also honoured his uncle and his principles. upon it, as in the fact that it was, it ever had been (Great cheering) Mr. Baines had on one occasion and while under his management it ever should be been guilty of telling the truth. He had said in a an essentially democratic organ-an organ recogletter that the people of England were determined to nising broad principles and universal rights alone-do justice to the people of Ireland. (Hear and cheers) an organ of their own, in which the people could
He did not complain of the number of Irish members, read their own minds, write their own minds, and but of their quality, and he was quite determined to see their rights asserted, and redress claimed for do his best to give them an opportunity of choosing their grievances. It was thus that the Northern members of their own-men who would advocate Star had become a terror to the people's enemies;
broad ground of Universal Suffrage. (Great cheering.) ance of that upholding favour which could alone
They did not want men who would legislate for the make it capable of tearing down the towers of church, or for a profit mongering faction,-(hear, hear,) corruption, and establishing the reign of right-and who would give protection to labour. (Cheers.)
```

support the entire population of the country, from ' Thus ended a demonstration which will not be speedily withdrawn from the manufacturing districts, and it will have upon the advancement of those principles

a figure in the foreground. The Whigs had been mercifully pleased to remit a portion of his sentence. Why? because they imagined that by infernal tortures they had got rid of him. They had brought him to the verge of eternity. There were those present who saw him and who could testify that his body and limbs were swollen to an alarming extent-his nervous debility and general state of health was such, that they thought he could not live more than three weeks, and so they let him out to die. Thank God they were mistaken. He was now some thing like his own man again-he was there a living witness against despotism and class tyranny! and by God's blessing he hoped to see their downfal, and to rejoice, not only at the liberation of his brethren now incarcerated; but of the destruction of the foul system under which they and so many others have been made to suffer. (Loud cheers.)

The CHAIRMAN then gave as the next toast, "The Northern Star and the democratic press." (Great cheering.)

Mr. HILL begged, on behalf of the Northern Star to thank them most cordially for the compliment they had paid that paper, in placing it at the head of the democratic press; nor was it of course the less pleasing to him after the four years' service he had endeavoured to render them in the conducting of that journal, to know that this was no idle compliment, timent upon which their proceedings had been based was correct in its expression; if the people were estimated and supported by the people, there could be

The CHAIRMAN then gave " The Chartist Candidates | no danger of permanent class legislation. With the liberty to think, to reason, to argue, to inquire, and to

The CHAIRMAN next announced that he had come to Governments were originally formed to protect the the last toast of the evening-"The ladies." He was weak against the strong; but by degrees, and in pro- happy to say that he had secured the services of "quite cess of time, the aristocracy gained power, and used a lady's man" to respond to the toast; his remarks ment,-(hear, hear,)-and drew the labourer from his stay for a while, in order that the ladies, who were inheritance, in order that they might obtain possession very wishful, might enjoy the pleasure of a dance. The

But Mr. O'Connor had proved that he meant to restore ; Mr. HICK, in a speech of some length responded

VALUABLE WORKS.

Just published, price 2s. 12mo. bound in cloth, TIFTEEN LESSONS ON THE ANALOGY

THE TEA PARTY AND SOIREE.

About half-past seven o'clock, half of the company. also that the room was very tastefully decorated with sounced that while the tables were being eleared, Mr. cheers,

The toast was received with great cheering. Mr. VEVERS who had been delegated to represent from his carriage to the masses by whom he was sur- He was happy to see that the time had come when the you any participation in the land. I have always thought which I run, and I am determined to persevere. come seated in the Music Hall, where the Tea and power-that they at last dared to think and to act also. the gander; and I have heard it said that many per- course which faction has pressed me to enter on? While their power was permitted to remain quiescent, swns, who are good judges, make the physicians taste Never, never, never, never, loud cheers.) Let me now in the Orchestra, and the tes was served up, the tables personal intercourse with that veteran reformer in the having been previously well stored with substan- year 1822. He had since then stood up in many contials, for which great credit is due to the com- flicts for the cause. He was now approaching seventy mittee of management, and to those ladies under years of age; but the gratification he had experienced whose more immediate superintendance the entertain. that day more than repaid him for all the toils he had ment was arranged. We should not forget to notice, passed through in a life of service. The speaker then went on to expatiate upon the influence of the female evergreens, bouquets of flowers, dre. No sooner had character, and to call upon the wemen, of whom he nearly nine o'clock before the tables were finally miss of right, and presenting to oppression an yet he called upon them to unite; to let O'Connor's unable or never intended to perform. He knew per- your popularity when it served their purposes, but I the tyrant's lash. There were some amongst the middle AND SYNTAX OF THE ENGLISH LANthe Whigs had all shut themselves in back rooms— which is the the study of a state, agitate, were every body, and every body were Chartists; whose past conduct so well merited their confidence, men in what could be pilfered from the people; he at least every body did honour to the distinguished of which he had proved himself so well worthy; and knew that there was no staple commodity for always to be found among you; always mixed up with give the suffrage to the working classes for fear with such a leader, and such a union as they had the those in his grade to traffic upon and speculate in, but your cause, and ready to advantage it in any manner they should send men who were better acquainted power to form, success must be certain. (Great what proceeded from labour; and he said to those that I think most conducive to its success. It is a with the circumstances of all classes to legislate for cheering.) He concluded by proposing the first around him, if we cannot secure some of that to our-dangerous them in the House of Commons. He then went on to Selected from the best English Authors, and so cheering.) He concluded by proposing the nrst around first, if we cannot secure some of that to our angerous thing, it has always been a dangerous the proposing the next around first aro what did Edward Baines do? As soon as he made cution of a particular course, which has for its object style the labouring population the swinish multitude, in the foregoing Work, money by vending his spurious opinions, and although he the amelioration of the condition of the working and spent their over time in the company of prostitutes, the Huddersfield Chartists, responded to the toast. professes to stand by his order, he refuses to give classes. Yet I have made a just estimate of the danger and other even more degrading ways; though even they were obliged to admit that the working classes were rounded, and then retired until the company had be- people seemed to manifest some consciousness of their that what was sauce for the goose was good sauce for the people were now getting too intelligent to be humbugged; they were not so ready now as formerly to they would always be the victims of oppression. So the medicines they prescribe before they take them. inform you as to a certain matter, a portion of which listen to the tales told to them at the hustings, and to long as they continued to exhibit themselves in the What then was Edward Baines's first step when he got you are cognisant of yourselves. You recollect the de- shout in favour of the factions who were ensnaring character of cringing slaves they would never lack a money? Why, purchase a little bit of Chat Moss, monstration which was made in the middle of the them; for they knew now that all the talk was mere to the number of upwards of five hundred, being as riding aristocracy to sit closely on their backs. (Lond laughter.) snow in the dead of last winter, when the men and the humburg, and they were not to be led away with it. many so the saloon would conveniently accommodate, cheers.) He was not a Chartist of yesterday. He had Though he tells you that the land will not do you any women from distant parts crowded to Leeds in order He (the speaker) had been returned as the Member for many is the shown while the shown of borne the battle and the breeze for a long period of good, he took care to secure a little bit of it for himself, to do honour to the principles of the Charter, and Bradford at the last election by show of hands by a being seated, Mr. O connor encerci, and the factor of a long period of and are factor of a long period of and by a bad be means; noy so convinced to meet their reviler; you remember when the tremendous majority, and had not the other parties dewhich lasted for some minutes; he took his seat at a under the personal and living leadership of the vene-table with the Chairman (Mr. Brook) and other friends, induced the happiness of the very worst description that could be laid hold of when the people were Marshalled under the auspices gretted that at a period like this the privilege of voting sconer than be without. (Cheers and great laughter.) And as to organic-change, as scon as the Reform Bill is passed, what does Edward Baines do? He turns to another piece of cajolery; and though there is great I was the caged lion then. (Cheers.) And yet Mr. great strife and dissension in his cabinet; though there O Connell, who did not venture to come to Leeds, told | would a different system prevail, and labour would be is for some time a great difference between Mr. Bsines the people of Ireland that I had recommended the people the standard of the currency. (Cheera.) He exhorted as "I," and Mr. Baines as "we," eventually Mr. of Leeds to assassinate him if he came. (Shame.) I them to unity, and to steer the same peaceful course Baines declares for the Ballot. (Cheers.) One week would appeal to all of you who know what I said and did, they had hitherto done, by which the enemy would be every recens, bouquets of nowers, and to solver had intervolute, and to the enemy would be the guests at the tables partaken of tes, than they was glad to see so large a number present, to add he says, in his newspaper, the Ballot is every thing; whether any one can say that I ever held out such an prevented from plundering them, and they would be retired, and another large party, who had occupied the their strength to that of their husbands, fathers, and and the next week he says that the repeal of the Corn intimation to any one? ("No, never.") Were not enabled to proceed on to victory. He warned them gallery, and an ante-room, took their places, and it was brothers, making firm their phalanx against the ene- Laws, with the Ballot, will do all that is desired. these my words-" They will endeavour to break the against being led away by spies, had it not been for (Cheers and laughter.) I am told that you had a meet- peace, but let every man be a policeman to preserve the them the people would ere this have been in possescleared. As an accompaniment, the Chairman an-new descent that while the tables were finally miles of right, and presenting to oppression an oppose the aliding sion of the promised land. He entreated them not to any need that while the tables were heins cleared. Mr. cheers.

BY WILLIAM HILL. Also, Price One Shilling, bound in Cloth, PROGRESSIVE EXERCISES. BY WM. HILL. Also, Price Fourpence, THE GRAMMATICAL TEXT BOOK, for the use of Schools; in which the bare naked principles of Grammar, expressed as concisely as possible, are exhibited for the memory. Published by Cleave, 1, Shoe lane, Fleet-street, London; Hobson, Northern Star Office, Leeds; Heywood, Manchester; and all Booksellers.

LEEDS :- Printed for the Proprietor, FEARGUS O'CONNOR, Esq., of Hammersmith, County Middlesex, by JOSHUA HOBSON, at his Printing Offices, Nes. 12 and 13. Market-street, Briggate; and Published by the said JOSHUA HOBSON, (for the said FEARGUS O'CONNOR.) at his Dwelling-house, No. 5, Market-street, Briggate; an internal Communication existing between the said No. 5, Market-street, and the said Nos. 12 and 12, Market street, Briggate, thus constituting the whole of the said Printing and Publishing Office one Premises.

Communications must be addressed, (Post-paid) J. HOBSON, Northern Star Office, Leeds. Saturday, October 2, 1841